“Sarah Lawrence taught me to desire knowledge, to seek it out not because it would be covered later on a test, but because it was something I had to have. It was the kind of education that made you hungry to know everything. I was allowed to fully explore these subjects and inspired to think for myself.”

- Ann Patchett '85, author and winner of the Orange Prize for Fiction and the PEN/Faulkner Award in 2002 for her novel Bel Canto
