

I have experienced sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking.

WHAT ARE MY OPTIONS?

Student survivors, witnesses, and bystanders who report, in good faith, any incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, will NOT be charged with an alcohol or drug violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

CONFIDENTIAL OPTIONS

On-Campus Resource
SLC Health & Wellness Center
914-395-2350
Monday-Friday
9am-5pm

Off-Campus Resource
Westchester Victims Assistance Services
914-345-9111
24hours/7days

REPORTING OPTIONS (Non-Confidential)

SLC Employee
[Faculty, Staff, RA or Administrator]

If you decide to tell any SLC staff or faculty (except Confidential options) they are required to notify the Title IX Coordinator.

SLC Public Safety
914-395-2222

Title IX Officer
Dean of Equity and Inclusion
Allen Green
914-395-2527
Andrews Annex
Room 102B

Local Police or Emergency -911

↓

SLC Title IX Coordinator — The Title IX Coordinator leads the College response, which may include an investigation by the Title IX Investigator. The Title IX Coordinator will inform you of your rights and options (see below).

↓

Interim remedies may be taken, including: a 'no contact' order and/or classroom and housing adjustments

↓

The Title IX Coordinator or designee will conduct an investigation of the incident. After the investigation is complete, the Title IX Coordinator will review all relevant information and determine if the College will proceed with a student conduct hearing.

YOU ALWAYS HAVE A RIGHT TO:

Choose to report to the Police

Choose to connect with a Confidential Support Resource

Choose to participate in the Title IX investigation, or not. You may decide to no longer participate at any time.

Request specific remedies, including adjustments to classroom and housing arrangements and a 'no contact' order.

For more information and resources, visit slc.edu/safe or my.slc.edu/safe

HAVE A CONCERN OR COMPLAINT?

Concerns or complaints regarding the College response may be filed with Allen Green, Title IX Officer, at 914-395-2527, agreeen@sarahlawrence.edu, Sarah Lawrence College, 1 Mead Way, Andrews Annex Room 102B, Bronxville, NY 10708