THE STUDENT HANDBOOK

The 2025–26 Sarah Lawrence College Graduate Student Handbook is your guide to Sarah Lawrence and the campus. Please read it through at least once. Familiarity with the material contained herein will save you much time and many headaches later. You are especially advised to read carefully the sections outlining academic and campus life policies and procedures, as you are responsible for following the College regulations published there. When you need information, always check this handbook first.

This handbook has been prepared for the undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, and staff of Sarah Lawrence College, and others wishing to know about College policies, procedures, programs, and activities. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained on this site is accurate as of August 18, 2025. Sarah Lawrence College reserves the right to correct errors and to make changes in policies, procedures, programs, and/or activities without prior notice. Changes and amendments will be posted to this site and companion PDF.

ABOUT SARAH LAWRENCE COLLEGE

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

William Van Duzer Lawrence founded the College in 1926 as a two-year diploma-granting institution (or junior college) intended, in part, to relieve the overcrowding in women's colleges around the country. Named to honor his wife, Sarah Bates Lawrence, the College became a four-year degree-granting institution in 1931. Originally admitting only women, the College made the commitment to coeducation in 1968, with the conviction that our distinctive opportunities should be available to all. Today the College welcomes men and women of all races and backgrounds who display evidence of intellectual curiosity and stamina, concern for others, and the potential for personal growth. We are particularly concerned that our faculty, administration, and student body reflect the social, racial, and economic diversity that characterizes our society. We believe that education is enhanced by diversity, that when a college is too homogeneous it loses the vitality of a dialogue among people of different experiences and beliefs.

Throughout its history, Sarah Lawrence has promoted new ideas and instituted outstanding programs. In 1937, the College founded the Early Childhood Center, a school for children ages 2 through 6, where Sarah Lawrence students serve as interns and engage in research projects. In 1949, the College introduced programs leading to the MA degree; since 1969, the College has also awarded the MFA degree in the performing arts and creative writing. In 1962, Sarah Lawrence established the Center for Continuing Education, the first full-scale undergraduate program in the country designed for returning adult students. Sarah Lawrence has pioneered the founding of several outstanding graduate programs that have served as models nationwide: the master's program in human genetics (1969), providing training for health professionals in human genetics and inheritable disorders; the master's program in women's history (1972), linking teaching and research with the problems of women in a changing society; and the master's program in health advocacy (1980), educating advocates for a broad array of roles within the health care system. In 1985, the College began the Art of Teaching Program, which leads to the MEd degree and prepares students for teacher certification (nursery through sixth grade). Activities and programs in child development were consolidated as the Child Development Institute in 1987.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

We believe an educated person is one who combines skepticism with reverence, who questions everything but the dignity and worth of others, and who recognizes an obligation to serve the larger community.

We believe the most profound learning takes place when the process of education is linked to the experiences, interests, and capacities of the individual student. By investing their own human and intellectual resources in the process of education, students more effectively commit themselves to academic study. We foster that active involvement by focusing on each student and that student's unique interests and potential.

To help each student attain a fully autonomous and meaningful relationship to knowledge, our pedagogy is based on small discussion seminars, individual conferences, and direct faculty advisement. When students take intellectual and creative risks, they become aware of the particular strengths and weaknesses of their own processes of learning, communication, and expression. We encourage students to:

- explore intellectual issues within a framework of humanistic values,
- blend intellectual rigor with passionate human concern,
- derive pleasure from disciplined study,
- approach learning with a sense of meaning and urgency,
- transcend any intellectual and creative limitations.

Close faculty-student contact is required to realize our educational goals. The low student-to-faculty ratio of 9-to-1 makes the intensity of this teaching possible. The result is more direct faculty participation and involvement with students in the educational process than at any other major undergraduate college in the country.

THE MISSION STATEMENT OF SARAH LAWRENCE COLLEGE

At Sarah Lawrence College our mission is to graduate world citizens who take intellectual and creative risks, who cross disciplinary boundaries, and who are able to sustain exceptional academic discipline within a framework of humanistic values and concern for community. Our unique educational practices provide our students with the opportunity to study intensively in small classes, to engage in independent research, and to spend unparalleled amounts of time working one on one with an exceptional faculty of scholars and artists, creating a tailored academic program of the students' own design. Our goal is to instill in students a lifelong intellectual curiosity and nimbleness, as well as the confidence and entrepreneurial spirit to embrace a broad range of personal, professional, and creative pursuits. We thus prepare students to think and act independently so that they will tackle the problems of, and thrive in, a complex and rapidly evolving world.

Central to our mission and philosophy is our commitment to sustaining a diverse and inclusive learning, working, and living community. This requires that students, faculty, administration, and staff reflect the diversity of our society; that people from different backgrounds and with different views treat one another with mutual respect and honest curiosity; and that they engage in dialogue and learning across the boundaries of real and perceived difference.

Please visit DEI@SLC for up-to-date information on the College's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) efforts and ways to become involved.

PRINCIPLES FOR MUTUAL RESPECT

Sarah Lawrence College's Principles for Mutual Respect are a living commitment and aspiration for all members of the Sarah Lawrence College community. The principles were created by a coalition of students, staff, and faculty, and are the foundation for our thinking about the centrality of diversity, inclusion, and belonging to our communal life.

Our Principles for Mutual Respect

- As a community, we respect those with whom we live, learn, and work at Sarah Lawrence College: students, staff, and faculty.
- We aspire to work with integrity and honor.
- We foster honest inquiry, free speech, and open discourse. We seek wisdom with understanding.
- We embrace our diversity in all its dimensions.
- We respect one another's privacy and honor personal boundaries.
- We are responsible and respectful in all of our communications.
- We work to keep our campus and its natural environment a beautiful and welcoming place, and to leave it in a better state than we found it.
- We endeavor to inflict no harm on one another, in word or deed.
- As a community, we strive to support one another in upholding these principles.

COLLEGE OPERATIONS UNDER EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES

The College is committed to fulfilling its academic, student engagement, and residential life mission in keeping with practices and policies explained in this handbook and other relevant materials; however, there may be instances when unavoidable or unexpected circumstances require a change in College academic and/or student life policies, practices, and procedures. These changes may include modifications to instructional methodologies and technologies, partial or full evacuation of the campus, changes to academic term start and end dates, and adjustments to the availability of certain College services.

Sarah Lawrence College reserves the right in such instances to use tuition and other student fees to pursue alternative methods of instructional delivery that ensure the provision of a comprehensive curricular and co-curricular experience that sustains students' progress toward completion of degree requirements. In the interest of campus safety, Sarah Lawrence reserves the right to unilaterally change residential life (room) assignments to accommodate social distancing and implement medically necessary quarantine or isolation conditions. This may include the use of temporary housing facilities managed by Sarah Lawrence both on and off campus.

The College will be guided by adherence to public health recommendations and governmental orders in its policies related to social distancing, the use of personal protective equipment, disease testing or screening, immunizations, contact tracing, or other safety protocols. All members of the Sarah Lawrence College community will be required to adhere to these policies, and individuals who choose not to abide by such requirements may be subject to disciplinary action and/or fines as established by the College or government authorities.

During pandemic or epidemic conditions, students with concerns about attending campus due to personal health issues should contact the Health & Wellness Center at 914.395.2350, and faculty and staff should contact the Office of Human Resources at 914.395.2315 for guidance.

GRADUATE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Degrees and Instructions (p. 12)

Sarah Lawrence offers distinctive master's degree programs and dual degrees in the arts, humanities, social sciences, and sciences.

Course Registration (p. 17)

During the registration period, students study the curriculum and discuss proposed programs with their program directors.

Other Student Policies (p. 21)

Academic Status and Expectations (p. 26)

Faculty are urged to submit a report to the dean of graduate and professional studies and the specific program director about any student whose attendance is irregular or whose work reflects academic difficulty.

Thesis/Capstone Requirements (p. 29)

In addition to coursework and fieldwork credits, each program has specific requirements for the student's culminating work.

Academic Integrity (p. 32)

Academic work is a shared enterprise that depends on a commitment to truthfulness. Sarah Lawrence students are expected to abide by the standards of intellectual integrity that govern the broader academic community to which the College belongs.

Student Conduct (p. 36)

Students are expected to observe College policies and local, state, and federal laws, including breach-of-peace offenses.

Graduate Student Association and Graduate Committees

The Graduate Student Association (GSA) consists of graduate student representatives (collectively agreed upon and determined by the graduate student body) that collaborate with faculty, staff, and administration from all different programs on behalf of the graduate student body in an effort to support and advocate for the interests of all graduate students.

DEGREES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Academic Degrees and Certificates

In 1951, Sarah Lawrence awarded its first master's degrees to four individual students. Since then, the College has trained thousands of genetic counselors, educators, artists, writers, and health care professionals.

Sarah Lawrence offers distinctive master's degree programs and dual degrees:

- Master of Science in Education (MSEd) in Art of Teaching—72 credits
- Master of Arts (MA) in Child Development—48 credits
- Master of Fine Arts (MFA) in Dance—48 credits
- Master of Science (MS) in Dance/Movement Therapy—60 credits
- Master of Arts (MA) in Health Advocacy (online)—48 credits
- Master of Science (MS) in Human Genetics—70 credits
- Master of Fine Arts (MFA) in Theatre—48 credits
- Master of Fine Arts (MFA) in Writing—48 credits
- Master of Science in Education (MSEd) in Art of Teaching and Master of Arts (MA) in Child Development (dual degree)—99 credits
- Master of Arts (MA) in Child Development and Master of Social Work (MSW) in cooperation with New York University (NYU) School of Social Work (dual degree)—38 Sarah Lawrence credits + 56 NYU credits

The College also offers five-year and six-year programs available to undergraduate students upon successful master's degree application:

- Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Science in Education (MSEd) in the Art of Teaching
- Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Arts (MA) in Child Development
- Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Science (MS) in Dance/Movement Therapy
- Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Arts (MA) in Health Advocacy
- Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Science in Education (MSEd) in the Art of Teaching & Master of Arts (MA) in Child Development
- Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Arts (MA) in Child Development & Master of Social Work (MSW) in cooperation with New York University (NYU) School of Social Work (dual degree)

In addition to the above master's degrees, several part-time advanced certificates are available.

In the area of education, Sarah Lawrence offers an advanced certificate in Early Childhood Special Education (17 credits).

The following 12-credit advanced certificates in Health Advocacy are offered as stackable toward the Master of Arts degree in Health Advocacy:

- Foundations of Health Advocacy: Theory and Practice
- Program Design and Evaluation
- Health Policy and Law
- Program Design and Implementation

Degree Requirements

Students are responsible for knowing and satisfying degree requirements. Each graduate program has specific requirements, as defined on the individual program websites as well as the graduate catalogue. Students are expected to maintain regular contact with their program director/adviser to plan their course of study and track progress toward degree completion.

Transfer Credits

Requests for previously completed transfer credit should be made by the student upon entry to the graduate program or in the semester following course completion. Students may request transfer credit for courses taken at other schools if those courses meet the following conditions:

1. They must have been taken at an accredited US college or university or at an international university of comparable accreditation.
2. The grade must be B or above (B- is not accepted).
3. If the course is graded pass/fail, transfer eligibility is reviewed by the program director and registrar.

Courses that meet the above conditions are evaluated, in terms of content, by the program director. It is up to the program director's discretion to evaluate whether the student may transfer graduate-level credit and whether the transferred credit could replace a course in the program. Transcripts to be evaluated must be official and sent directly to the registrar by the issuing institution. Student unofficial copies are not accepted.

A maximum of 10 transfer credits may be applied to the requirements of the degree.

Online Courses Transfer Criteria

1. Online courses must be offered by a regionally accredited college or university and must be applicable to a relevant graduate degree at that school. Massive open online courses and other noncredit or credit-optional courses are not eligible for transfer credit.
2. Online courses must be offered during a defined term/session, with clear beginning and end dates. In addition, for most graduate programs, the online courses may not be self-paced or entirely asynchronous. Students may not simultaneously enroll at Sarah Lawrence and in online courses at another institution, unless they are enrolled in a dual or joint degree program between that institution and Sarah Lawrence.

3. Online courses must have structured progression through course material.
4. Online courses must include student-faculty and student-student interaction, as well as required assignments and teacher feedback.

Program Instruction

Following are the various types of instruction that exist across the various graduate programs. Refer to the graduate catalogue for information on each program's specific structure and course of study.

Seminar-Conference Courses – Small seminars are combined with regular individual conferences with the course instructor. In these conferences, the student and instructor identify the student's specific areas of interest and begin to explore them, often via a project or research paper. These independent enterprises help each student develop and refine skills of analysis, interpretation, and writing. Frequently, a conference project becomes the basis for a master's thesis.

Asynchronous Seminar Courses – Students complete assignments asynchronously and engage in robust collaborative online discussions with faculty and colleagues.

Seminar/Lecture Courses – Students meet weekly for one or more sessions with instructors and engage in seminar and/or lecture discussions.

Independent Study – Students who seek to develop an individual research project/creative work more fully, or to undertake an intensive course of reading, may embark on an independent study. Permission is obtained from the student's program director and from the dean of graduate and professional studies.

Component Courses – Component courses in dance and theatre are specifically structured to integrate theory and practice. Working with an adviser, students select a combination of several components that together constitute a full program for the Master of Fine Arts degree.

Fieldwork, Clinical and Teaching Placements, and Internships – Fieldwork, the integration of the theoretical with the practical, is a requirement for many graduate degrees and an option for all graduate degrees. Fieldwork is required for the programs in Art of Teaching, Art of Teaching/Child Development dual degree, Child Development, Child Development/MSW dual degree, Dance/Movement Therapy, and Human Genetics. The programs in Dance/Movement Therapy and Human Genetics also require students to successfully complete clinical placements in the second year. The programs in the Art of Teaching and in the Art of Teaching/Child Development dual degree require successful completion of teaching placements in the second year. Students in the Child Development/MSW dual degree also complete clinical placements while at NYU. Students are typically graded pass/fail in these courses. Successful completion of fieldwork, internships, clinical placements, and/or teaching placements is a requirement for progress toward degree completion. Sites for fieldwork include hospitals, schools, community initiatives, nonprofit organizations, and government agencies. Failure to successfully engage in fieldwork and/or a clinical or teaching placement may result in dismissal from the field placement, which may also result in failure of the course. International students must speak with their DSO (designated school official) before participating in fieldwork and/or internships.

In addition to fieldwork courses, many students participate in internships throughout the New York City metropolitan area.

Master's Project/Thesis – Most programs require a master's project or thesis, but the format varies. See the Maximum Time to Completion and Master's Project/Thesis sections of this handbook for more information.

Enrollment Status

Graduate students are typically enrolled full time at 10 or more credits. Students considering part-time or half-time (Writing only) status should consult with their program director.

Advanced certificate students are typically enrolled part time, permitting a maximum of nine credits each semester.

Students are expected to enroll in successive fall/spring semesters. Programs in the Art of Teaching, the Art of Teaching/Child Development dual degree, Human Genetics, and five-year Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Liberal Arts and Master of Science (MS) in Dance/Movement Therapy also require coursework in at least one summer semester. If a student is not enrolled at the College, it must be for one of the following approved reasons:

- Taking a leave of absence for personal or medical reasons
- Actively enrolled at another institution as a dual degree student
- Taking a leave of absence for full-time study at another institution

Child Development/NYU dual-degree students are full time at Sarah Lawrence in the first year. In the second year, these students are full time at NYU and receive an enrollment status of dual degree at another institution. After completion of the second year at NYU, students return to Sarah Lawrence to complete the program on a part-time basis and are responsible for certain fees but no additional tuition.

Combined Child Development/NYU students (BA/MA/MSW) begin their graduate work in their senior year at the undergraduate tuition rate. Once a student has graduated with their bachelor's degree, their second and third years of the program are full time at NYU, where tuition is paid (and financial aid received). In their third year of the program, students also complete their thesis (12 thesis credits and two seminar credits) at Sarah Lawrence at a per-course thesis tuition rate.

Students not enrolled either at Sarah Lawrence or at another institution for a dual degree are withdrawn for failure to return. Full-time enrollment requires students to be enrolled in at least 10 credits. International F-1 students must be enrolled full time in order to maintain visa status. Part-time status consists of up to nine registered credits each semester, and students considering part-time status should consult with their program director. A Change of Status form, available on MySLC, must be submitted by the student for each semester that their enrollment status changes, including a change from part time to full time or from full time to part time, a leave of absence, or a return from leave of absence.

Semester enrollment of 10 or more credits is considered full-time tuition. Students enrolled in more than 18 credits in a given semester are typically billed at the per-credit tuition rate for the additional credits. If a student's program requirements warrant more than 18 credits of study in a given semester, they must request an exception to this tuition policy with approval from their program director and from the dean of graduate and professional studies. Part-time students are billed at the per-credit tuition rate each semester. Half-time (Writing only) students are billed at the half-time flat rate.

Maximum Time to Completion

Full-time students are expected to complete single degrees in two years and dual degrees in three years. Part-time and half-time students are expected to complete single degrees in four years and dual degrees in six years. Approved leaves of absence may permit up to four years for degree completion for full-time students or six years for part-time and half-time students. Exceptions may be made by the program director, who reviews requests for extensions as needed and ensures that an academic plan of completion has been developed, signed, and copied to the dean of graduate and professional studies. Extensions are not approved beyond three years for single-degree completion for full-time students and six years for single-degree completion for part-time and half-time students. Extensions are not approved beyond four years for dual-degree completion for full-time students and seven years for dual-degree completion for part-time students. If an extension is not requested and/or granted, the student is withdrawn from the College.

In certain cases, students may request one or two additional semesters to complete their thesis. Typically, students are not granted more than one additional semester for thesis completion. To request an additional thesis semester, students are expected to submit a Change of Status form on MySLC with an appropriate explanation. This request is reviewed by their program director and the dean of graduate and professional studies. Extensions must also be approved by the thesis advisor. Typically, thesis extensions are granted on a per-semester basis. Each additional semester of thesis completion incurs a thesis completion fee. Students may not enroll in more than two additional semesters of thesis completion. Failure to complete the thesis after two additional thesis completion semesters likely results in failure of the thesis and withdrawal from the program.

COURSE REGISTRATION

General

Course registration generally occurs in three periods. Registration for programs with summer courses takes place in early to mid-May. Fall course registration occurs in mid-June. Spring course registration takes place in mid-November. Students submit a Registration Form, as directed by the Registrar's Office, and detailed information and instructions are emailed to students approximately two weeks before each registration period. Each individual program director approves student registration on a semester basis. Students are responsible for regularly reviewing their class schedule on MySLC and reporting any discrepancies to the Registrar's Office, the Graduate Studies Office, and their program director.

Students are expected to be registered for an appropriate course load prior to the beginning of the semester. A two-week Add/Drop period follows the course registration period for minor schedule changes only. Students should not expect to register for an entire course load during the Add/Drop period. Students with active holds on their records, including a balance owed to the College or outstanding required health forms, are not permitted to register for courses. Attendance in classes is permitted only with official course registration. Students with an active hold on their record also may not attend classes until they have cleared all holds.

Program Specifics

Rising senior undergraduate students beginning the five-year BA/MSEd degree register for some graduate-level courses in their fourth year, beginning in the summer following their junior year. Bachelor of Arts graduates continuing into the fifth year for a master's degree register for summer courses prior to their first fall semester as a graduate student. Dance and theatre students register for the program course during the registration period, followed by individual component course registration with the specific department/program director immediately before each semester: in August for the fall semester; in January for the spring semester.

Child Development and Art of Teaching/Child Development dual-degree students are permitted elective courses and may therefore participate in the interview period that precedes the August (for fall) and January (for spring) elective-course registration periods. Students review the offered electives, interview faculty of such courses, and submit their preferences in priority order to their program director. The program director/adviser reviews the electives and course registration. Because class sizes are limited, students might not be placed in order of priority. Students who are not placed in their preferred classes may participate in second-round interviews and registration. The interview process allows students to learn more about course content and expectations and, if relevant, to discuss prior experience with the subject.

Child Development/NYU dual-degree students register for a part-time load at Sarah Lawrence to complete the program in their third year without incurring tuition costs. Students in their third year of this program pay only a program fee.

Add/Drop Period

Students must be registered for classes by the beginning of the semester. The two-week Add/Drop period (except for Health Advocacy students) begins on the first day of classes and is intended for minor schedule changes. The Add/Drop period for Health Advocacy students is only the first week of each semester, because most classes span seven or eight weeks instead of 15 weeks.

To participate in Add/Drop, students must submit the appropriate form located on MySLC and receive necessary approvals. Students are expected to discuss schedule changes with their program director/adviser. In exceptional circumstances, students may contact the dean of graduate and professional studies for late-registration permission, subject to a $50 fee. Courses dropped during this period do not appear on the official transcript.

Summer or intersession courses dropped before the class begins do not appear on the official transcript. Students may withdraw from a summer or intersession course during the first week of class or before the second class meeting and receive a grade of WD on the official transcript.

Courses dropped after Add/Drop are considered a withdrawal; see the Course Withdrawal policy.

Auditing

Students may audit one course each semester, with the permission of the instructor and their program director, for zero credits. Audits do not include conferences with the teacher nor have written work evaluated, but regular attendance throughout the course is required. Faculty may set additional requirements. Standard course-registration procedures apply; students may not audit a course without being officially registered. Audit registration occurs only in the second week of Add/Drop, and requests are reviewed and approved by the program director/adviser. View the Audit Request form available on MySLC. If approved and properly registered and the student attended the class throughout the semester, the audit appears on the student's official transcript. There is no charge for auditing by matriculated, full-time Sarah Lawrence students. Students may not convert an audit into a course for credit, or vice versa, after the Add/Drop period has ended.

Course Withdrawal

The Course Withdrawal period begins once Add/Drop ends and continues through the 10th week of the semester. Students who experience a significant issue that impedes their ability to successfully complete a course may request to withdraw. First, students must discuss the withdrawal with their program director and the instructor and then seek approval from the dean of graduate and professional studies, who provides the Course Withdrawal Request form. Forms are not accepted by the Registrar's Office without required approvals. Ceasing to attend a course does not constitute an official withdrawal; failure to officially withdraw from a course results in a grade of F appearing on the official transcript. Official course withdrawal results in a grade of WD on the official transcript.

Course withdrawal may impact a student's enrollment status, which may impact financial aid, as well as visa eligibility for international students. Students are advised to consult the Financial Aid Office and, if relevant, the international student adviser before withdrawing from a course.

There is no reduction of tuition charges for courses dropped once the Add/Drop period has ended and the Course Withdrawal period begins. Only one course withdrawal over a maximum of two semesters is permitted.

The Course Withdrawal period for summer and intersession is between the first and second class meetings.

Credits More Than 18

Full-time students generally enroll in 10 to 18 credits in a given semester, depending on program requirements. Students on academic probation are not permitted to exceed the required program credits in a given semester. Students are encouraged to consult with their program director when considering extra coursework beyond program requirements in a given semester. Registration for credits beyond program requirements takes place only in the second week of Add/Drop. Students must consult with their program director and then submit the appropriate form available on MySLC. Credits more than 18 for the semester are typically charged at the regular per-credit tuition rate.

Five-year and six-year students enrolled in their senior year at the College are permitted to take up to 22 credits without additional charge if necessary to complete both their undergraduate degree requirements and first-year graduate program requirements.

Human Genetics students planning to enroll in between 18 and 22 required program credits in a given semester should request approval to enroll in this program without additional charge from their program director and from the dean of graduate and professional studies.

Yearlong Courses

In addition to fall and spring semester courses, the College has a number of yearlong offerings. Evaluations are submitted for both fall and spring, and students receive a grade for the entire course at the end of the spring semester.

Students enrolled in yearlong courses may elect to drop the course at the end of the fall semester after discussing it with their program director and instructor. If approved by the program director, students must submit a Yearlong Course Drop form available on MySLC. If a student does not continue in the spring portion, the fall portion of the course receives a grade from the instructor. If students do not participate in the yearlong drop period during fall, drops may occur only during the Add/Drop period in the spring semester.

Faculty who indicate that a student has not completed passing work will give the student a grade of “F” for the fall, and the student is dropped from the spring portion of the course. Students who continue in the course for the second semester but submit a Course Withdrawal Request by the deadline receive credit for the fall portion. Students may not submit additional work in the second semester to increase a fall-semester grade.

OTHER STUDENT POLICIES

Accommodations

Any student who has a disability and requires accommodations related to course registration at any point in the registration process should contact the assistant dean of access and disability services at disabilityservices@sarahlawrence.edu or 914.395.2235. Examples of registration-related accommodation support include:

- Students with mobility impairments requiring accessible classrooms choosing their classes without regard to location
- Assistance with online interviews
- Support in navigating the course-registration process

The registrar works with the assistant dean of access and disability services to arrange a location for the class in an accessible classroom space. Any student who has a disability and requires accommodations should contact the assistant dean of access and disability services, who determines the appropriate accommodations.

Attendance

Consistent attendance for and engagement in academic obligations is expected. Students are expected to notify faculty in advance when they must miss a class or conference appointment. Missed conferences may be rescheduled at the faculty member's discretion. Faculty members are not required to reschedule missed conferences. The instructor must notify the program director/student's adviser if a student has missed two classes or conferences in succession without prior notice or explanation. Illness does not excuse a student from academic work. Regardless of the reason for an absence, missed coursework must be made up.

Students may not leave early for or return late from College breaks. Academic requirements must be met, including attendance and engagement in class and conference meetings, as well as in fieldwork, internship, clinical, and teaching placements for the duration of the commitment.

Short-Term Absences

A student may need to take a short-term absence from campus in the case of serious illness or family emergency. The program director should be consulted and faculty contacted before the student leaves campus, if timing allows. Missed coursework should be made up either during the time away or immediately upon return. Students should also notify the associate dean of graduate students or the dean of graduate and professional studies, who are available for assistance as needed. When the absence is illness-related, students should work with the Health & Wellness Center to receive necessary support.

Religious Holiday Observances

Although the College does not close officially for religious holidays, the right of any member of the community to observe these holidays is respected. Students who miss class are asked to inform their instructor(s) in advance. Faculty are asked to help students make up the work missed because of such observance and to avoid scheduling special activities for those days.

Leave of Absence

A personal leave of absence may be granted one semester at a time, upon student request, up until the end of the 10th week of the semester. Ideally, students should request a leave of absence prior to the start of the semester. The student should first discuss the leave with their program director, then complete the Change of Status form available on MySLC. Students on leave of absence are charged a semesterly matriculation fee. International students should consult with their DSO (designated school official) before their leave of absence begins.

Each subsequent semester of leave of absence may be requested via the Change of Status form on MySLC after conferring with the program director. Leaves of absence may be requested for up to four consecutive semesters, after which time the student is withdrawn from the College. Students are contacted by the Registrar's Office prior to their expected return; those who do not return from leave of absence for the expected semester are withdrawn from the College for failure to return and must follow the policy as outlined in the Withdrawal from the College portion of this handbook.

Students who request a leave of absence but are subsequently suspended for academic reasons must apply for reinstatement as outlined in their suspension letter.

Students who are ready to return to the College from a leave of absence must submit the Change of Status form on MySLC after conferring with the program director. Deadlines are November 1 for a spring-semester return and April 1 for a fall-semester return.

Students with loans or grants who are planning a leave of absence should consult with the Office of Financial Aid about any financial implications of their leave. While on leave, students may engage in public events on campus; they may not attend programming intended for currently enrolled and attending students.

Medical Leave of Absence

A medical leave may be requested by a student for health/medical reasons that interfere with the student's ability to function academically. The deadline to request a medical leave of absence is the end of the 10th week of the semester. Students should first discuss all potential leave requests with their program director, associate dean of graduate students, and/or dean of graduate and professional studies to review their leave options and receive academic advising. It is important to stress that students are not required, nor is there an expectation, for students to discuss any health or mental-health information with anyone outside of Sarah

Lawrence's Health & Wellness Center. Following this discussion, students should then submit a Change of Status request form, available on MySLC (MySLC login required), and then schedule a meeting with one of the Health & Wellness Center directors at healthservices@sarahlawrence.edu. A medical leave may also be required by the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies if the student has a health condition that cannot be reasonably accommodated by the College.

During the medical leave, the student is expected to obtain treatment for the condition that warranted the leave and subsequently demonstrate that the issue has been sufficiently resolved to allow resumption of studies.

Request to return from a medical leave is reviewed by the Health & Wellness Center in consultation with the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies. Students initiate the request to return using the Change of Status form available on MySLC (MySLC login required). For spring-semester returns, requests are due by November 1, with clinical documentation submitted to the Health & Wellness Center by December 1. Fall-semester requests to return are due by April 1, with clinical documentation submitted to the Health & Wellness Center by May 1.

In circumstances due to health-related issues, F-1 international students may be permitted to be enrolled part time if approved by Health & Wellness and the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies. International students should consult with their DSO (designated school official) when considering any type of leave.

A medical leave may be requested for up to four consecutive semesters, after which time the student is withdrawn from the College. Students are contacted either by the Registrar's Office or the Health & Wellness Center prior to their expected return; those who do not return from medical leave of absence for the expected semester are withdrawn from the College for failure to return and must follow the policy outlined in the Withdrawal from the College portion of this handbook.

While on medical leave, students are expected to absent themselves from participating in or organizing on campus, as well as in or on off-campus College-sponsored/affiliated activities, and to visit only with permission, given in advance, by the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies. Failure to abide by this expectation may adversely affect the decision to return. Students who are on a medical leave but are subsequently independently suspended for academic reasons must first apply for reinstatement.

Academic Probation

Sarah Lawrence graduate programs emphasize a combination of student evaluations and final grades as key indicators of a student's progress in their program. A grade of B or higher is expected in every academic course. A pass is expected in pass/fail courses and fieldwork practicums. A "Fail" in a pass/fail course or a grade lower than a B indicates that the quality of work is below graduate standards and thus academic difficulty. The student should discuss areas of weakness that need improvement with their program director. For a grade of B-, the student may be asked to repeat the course and must meet with the program director to discuss plans for improvement. For a grade of C+ or lower, the student is asked to repeat the course and must meet with the program director to discuss plans for improvement. Course repeats are billed at the same rate as initial course enrollment.

If a student receives another grade lower than a B in the course of their graduate studies, a second conversation with the program director and a conversation with the associate dean of graduate students or the dean of graduate and professional studies is indicated. The program director, in consultation with the faculty, discusses the student's ability to complete the course of study. Consequences of inadequate progress toward the completion of the degree, including one or more grades lower than a B, might include academic probation, suspension, or potential dismissal from the program.

Any student with at least one grade of C+ or lower or more than one grade lower than a B in a given semester is placed on academic probation for at least two semesters. Students who are required to repeat a graduate-level course are also placed on academic probation for at least two semesters. Those students are notified in writing and must meet with their program director and the associate dean of graduate students or the dean of graduate and professional studies to discuss plans for improvement. Students on academic probation must adhere to the following terms for a full academic year:

1. Timely submission of work that meets course expectations
2. Consistent attendance and engagement in class, conference meetings, and other academic obligations
3. On-time completion of courses (permission to request an incomplete must be approved by the dean of graduate and professional studies)
4. No violations of the College's academic integrity policy, whether resolved formally or informally

Probationary students are reviewed at the end of each semester and, if the terms are met, are permitted to return the next semester but remain on probation. If the terms are not met, the student is academically suspended and notified in writing.

Academic Suspension

The College reserves the right to suspend students who are not making satisfactory progress toward their degree. This includes successful completion of fieldwork, internship, clinical, and teaching placements, as well as consistent progress on the thesis project. Students who have been suspended are eligible to apply for reinstatement after two academic semesters and must apply to the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies to be reinstated. Students are notified of the reinstatement procedures in the letter of suspension. Students who have been suspended for academic reasons may not receive their degree until they have been reinstated and have successfully completed degree requirements.

Reinstatement Process

A student wishing to be reinstated from academic suspension must apply in writing and may be asked to meet with the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies. To initiate an application for return, the student should first consult with and receive approval from their program director to submit an application. The student should then email the request to the dean of graduate and professional studies at gradstudies@sarahlawrence.edu by November 1 for spring return or April 1 for fall return. Applications should be accompanied by a letter from the student's program director. The request for reinstatement should address the following:

1. The issues that led to suspension from the College and measures taken to address them
2. The reasons the student feels ready to resume study at this time
3. The plans made to support the student's progress if reinstated

Students may choose to consult with their program director and/or with the associate dean of graduate students before submitting their application for return. The decision to reinstate a student relies on evidence that the student has identified and addressed the issues that impeded academic work in the past and has demonstrated a readiness to reengage with the academic demands of the College. As such, it is strongly recommended that, if possible, students engage in meaningful activity (e.g., working, volunteering, or successfully completing non-Sarah Lawrence classes) in preparation for a return to Sarah Lawrence College.

Students who are reinstated return to the College on academic probation. A student who is suspended after having been reinstated may request reinstatement after two academic years.

Withdrawal from the College

Students may request a complete withdrawal from the College up until the end of the 10th week of the semester. Students not withdrawn by this date for the current semester receive grades and evaluations for courses in which they are enrolled. Students may request, at any time, to withdraw from the College for future semesters. For a temporary departure, view the Leave of Absence portions of this handbook.

Withdrawn students lose access to their Sarah Lawrence email and MySLC portal within a semester of withdrawal. To ensure that their email records are transferred appropriately, students considering a withdrawal should contact the Help Desk prior to the withdrawal.

All students considering a withdrawal should initiate this process with a conversation with the Graduate Studies Office.

Students who have withdrawn from the College and seek to return must complete a readmission application available through the Office of Admission. Students seeking to return are asked to provide official transcripts for coursework completed during their time away from the College. Standard readmission procedures apply.

ACADEMIC STATUS AND EXPECTATIONS

Grade Scale

A traditional grade scale, consisting of letter grades from A+ through F, is used across the College. The grade symbols appear on the legend that accompanies official transcripts. Beginning with incoming fall 2024 students, official transcripts display final grades of WD (withdrawal) and F (failure) which were previously omitted. The College does not calculate grade point average nor class rank. Students must receive at least a grade of B in each course to be considered in good academic standing. A grade of B- in one or more courses may result in academic warning or probation and may require the course(s) to be repeated. Any earned grade of C+ or below requires the student to repeat the course and generally results in at least two semesters of academic probation.

Progress Reports

Faculty submit a report to the dean of graduate and professional studies and the specific program director about any student whose attendance is irregular or whose work reflects academic difficulty. This permits the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies to connect students with resources to support them. The office may request mid-semester progress reports on any student who is on probation or who seems to be experiencing academic difficulty.

Narrative Evaluations

Students receive written narrative evaluations in most classes from their instructors at the end of each semester, with the exception of the Human Genetics program. Thesis and fieldwork courses also do not generally include narrative evaluations. Evaluations are a detailed written assessment of student work in each course, which provide students with feedback on their strengths and areas for improvement. Evaluations submitted electronically are available for students to view or print through MySLC. Faculty also submit traditional letter grades for courses posted to the student's unofficial and official transcripts. Grades may also be viewed by the dean of graduate and professional studies, the associate dean of graduate students, and the student's program director. Grades and evaluations are used to assess a student's academic progress.

Grades for fall courses are submitted in January. Evaluations for fall and yearlong courses are submitted in January. Evaluations and grades for spring and yearlong courses are submitted in June.

Students in Academic Difficulty

Students who are having difficulty meeting their academic commitments are monitored by the associate dean of graduate students and the dean of graduate and professional studies in conjunction with the student's program director and, in the case of students in five-year programs, the undergraduate dean of studies and the student's don. The College assists students in identifying the underlying reasons for their academic challenges and finding appropriate sources of assistance. These resources include the Writing Center, Health & Wellness Center, and Disability Services.

At the end of each semester, the associate dean of graduate students, the dean of graduate and professional studies, and individual program directors read student evaluations and review students' grades. Students who have a persistent pattern of poor evaluations, more than one grade lower than a B or at least one C+ grade in a given semester, may be placed on academic probation. Students who consistently receive poor evaluations and multiple grades lower than a B over the course of more than one semester may be suspended. See the relevant sections in this handbook.

Incompletes

Coursework is due by the last day of classes, unless the student has requested and been granted an official incomplete by the instructor. Upon approval, students must submit a Request for Incomplete form available on MySLC. Students are responsible for requesting an incomplete, whereas the instructor determines whether the student is eligible. An incomplete may be awarded only if the student has already done substantial passing work in the course and the reason for granting an incomplete is valid (e.g., illness, serious personal crisis, accident, extenuating academic circumstances). Faculty members are under no obligation to grant incompletes unless they feel the incomplete is warranted. Students on academic probation must receive approval from the dean of graduate and professional studies prior to making a request for an incomplete.

An incomplete is not necessary in the fall of a yearlong class or if a teacher agrees to an extension that allows the evaluation to be submitted by the required deadline. Coursework for fall semester incompletes is due by January 15. Coursework for spring semester and yearlong incompletes is due by June 30. If exceptional circumstances warrant an extension of these deadlines, the instructor must gain approval from the dean of graduate and professional studies. Faculty are expected to notify the Registrar's Office if the work is not submitted by the due date.

Evaluations and grades for fall semester incompletes are due to the Registrar's Office, from instructors, by January 30 and by August 1 for spring incompletes. If the faculty member does not submit a final grade, the grade listed on the Request for Incomplete form is posted on the student's official transcript.

Grade Changes

Students who wish to contest a final grade must notify the course instructor, the relevant graduate program director, and the dean of graduate and professional studies within the calendar year following the semester in which the grade was earned. The dean of graduate and professional studies will then follow up with all relevant parties, as needed. The student will be asked to provide an explanation for the grade reevaluation request. The faculty member will be asked to provide a response to the student's request once the faculty member has reevaluated the grade.

Additional or revised work may not be submitted after a course has ended in order to pass a course or improve the grade, but the teacher may be asked to reevaluate the work that was submitted during the semester if the student believes the work was undervalued or if there is a demonstrable discrepancy in the final grade calculation relative to the rubric stated on the course syllabus.

Only a faculty member can change a grade. If the faculty member decides to amend the grade, the faculty member must notify the Registrar's Office; the change must be approved by the dean of graduate and professional studies before it can be posted.

Evaluation Queries

In the event a student believes that a teacher's evaluation includes inaccurate information, the student should address the concern directly with the teacher. The teacher may submit an amendment to the evaluation to the registrar. Additionally, a student may write an amendment to an evaluation and submit it to the dean of graduate and professional studies to be placed in the student's permanent file.

Course Appraisals

Students are expected to write a course appraisal for each of their courses at the completion of each semester. These appraisals evaluate the contribution of the instructor to the student's education and to Sarah Lawrence. The appraisals are read by the program director and by the dean of graduate and professional studies. Faculty do not have access to read their appraisals until all grades and evaluations are submitted to the Registrar's Office.

THESIS/CAPSTONE REQUIREMENTS

In addition to coursework and fieldwork credits, each program has specific requirements for the student's culminating work.

The Art of Teaching master's thesis consists of a written and oral presentation. In the final spring semester, second-year students register for a five-credit thesis and graduate seminar course.

The Art of Teaching and Child Development dual degree has a master's project that consists of an original research-based thesis that integrates both theory and practice. In the third year, students complete the thesis over two six-credit courses at Sarah Lawrence as a fall-spring sequence. Students are also required to concurrently enroll in a five-credit thesis completion and graduate seminar course in the spring semester.

The Child Development program has a master's project that consists of an original research-based thesis. In the second year, students complete the thesis over two six-credit courses as a fall-spring sequence.

The Child Development/Master of Social Work dual degree has a master's project that consists of an original research-based thesis. In the third year, students complete the thesis over two six-credit courses at Sarah Lawrence as a fall-spring sequence.

The Joan H. Marks Graduate Program in Human Genetics requires a culminating, yearlong, 12-credit thesis project in the final year.

The Dance/Movement Therapy program requires a culminating two-credit master's thesis in the final spring semester.

Students in the Health Advocacy program are required to complete a yearlong thesis project as part of the requirements for a two-semester Capstone Seminar course sequence. Additionally, students must engage in 300 hours of supervised fieldwork as part of the requirements for a two-semester practicum course sequence.

The Dance program requires second-year students to develop a 12-credit, yearlong master's project including choreography and performance, as well as an accompanying written thesis.

The Theatre program requires second-year students to complete a 12-credit, yearlong master's project, including both a performance project and a substantial piece of critical writing. Students must enroll in Embodied Thesis to develop and present their MFA performance project throughout the academic year. Students are also required to take Critical Writing, where they will produce a 5,000-word essay that includes an interview and citations in MLA format.

The Writing program requires a two-credit master's thesis that includes either a single manuscript or a collection of multiple pieces of written work and completed over the final two semesters.

Thesis Progress

Students must make consistent, adequate progress over the duration of the thesis period in order to continue with the thesis and with the program. This includes completing thesis milestones within the timeframe outlined for each program in the program handbook and/or in other provided thesis materials. After each successful thesis semester, a temporary grade of IP (in progress) is given. Upon final thesis submission, a P (pass) for allotted thesis credits is awarded. Failure to successfully complete thesis requirements in a timely manner may result in failure of one or more thesis semesters. Each semester beyond the standard thesis duration incurs additional cost. Course repeats are billed at the same rate as initial course enrollment.

In the case of first thesis-semester failure, where applicable, students may be able to repeat the failed semester, which may delay the student's expected degree completion, as determined by the program director. Course repeats are billed at the same rate as initial course enrollment.

In the case of final thesis-semester failure, students must submit an appeal to the program director and dean of graduate and professional studies to repeat the thesis work. The student may be required to complete the entire thesis course sequence, which may delay the student's expected degree completion, as determined by the program director.

Submission Deadlines

Final theses must be approved by the thesis adviser, the second reader (if applicable), and the program director. Students should submit approved thesis work to the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies by May 1 for a spring degree completion; August 1 for an August degree completion (for students with approval for a summer thesis extension, see below); or December 1 for a fall degree completion.

Short-Term Extension

In exceptional circumstances, students may be granted an incomplete or an extension on their thesis work of no more than one month following the end of the semester at no additional tuition. An extension must be approved by the thesis adviser, the program director, and the dean of graduate and professional studies. Typically, such extensions are granted when the student encounters unpredicted academic or personal challenges within the last month of the semester. Expected May graduates who extend their thesis past the end of the spring semester are eligible for the subsequent August degree conferral.

Summer Extension

In certain cases, students may request to complete the thesis in the summer following a yearlong thesis project. The student must have completed all other degree requirements and must have made adequate thesis progress for the thesis adviser and program director to confirm that the thesis can be completed within two months. To request a summer thesis extension, students are expected to submit a Change of Status form on MySLC with appropriate explanation, reviewed by the thesis adviser, the program director, and the dean of graduate and professional studies. If approved, the student must register for thesis completion during summer course registration. A complete final draft is due to the thesis adviser on July 1, and a final approved draft must be submitted to the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies by August 1 to be considered for an August degree conferral. Students granted a summer thesis extension will be billed a summer thesis extension fee.

Semester Extension

In certain cases, students may request one additional semester beyond the standard thesis duration with a thesis completion fee. The student must have completed all other degree requirements and must have made adequate progress on the thesis for the thesis adviser and program director to confirm that the thesis can be completed in a subsequent semester. To request an additional thesis semester, students are expected to submit a Change of Status form on MySLC with appropriate explanation, reviewed by the thesis adviser, the program director, and the dean of graduate and professional studies. If approved, the student must register for thesis completion during the course-registration period for the upcoming semester and incur a thesis completion fee. Typically, students are not granted more than one additional semester for thesis completion. If a second extension is necessary, however, this same procedure must again be followed.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic work is a shared enterprise that depends on a commitment to truthfulness. Sarah Lawrence students are expected to abide by the standards of intellectual integrity that govern the broader academic community to which the College belongs. These standards entail acknowledging the origin of the ideas, information, data, and forms of expression that one employs in one's own work, including those produced using generative artificial intelligence; giving due credit to the sources from which one has borrowed; and affording one's reader a means of consulting those sources directly. Different academic disciplines may have varying conventions of citation and acknowledgment, and electronic media have increased the availability of oral and printed sources. Instructors must clearly outline their expectations for collaboration, citation, and acknowledgment in their courses. Similarly, students are responsible for understanding and adhering to these standards in any academic or creative activity and should seek clarification, if needed.

In addition to the accurate representation of an individual's work, academic integrity requires that students not abet others in any misrepresentation of their work. Academic integrity also requires that students not interfere with the access of other students to shared material, such as library books, course packets, etc. The Esther Raushenbush Library offers citation and reference educational workshops throughout the academic year. For further information, students may contact the library at reference@sarahlawrence.edu. Students who are unclear about proper citation or who have been found to have violated the academic-integrity policy are especially urged to attend these workshops.

Offenses

Offenses against academic integrity include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Plagiarism:
 - a. Failure to properly cite sources
 - b. Unauthorized use of technology, including, but not limited to, the use of generative artificial intelligence
 - c. Submitting under a student's own name work that is not entirely theirs
 - d. Cheating or abetting others in the act of cheating
2. Falsification of information, data, or attributions
3. Submitting the same work for more than one class, within the same or different semesters, without the express permission of all faculty involved
4. Stealing or defacing library materials or otherwise rendering them inaccessible to others

Procedures

Any member of the community, including students, staff, or other faculty, who has reason to believe that a student has committed a violation of the academic-integrity policy should consult with the dean of graduate and professional studies.

When a teacher identifies a suspected violation, the teacher must discuss their concern with the student (in person, whenever possible). This conversation gives the student an opportunity to offer context, clarify misunderstandings, and/or acknowledge responsibility. If, after this initial conversation, the faculty member feels that the concern is merited, the teacher may respond as described below. Teachers are encouraged to confer with the dean of graduate and professional studies, particularly if the suspected violation is discovered after the term ends.

Once the teacher has spoken with the student about the suspected violation of the policy of academic integrity, the faculty member may decide to resolve the matter directly with the student. Any violation likely to be mentioned in the student's final evaluation should be reported to the dean of graduate and professional studies by filing an Academic Integrity Report form located on MySLC. Depending on the severity of the reported infraction, there are three pathways to deal with the breach of academic integrity:

1. In a case where the faculty has reported a minor violation, the student will receive a warning letter from the dean of graduate and professional studies, which includes resources for understanding academic integrity and guidance for avoiding further violations. This is not recorded on the student's permanent record, except in the situation described below.
2. If a student in question has accumulated multiple reports of minor violations, the dean of graduate and professional studies may decide to bring the case to a formal hearing committee made up of two faculty members of the Committee on Student Work and two faculty members of the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies and chaired by the senior associate dean of studies.
3. In a case where the faculty has identified a major violation, a charge is brought and, depending on the resolution, the finding becomes a part of the student's permanent record. The case is brought to a formal hearing committee made up of two faculty members of the Committee on Student Work and two faculty members of the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies and chaired by the senior associate dean of studies.

Reporting Process

Reporting Infractions

Faculty members submit a report of suspected academic-integrity violations using the Academic Integrity Violation Report form located on MySLC. This form should detail the nature of the violation, evidence supporting the alleged offense, and any relevant information, such as the work in question and the manner of its discovery.

Notification

Upon receipt of the report, the dean of graduate and professional studies follows up with the student. The student is given an opportunity to respond to the allegations, either in writing or via a hearing.

Resolution Procedures

Minor Violations

In the case of a minor violation, the student receives a warning letter from the dean of graduate and professional studies that includes resources for understanding proper citation and guidance for avoiding further violations. Warnings do not become part of the student's permanent record, although repeated minor violations may escalate to a formal charge.

Major Violations

A faculty report of a major violation requires a more formal review process. If a hearing is required, a formal hearing committee made up of two faculty members of the Committee on Student Work and two faculty members of the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies and chaired by the senior associate dean of studies is assembled. The student might choose to consult with the associate dean of graduate studies, their program director, or another adviser in preparing for this hearing.

- Acceptance of Responsibility

If the student admits to the violation, no hearing is required and sanctions are determined based on the documentation provided by the reporting faculty. The student may initiate an appeal based only on the severity of the sanction. The appeals process is described below.

- Dispute of Allegation

If the student disputes the charges, a hearing is conducted. The student may choose to attend the hearing in person, via teleconference, or by written response. The hearing committee reviews and discusses submitted materials with the student and program director present and makes a determination based on the evidence presented.

- Decision and Notification

The hearing committee deliberates and decides whether a violation occurred and, if so, determines the appropriate sanctions. Possible sanctions include a letter of warning; academic probation; suspension; expulsion; or, in cases involving graduates, a recommendation to revoke degrees. The student, the reporting faculty, and the student's program director are notified in writing of the committee's decision if the student is found responsible for the violation.

- Record Keeping

If the hearing committee finds no violation or insufficient evidence, records of the inquiry are not retained in the student's file; however, if a student is found responsible or admits responsibility for a major violation, it is recorded in the student's permanent academic record and may be disclosed to external institutions upon request.

- Appeals Process

A student who is found responsible for a major violation of the academic-integrity policy has the right to appeal the decision and/or the sanction to an independent, ad hoc Appeals Committee. Reasons to request a decision review would be to provide new evidence, to reveal a procedural error, or to contest the severity of the sanction. The Appeals Committee consists of the provost (or designee), a faculty member, and a senior member of the library staff. The student must present relevant materials, including the grounds for the appeal, in writing. Note that an appeal is not a rehearing of the case. The Appeals Committee may consult with the Hearing Committee regarding its response to the appeal, but the Hearing Committee plays no role in the Appeals Committee decision-making. The decision of the Appeals Committee is final.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Grievance Procedures

If a graduate student wishes to make a complaint against a faculty member, staff member, or administrator, the student should meet with the dean of graduate and professional studies. The student may also choose to first bring a complaint to their program director.

When the student seeks a formal resolution, they should formulate their complaint in writing either on their own or in collaboration with their program director and/or the dean of graduate and professional studies. The complaint may be referred to the Title IX officer, the director of human resources, and/or the provost. If the complaint is not an issue of Title IX and/or bias, the provost, the dean of graduate and professional studies, and/or the program director and/or their representatives will meet to discuss next steps. The likely first step is a conversation with the faculty member, staff member, or administrator in question. Depending on the outcome of that conversation:

1. The provost and dean of the faculty might dismiss the complaint, in which case both the student and the faculty member, staff member, or administrator will be informed of the decision.
2. The provost and dean of the faculty might uphold the complaint, in which case:
 - i. They might decide that the conversation with the faculty member in question is sufficient sanction, in which case both student and faculty member are informed that the matter now rests.
 - ii. They might take further steps, as appropriate. In order to best accommodate the student who filed the complaint, the provost consults with the dean of graduate and professional studies and the student's program director, as relevant.
3. A copy of the original written complaint is held in the Office of the Provost.

When the student seeks an informal resolution, a written complaint is not required. The dean of graduate and professional studies consults with the student's program director, the Title IX officer, the director of human resources, and/or the provost. The dean of graduate and professional studies then discusses possible options with the student. These options might include mediating a meeting with the student or students together with the faculty member in question and/or contacting the faculty member for a conversation. The student's program director may be engaged in this conversation, as deemed relevant by the student and the dean of graduate and professional studies. If the student doesn't participate in this intervention, the student is informed that it has taken place.

If a student wishes to make a complaint against the dean of graduate and professional studies, the student should begin the resolution process with the provost.

If a student is not satisfied with either an informal or formal resolution of a complaint, the student may appeal to the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies, absent the dean of graduate and professional studies and any other committee member who has already participated in resolving the complaint. The student should submit a complaint to the Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies by writing to the director of administration in graduate and professional studies. The student receives a written communication detailing the resolution of the committee. The committee's decision is final.

Student Conduct

Students are expected to observe College policies and local, state, and federal laws, including breach-of-peace offenses. Violation of College policies or local, state, or federal laws is subject to College conduct action, and offending students may be sanctioned to leave the College by the dean of graduate and professional studies. Students are expected to comply with requests of College officials, including campus public-safety officers. Failure to comply with requests results in conduct action.

GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION AND GRADUATE COMMITTEES

The Graduate Student Association (GSA) consists of graduate student representatives (collectively agreed upon and determined by the graduate student body) that collaborate with faculty, staff, and administration from all different programs on behalf of the graduate student body in an effort to support and advocate for the interests of all graduate students. This group, in collaboration with the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies and graduate student colleagues, recommend, create, and assist in facilitation of educational, professional, and social events for graduate students on and off campus to support and strengthen the graduate community.

Additionally, as representatives of the graduate student body, these individuals serve on the following College committees:

General Committee (one student)

The General Committee shall consist of six members of the regular teaching faculty who have been at the College for at least four years and elected by the faculty for terms of three years, two members to be elected each year; two representatives of the administrative staff who have been at the College for at least four years, to be elected by the administrative staff for a term of two years; two undergraduate students, elected by the matriculated undergraduates for a term of one year, from those who will be matriculated members of the sophomore, junior, or senior class during their terms of office, with successive terms permitted; and one graduate student, elected by the graduate students for a term of one year, successive terms permitted. The president of the College, the dean of the College, the provost and dean of studies and student life, the dean of equity and inclusion, and the dean of graduate and professional studies shall be ex-officio members of the committee. The president of the College shall act as chair of the committee. The functions of the General Committee shall be as follows:

- The committee shall meet regularly with the president of the College, who shall preside at its meetings. In the absence of the president, the provost may preside. The committee shall make recommendations on general College policy to the president and to the faculty.
- The committee shall discuss matters of general concern, including questions of doubtful or overlapping committee jurisdiction. The General Committee shall review the coordination of efforts to achieve diversity in the College. The General Committee shall set the agenda for faculty meetings and approve the College calendar. If requested to do so by at least 15 faculty members, the General Committee shall call a special meeting of the faculty. The General Committee (or its elected members) shall meet with any faculty group or committee at its initiative or by request.
- Members of the General Committee shall elect one faculty member from among the committee's faculty membership to serve on the College's Budget Committee.

The graduate student representative to the General Committee also serves as the graduate student representative to the Board of Trustees.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee (one student)

The Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee shall consist of five faculty members, elected by the faculty for terms of three years, the appropriate number to be elected each year; two students, elected by all matriculated undergraduates for terms of one year; a graduate student, elected by all matriculated graduate students for a term of one year; one representative of the administrative staff who has been at the College for at least four years, to be elected by the administrative staff for a term of two years; the dean of equity and inclusion; the director of financial aid; the director of diversity; a representative designated by the dean of studies; a representative designated by the provost; a representative designated by the dean of graduate and professional studies; and the dean of enrollment. Voting members of the committee shall consist of the faculty representatives, the student representatives, the dean of equity and inclusion, the director of diversity, and the elected administrative staff representative. The dean of equity and inclusion shall serve as committee chair. The president of the College and the provost shall serve as ex-officio members of the committee and shall attend meetings of the committee at their own discretion.

The functions of the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee shall be as follows:

- To serve as a forum for the discussion of diversity at the College
- To monitor and report to the General Committee and the faculty on the progress of diversity at the College
- To recommend to the General Committee, Curriculum Committee, Admissions Committee, and Committee on Student Life measures it determines are likely to enhance the diversity of the College

Committee on Undergraduate Student Life (one student)

The Committee on Undergraduate Student Life shall consist of three members of the faculty, elected by the faculty for terms of three years, one member to be elected each year; 15 undergraduate students, five elected in accordance with the Student Senate bylaws, nine residential area representatives, and a resident advisor; one graduate student, appointed by the Graduate Student Senate; and four members of the administration, representing the Dean of Studies Office, the Office of Student Affairs, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, and the Office of Campus Facilities. The dean of student affairs and the dean of studies and student life shall serve as nonvoting members. Other members of the student body and administration may be invited by the committee to serve as nonvoting members.

The committee shall elect a chair and vice chair from among the voting members. Until such an election takes place and/or in the absence of both the chair and the vice chair, the dean of student affairs shall serve as chair.

The functions of the committee shall be as follows:

- All meetings of the committee are open to the community, and students are invited to bring concerns or proposals relating to the quality of student life for review. Any change in the campus environment proposed by the administration will also be brought to the committee for discussion and recommendation.
- The committee shall advise and consult with the president on issues regarding policies and procedures relating to student behavior, space utilization, future planning, and student services. The standing subcommittees will be: housing, food services, health services, parking, security, Students for Students Scholarship Fund, bookstore, library, sexual assault and violence, programming, and diversity. Special ad hoc subcommittees may be formed in order to address specific issues or take specific action as directed by the committee.
- The committee shall oversee, through regular reports, the co-curricular programming of the College, including the events of the Students for Students Scholarship Fund.

Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies (one student)

The Committee on Graduate and Professional Studies shall consist of three members of the faculty (excluding graduate program directors) to be elected by the faculty for terms of three years, one member to be elected each year; the dean of graduate and professional studies; the assistant/associate dean of graduate students; a graduate student; and the provost or their designate, who shall serve as an ex-officio member. In addition, the graduate program directors shall appoint three program directors or associate/assistant directors, who will serve for two years. The dean of graduate and professional studies shall serve as chair of the committee.

The functions of the committee shall be as follows:

- To review new master's degree programs and academic credit-bearing initiatives at the level of graduate and professional programs; in conjunction with the graduate program directors, to make recommendations about new programming to the president of the College and the Educational Policies Committee of the Board of Trustees
- To review curriculum and academic integrity of existing programs in consultation with the graduate program directors
- To review policies and procedures proposed by the graduate program directors
- To hear final appeals of students contesting a dismissal decision
- To represent the entire faculty's interests in the activities of graduate and professional studies and to report on them to both teaching and administrative members of the faculty

ACADEMIC RESOURCES AND SUPPORT

The Learning Commons (p. 42)

The Learning Commons at Sarah Lawrence College is committed to providing comprehensive and inclusive academic support services that meet the needs of a vibrant and diverse student body. Our objective is to provide a wide range of helpful resources that will enable all students to thrive within the college's unique pedagogical structure. The Learning Commons is located on the main floor of the library.

Writing Center (p. 43)

Expository writing at Sarah Lawrence is seen as a way of understanding any discipline rather than as a discrete and separate skill. It is an integral part of every academic course at SLC, as well as performing and creative arts classes.

Access and Disability Services (p. 44)

Disability Services works with students, faculty, and staff to ensure that appropriate accommodations and services are provided for students with disabilities.

Library Services (p. 45)

The Esther Raushenbush Library is essential to the academic life of Sarah Lawrence College. Its diverse resources have always supported the school's academic mission.

Registrar's Office (p. 47)

The Registrar's Office maintains the permanent records of all current and former students.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (p. 49)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords eligible students certain rights with respect to their education records.

THE LEARNING COMMONS

Comprehensive academic support is available through the Learning Commons which is located on the main level of the library. The Learning Commons offers peer tutoring in math, science, and several languages; writing support; academic coaching in the areas of time management, organization, and study skills; and interactive workshops.

For more information, please visit the Learning Commons website: slc.edu/lc.

WRITING CENTER

Students who may need or desire additional writing support can schedule one-on-one appointments with faculty members who direct the Writing Center. They can also meet with graduate students in the Learning Commons, who work evening hours, or with an ESL/EAL instructor. Students typically schedule one 30-to-45-minute appointment per week. Scheduling information, as well as further information about writing appointments, may be found on the Learning Commons website: slc.edu/lc.

Students seeking academic accommodations related to their writing assignments should contact the Office of Access and Disability Services.

ACCESS AND DISABILITY SERVICES

914.395.2235 — Bates Suite 220

Access and Disability Services works with students, faculty, and staff to ensure that appropriate accommodations and services are provided for students with disabilities. Sarah Lawrence will make reasonable accommodations and provide auxiliary aids and services to assist otherwise qualified persons in achieving access to its programs, services, and facilities in accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The Office of Access and Disability Services also provides assistance to students with temporary disabilities due to illness or injury.

The process for receiving accommodations begins with the student self-disclosing a disability to the Office of Access and Disability Services and providing the necessary supporting documentation to verify eligibility. Guidelines for documenting specific disabilities can be found on the College website at sarahlawrence.edu/disability-services. Documentation is considered confidential information and does not become part of a student's permanent record, nor is it shared with other campus offices or persons without the student's written consent. The assistant dean of access and disability services will review all documentation and meet with students to determine reasonable accommodations that are specific to the needs of the student. Additionally, the assistant dean of access and disability services will work collaboratively with students to promote independence and expand self-advocacy skills.

Accommodations often include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Extended time on tests and/or quiet testing location
- Assistance during course registration
- Note-taking assistance
- Provision of readers, scribes, or sign language interpreters
- Written materials provided in alternate format, e.g., Kurzweil, audio from Learning Ally
- Housing modifications and assistance with dietary concerns
- On-campus medical transport

Students who would like to request accommodation(s) for a documented disability(ies) are encouraged to contact the assistant dean of access and disability services at 914.395.2235 or disabilityservices@sarahlawrence.edu. Students with disabilities may contact the assistant dean of access and disability services at any point to request an accommodation; however, it is strongly encouraged that students do so as early as possible, when able, so that the request for accommodation(s) may be reviewed and processed prior to the semester of enrollment.

LIBRARY SERVICES

The Esther Raushenbush Library is essential to the academic life of Sarah Lawrence College. Its diverse resources have always supported the school's academic mission, and its congenial atmosphere and open floor plan allow for both independent and group study.

The library has approximately 800,000 hard copy books, e-books, government documents, microforms, audiocassettes, DVDs, and videocassettes, and has over 4,000 serials in hard copy format. In addition, it offers access to 200 online full-text and citation databases, providing electronic access to more than 700,000 serials and over 150,000 films and other media.

Patron Privacy

The library is committed to protecting the privacy of its users. Our policies conform to the code of ethics of the American Library Association that states, in part, that “we must protect each library user’s right to privacy and confidentiality with respect to information sought or received and resources consulted, borrowed, acquired, or transmitted.

- Circulation information is confidential; however, records are available to staff over a period of time for normal circulation workflow purposes.
- Faculty and staff records are removed manually when notice is received that they are no longer associated with the College.

Circulation Policy — General

A student must present their own Sarah Lawrence College ID card to check out library materials. The loan period for books and music scores held in the circulating collection is four weeks; however, items can be recalled at any time after a one-week period and must be returned by the new due date indicated. Books can be renewed online for an additional four-week period up to three times. Periodicals, reference books, and material in special collections, faculty collections, and the archives do not circulate.

Circulation Policy — Reserves

The main library reserve collection is maintained as a closed collection, and books circulate for a limited time in order to provide equal access to required course materials for all students. In addition, the library has a large collection of electronic reserves. Most physical reserve items circulate for three hours during the day and may also be borrowed for overnight use. Items borrowed for overnight use are due back one hour after the morning opening. Please keep in mind that overdue reserve items are fined at the rate of $0.50 an hour, and failure to return overdue reserves or recalls is a serious offense; the penalties for noncompliance are substantial and may extend to loss of library privileges.

Book Integrity = Access for Everyone

It is also important to understand that stealing or defacing library materials or otherwise rendering them inaccessible to others is a violation of the College's Policy on Academic Integrity and may be reported to the Office of the Dean of Studies and Student Life.

Circulation Policy — Interlibrary Loan

Items borrowed through interlibrary loan have due dates that average one month in length, as determined by the lending libraries. However, overdue interlibrary loan items are a serious matter as it risks us losing the ability to request more items from that same library in the future.

Library Research Assistance

Individual research consultations are available by appointment. A research consultation provides the opportunity for an individual student to meet with a research services librarian to discuss library resources and research strategies for conference and course work. Students may schedule an appointment via a link on the library home page or by telephone or email.

Accessibility

The library is dedicated to providing access to all materials. If assistance accessing physical materials is needed, please contact any member of library staff. If you have additional accessibility needs related to our materials, please contact the Office of Access and Disability Services.

Library Research Assistance

Individual research consultations are available by appointment. A research consultation provides the opportunity for an individual student to meet with a research services librarian to discuss library resources and research strategies for conference and coursework. Students may schedule an appointment by telephone, by email, or via an online form available on the library home page. The library staff works closely with Access and Disability Services to identify appropriate technologies to assist students with special needs.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

914.395.2301/2302 — Westlands 2nd Floor Suite

The Registrar's Office maintains permanent academic records of current and former students. The office is responsible for course registration, class schedules, official transcripts, enrollment verification, transfer credit evaluation, degree audit and graduation clearance, international student services, and various other academic-related matters.

Review the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) section of this handbook for how the Registrar's Office protects student education records. View the FERPA Policies & Forms webpage on MySLC for more information.

Official Transcripts

Current and recently graduated students may request transcripts through the Transcripts page of MySLC, ordered through the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC); former students without MySLC logins may request official transcripts directly from the NSC at getmytranscript.com. The fee for transcripts is $10 per copy. Mailed requests should include a check or money order payable to Sarah Lawrence College. Additional charges apply for expedited delivery. Transcript fees cannot be billed to the student's account. If a transcript is sent directly to the student to be forwarded to another party (e.g., another college or university, potential employer) and the student opens the envelope, the transcript is then considered unofficial.

Prior to fall 2024, official transcripts included only courses in which academic credit has been earned and courses currently in progress. Beginning with the entering Class of 2024, all attempted and earned credits display on the official transcript.

Sarah Lawrence College cannot provide copies of transcripts from other schools a student has attended. If such transcripts are needed, those schools should be contacted directly.

If a student is currently enrolled and the transcript request is marked "after final grades are posted" or "after degree is posted," the College holds the request until grades and/or degree is posted, or until the student notifies the Registrar's Office otherwise.

If a student is enrolled in yearlong classes and wishes to include provisional grades with the transcript, the student must ask the teachers to submit provisional grades through MySLC and notify the registrar.

Transcripts are usually issued within four to six business days once payment is received. Official transcripts bear the College seal and the registrar's signature.

Enrollment Verification

Students requiring enrollment verification for veterans' benefits, loan deferments, or any other reason should email the Registrar's Office at regoff@sarahlawrence.edu. Currently enrolled students may generate their own verification through the Transcript page of MySLC, ordered through the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC), available approximately three weeks after the first day of classes.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords eligible students certain rights with respect to their education records. An “eligible student” under FERPA is a student who is 18 years of age or older or who attends a postsecondary institution at any age.

These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records (academic records, financial aid records, student account records, etc.) within 45 days after the day the College receives a request for access. A student is expected to submit the Request to Review Education Records form found on MySLC, identifying record(s) to inspect. The Registrar’s Office will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education record that the student believes is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA.
3. A student who wishes to ask the College to amend a record should write the Registrar’s Office, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested, the College will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.
4. The right to provide written consent before the College discloses personally identifiable information (PII) from the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

Sarah Lawrence College discloses education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official typically includes a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee. A school official also may include a volunteer or contractor outside of the College who performs an institutional service or function for which the school would otherwise use its own employees and who is under the direct control of the school with respect to the use and maintenance of PII from education records, such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent or a student volunteering to assist another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official typically has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the College.

Upon request, the school also discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

5. The right to file a Complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue SW, Washington, D.C. 20202.

FERPA permits the disclosure of PII from students' education records, without consent of the student, if the disclosure meets certain conditions found in § 99.31 of the FERPA regulations. Except for disclosures to school officials, disclosures related to some judicial orders or lawfully issued subpoenas, disclosures of directory information, and disclosures to the student, § 99.32 of FERPA regulations requires the institution to record the disclosure. Eligible students have a right to inspect and review the record of disclosures.

The College may disclose PII from the education records without obtaining prior written consent of the student:

- To other school officials, including teachers, within Sarah Lawrence whom the school has determined to have legitimate educational interests. This includes contractors, consultants, volunteers, or other parties to whom the school has outsourced institutional services or functions, provided that the conditions listed in § 99.31(a)(1)(i)(B)(1)–(a)(1)(i)(B)(3) are met. (§ 99.31(a)(1))
- To officials of another school where the student seeks or intends to enroll, or where the student is already enrolled if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer, subject to the requirements of § 99.34. (§ 99.31(a)(2))
- To authorized representatives of the U. S. Comptroller General, the U.S. Attorney General, the U.S. Secretary of Education, or state and local educational authorities, such as a state postsecondary authority that is responsible for supervising the College's state-supported education programs. Disclosures under this provision may be made, subject to the requirements of §99.35, in connection with an audit or evaluation of federal- or state-supported education programs, or for the enforcement of or compliance with federal legal requirements that relate to those programs. These entities may make further disclosures of PII to outside entities that are designated by them as their authorized representatives to conduct any audit, evaluation, or enforcement or compliance activity on their behalf. (§§ 99.31(a)(3) and 99.35)
- In connection with financial aid for which the student has applied or which the student has received, if the information is necessary to determine eligibility for the aid, determine the amount of the aid, determine the conditions of the aid, or enforce the terms and conditions of the aid. (§ 99.31(a)(4))
- To organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, the school, in order to: (a) develop, validate, or administer predictive tests; (b) administer student aid programs; or (c) improve instruction. (§ 99.31(a)(6))
- To accrediting organizations to carry out their accrediting functions. (§ 99.31(a)(7))

- To parents of an eligible student if the student is a dependent for IRS tax purposes (§ 99.31(a)(8)); if the student is not a dependent for IRS tax purposes or unsure if they are a dependent, PII can still be disclosed to parents with student submission of the Permission to Disclose Academic Information form on MySLC.
- To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena. (§ 99.31(a)(9))
- To appropriate officials in connection with a health or safety emergency, subject to § 99.36. (§ 99.31(a)(10))
- If it is information the school has designated as “directory information” under § 99.37. (§ 99.31(a)(11))
- To a victim of an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or a nonforcible sex offense, subject to the requirements of § 99.39. The disclosure may only include the final results of the disciplinary proceeding with respect to that alleged crime or offense, regardless of the finding. (§ 99.31(a)(13))
- To the general public, the final results of a disciplinary proceeding, subject to the requirements of § 99.39, if the school determines the student is an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or nonforcible sex offense and the student has committed a violation of the school's rules or policies with respect to the allegation made against him or her. (§ 99.31(a)(14))
- To parents of a student regarding the student's violation of any federal, state, or local law, or of any rule or policy of the school, governing the use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance if the school determines the student committed a disciplinary violation and the student is under the age of 21. (§99.31(a)(15)).

Directory Information:

The College has designated the following data as Directory Information: legal name, chosen name, SLC ID number, campus address, permanent/home address, SLC email address, date of birth, degree/academic program, class year, enrollment status, and participation in officially recognized activities and sports.

Under FERPA and this policy, directory information may be released by Sarah Lawrence without the student's consent at any time unless the student has submitted a Request to Withhold Directory Information form on MySLC.

Health or Safety Emergency:

If PII is needed to resolve an emergency situation, the College may release that information if it determines that it is necessary to protect the health or safety of the students or other individuals. In making the decision to release PII in such circumstances, the College will consider the severity of the threat to health or safety of those involved, the need for the information, the time required to deal with the emergency, and the ability of the parties to whom the information will be given to deal with the emergency.

Questions about this policy should be addressed to the Registrar's Office.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES AND SUPPORT

Health and Wellness Center (p. 53)

Sarah Lawrence Health & Wellness Center provides compassionate, informative, and confidential care for students' medical and psychological health concerns. Appointments are available to all registered students on the Bronxville campus.

Resources Regarding Alcohol and other Drugs (p. 55)

HEALTH AND WELLNESS CENTER

Hours: Monday–Friday, 9 a.m.–5 p.m., 914.395.2350 — Lyles House and additional satellite offices

Sarah Lawrence Health & Wellness Center provides compassionate, informative, and confidential care for students' medical and psychological health concerns. Appointments are available to all registered students on the Bronxville campus (UG and GR).

Medical Services

The staff includes nurse practitioners and registered nurses. Common needs treated by the medical staff include acute illnesses, minor injuries, physical exams, vaccinations, and sexual health issues including birth control. Nurse practitioners write prescriptions to treat diagnosed illnesses and renew non-psychotropic prescriptions when appropriate.

Psychological Services

The staff includes licensed mental health professionals with training and experience working with undergraduate and graduate students. Short-term individual sessions and ongoing group therapy options are available to all students at the College regardless of health insurance. Common student concerns treated by our staff include depression, anxiety, relationship and family issues, as well as other presenting concerns within the scope of practice of a college counseling center. Short-term medication management can be supported for some presenting mental health concerns within the Health & Wellness Center. Long-term medication management needs are referred to local community providers.

In addition to on-site services, the Sarah Lawrence College Health & Wellness Center offers ConnectNow 1-833-589-0153 to all enrolled students for immediate, in the moment emotional support, 24/7 at no cost to the student.

Case Manager

A Health & Wellness Case Manager is able to facilitate referrals for students seeking care off campus, who need support for long-term or chronic medical or psychological health issues, or who need care beyond the scope of practice of the center.

Appointments

The Health & Wellness Center is located in Lyles House, near the Westlands Gate, at Mead Way and Boulder Trail. The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. when College classes are in session. Appointments for medical and psychological services may be made online at my.slc.edu/patientportal or by calling the office at 914.395.2350.

No-Show/Late Arrival Policy

There is a $15 no-show fee for Medical and Psychological Services appointments. If you need to cancel your appointment, you must do so via the online patient portal or by phone at 914.395.2350 by 9 p.m. the night prior to your scheduled appointment. If you do not cancel by 9 p.m. the night prior, or if you arrive more than 10 minutes late for your scheduled appointment, a $15 no-show fee will be charged directly to your student account.

Medical Absence from the College

Emergency contacts of students as well as the dean of studies will be notified when a student is separated from the College. Any illness that requires absence from the College should be reported immediately to the Health & Wellness Center. Students are responsible for notifying parents or guardians about any nonemergent personal health problems. Absence from class because of illness should be reported by the student directly to the professor; documentation is not provided by the Health & Wellness Center for missed classes.

RESOURCES REGARDING ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

Sarah Lawrence College is committed to basing prevention efforts on strategies identified and tested for effectiveness by scientific evidence and evaluation. The College acknowledges and is committed to changing the culture that underlies alcohol misuse among young adults. Therefore, we employ comprehensive, integrated prevention programs that target individual students, including at-risk or alcohol-dependent drinkers, the student population as a whole, and the College community.

As members of a small and close community, we are often aware of the use and abuse of alcohol and other drugs by our friends, peers, students, or colleagues. In cases where substance use is negatively affecting the health, academic performance, emotional well-being, or behavior of a community member, we are in a position to help through intervention. Students are referred to Health & Wellness for evaluation and counseling in the following circumstances:

- A student exhibits consistent or severe behavior that is in violation of the College's Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy.
- A student's use of alcohol or drugs is disruptive or life threatening to themselves or others within the community.
- A student is not able to function effectively in their academic program due to alcohol and/or drug use.

Health & Wellness clinicians are able to provide a brief initial assessment for alcohol and other drug use and make appropriate recommendations and referrals. Appointments may be scheduled by calling 914.395.2350 or scheduling online at my.slc.edu/health.

Faculty or Staff Resources for Students

In addition, students are encouraged to speak to their adviser, a member of the Dean of Students or Student Life staff, or the dean of graduate and professional studies if they are concerned about their own alcohol/substance use or the alcohol/substance use of a peer.

Local and Other Resources for Students

The following list includes some of the local resources available to those seeking information, support, and help regarding alcohol and other drug use. The College does not endorse any of the organizations or vouch for the efficacy of any treatment or recovery option.

- Alcoholics Anonymous: For meeting days and times: my.slc.edu/healthservices
- Addiction Institute of New York, 212.280.0100: The Addiction Institute utilizes the College Outreach and Prevention Education (COPE) program. COPE is group therapy for college students based on the principles of the stages of change and of motivational interviewing.
- Al-Anon/Alateen: www.al-anon.alateen.org Help for families and friends of alcoholics

- Smart Recovery Self-Help Network: www.smartrecovery.org Abstinence-based, but not 12-step or spiritually based
- Moderation Management: www.moderation.org Moderation, balance, self-management, personal responsibility
- Marijuana Anonymous: www.marijuana-anonymous.org 12-step, abstinence-based
- Harm Reduction: www.centerforoptimalliving.com Alternative treatment approach that views the reduction of harm as a goal for substance users

CAMPUS RESOURCES

Campus Safety (p. 59)

The mission of the Department of Campus Safety is to enhance the quality of life for the entire College community and the immediate surrounding area by maintaining a secure environment, where the safety of all is balanced with the rights of the individual.

Campus Safety Advisory Committee (p. 61)

In accordance with New York State law, the College will appoint an Advisory Committee on Campus Safety. The committee reviews campus security policies and procedures and makes recommendations for their improvement.

Student Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (p. 62)

The Office of Student Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging collaborates with student organizations, campus-wide committees, and other administrative offices to provide programs and learning opportunities that explore issues related to social identity and equity, facilitate dialogue across differences, and promote inclusion and belonging.

CAMPUS SAFETY

Mission

The mission of the Department of Campus Safety is to enhance the quality of life for the entire College community and the immediate surrounding area by maintaining a secure environment, where the safety of all is balanced with the rights of the individual. Sarah Lawrence Campus Safety staff adhere to a campus community public safety philosophy, where our Campus Safety officers are expected to have positive interactions with our community daily and to enhance the quality of life of the entire College community and its immediate surrounding area by maintaining a safe environment in an all-hazards approach to responding to security, fire, medical, and service calls. The department strives to accomplish its mission while adhering to its core values of service, courtesy, and respect. The success of this mission depends upon an effective working relationship between Campus Safety officers and the diverse population of the Sarah Lawrence College community, including students, staff, faculty, visitors, and the surrounding community. Critical to this relationship is mutual respect. Therefore, we pledge to respect the diverse needs and interests of the community we serve while being vigilant in the protection of both persons and property. In return, we ask that our partners in the community assume their individual and collective responsibilities to make Sarah Lawrence College a safe campus with the goal of providing a safe haven that fosters an oasis for learning.

Emergency & Nonemergency Contact Numbers

Campus Safety is located in Swinford Annex and is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. The emergency number is 914.395.2222; the nonemergency number is 914.395.2209 for questions, information, and nonemergency requests. Campus Safety not only acts as the operator for emergency and nonemergency calls, but also as a dispatcher via radio to Campus Safety officers in the field and city first responders (fire/police/emergency medical) as needed, while monitoring campus-wide fire, intrusion, duress, access control alarms, emergency phones, and surveillance cameras.

Campus Safety Officers

Our Campus Safety officers are New York State Licensed Security Officers who are trained, certified, and registered with NYS, which entails maintaining compliance with the New York State Security Guard Act of 1992. The officers receive additional training by the College in various areas, including report writing, CPR, first aid, use of AEDs, Emergency Medical Responder, Title IX, fire safety, nonviolent crisis intervention, active threat awareness, campus community policing philosophy, RITE – Racial & Emotional intelligence Training, Mental Health First Aid Training, and Emergency Dispatcher Training. Campus Safety officers enforce the laws and regulations of the federal government, New York State, the City of Yonkers, and Sarah Lawrence College. Campus Safety officers do not have arrest powers above that of a private citizen. They do have the authority to ask persons on campus property for identification and to determine whether individuals have lawful business at Sarah Lawrence College.

Campus Safety officers have the authority to issue parking tickets on campus. Parking tickets issued to students are billed to their College financial accounts. The Campus Safety Department works closely with state and local police agencies/Fire Departments and Emergency Medical Service provider, where appropriate. Campus Safety officers patrol the campus on foot and in vehicles 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In addition to their regular patrols, officers respond immediately to emergencies, escort students when requested, operate the Campus Shuttle, open and close various facilities, patrol parking areas, issue parking tickets, control and respond to all intrusion and fire alarms, respond when students, faculty, or staff are locked out of dorms or offices, and document all incidents.

Campus Safety Procedures and Updates

Campus Safety utilizes various methods, including the College website, to advise students about security procedures and updates. Campus Safety alerts and advisories are sent in the form of emails to all students via their Sarah Lawrence accounts. Text messages are also sent out in emergency situations via the RAVE emergency notification system. In addition, at the beginning of each academic year, the AVP of Campus Safety and his designees give a safety orientation to all incoming first-year and transfer students and provide Campus Security Authority Training to RA's, Gryphon Guides, and primary on call staff.

The Clery Act

The Clery Act requires colleges and universities to publish a yearly security and fire safety report. This report includes statistics for the previous three calendar years concerning reported crimes that have occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by Sarah Lawrence College; and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from, the campus. The report includes institutional policies regarding campus security, such as policies about sexual assault, emergency procedures, missing students, hate crimes, and other matters. Fire statistics and a description of the fire safety system for each on-campus student housing facility can also be found in the report. The report can be accessed on our College website at sarahlawrence.edu/security. The College's crime and fire statistics can also be found at the U.S. Department of Education's website at <https://ope.ed.gov/campussafety>.

CAMPUS SAFETY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

In accordance with New York State Educational law, the College appoints an Advisory Committee on Campus Safety, which is housed in the committee of Student Life. The committee reviews Campus Safety Policies and Procedures and makes recommendations for their improvement. The committee shall specifically review current policies and procedures for the following:

- Educating the campus community, including Campus Safety personnel and those who advise or supervise students, about sexual assault (in conjunction with the College's Sexual Violence and Education Committee)
- Educating the campus community about personal safety and crime prevention
- Referring Complaints to appropriate authorities
- Responding to inquiries from concerned persons

The committee shall report, in writing, to the president and or their designee its findings and recommendations at least once each academic year. The report will be available upon request.

STUDENT, DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION, AND BELONGING

The mission of the Office of Student Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) is to support student success and development at Sarah Lawrence College. The Office of Student DEIB focuses on the whole student and how student intersectional identities like race, class, gender identity, religion, spirituality, ability, and sexuality impact daily interactions and experiences. The Office of Student DEIB collaborates with student organizations, campus-wide committees, and other administrative offices to provide programs and learning opportunities that explore issues related to social identity and equity, facilitate dialogue across differences, and promote inclusion and belonging.

The Student DEIB staff also provides advising and supervision for identity-based student organizations and spaces including Common Ground and the LGBTQIA Space; provides mediation support and serves as a resource for students dealing with prejudice and exclusion on campus; and manages the Chosen Name form and the Meal Swipe Sharing Program. The Office also helps manage the Bias Incident process.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SERVICES

International Student Services (ISS) is dedicated to supporting our diverse community of international undergraduate and graduate students, including non-U.S. citizens, dual citizens, and U.S. citizens who have resided abroad. Our team is here to ensure that your transition to life on campus is smooth and enriching.

ISS offers a comprehensive range of services tailored to the unique needs of international students. The Designated School Officials (DSO) are ready to assist international students with obtaining I-20 forms, navigating F-1 student visa regulations, securing on-campus employment opportunities, as well as guiding students through the processes of obtaining a U.S. Social Security card and Curricular and Optional Practical Training.

Misplaced I-20 forms can be replaced for a $50 fee. Be proactive and schedule an appointment with your DSO, who will be your primary point of contact for support and guidance throughout your academic journey.

You are encouraged to regularly explore the International Student Support and Belonging page on MySLC, a valuable resource designed to foster a sense of community and belonging: https://my.slc.edu/ics/Campus_Life/Departments/International_Students/. The webpage has important information, updates, and resources to support your academic and personal growth during your time with us.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

The Office of Student Involvement and Leadership works to cultivate diverse and engaging involvement experiences for SLC students. Through campus-wide events, leadership workshops, program development, and student organization advising, the office provides students with opportunities to build leadership skills and experience interpersonal connections meant to promote individual growth and community engagement.

The office provides advising and supervision for the following function and program areas: Barbara Walters Campus Center, Sarah Lawrence Activities Council (SLAC), undergraduate student organizations and publications, Undergraduate Student Senate, Student Activities Fund, two of our undergraduate student-managed spaces (Teahaus, and WSLC Radio), leadership education, and student programming.

Student Organizations

To ensure that all interests are represented, students are welcome to propose new organizations at the beginning of each semester. Student organizations seeking recognition or rerecognition must complete a registration form with the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership. Graduate student organizations seeking recognition or rerecognition should first consult with the assistant/associate dean of graduate students. To qualify for recognition, an organization that includes undergraduate students must have two leaders, a total of five members, a mission statement, a set of bylaws, and participate in the annual Student Organization Training. Undergraduate student publications must have a minimum of two total members. Graduate student only organizations should consult with the assistant dean of graduate students. Once submitted, the registration form is reviewed by the Student Involvement staff, who addresses any concerns regarding College policy and, if these concerns are satisfied, preliminarily approve the organization. Organizations including undergraduate students are then reviewed and receive final approval by the Undergraduate Student Senate. Organization approval may be suspended or revoked at any time if it is deemed in the best interest of the College.

Student organizations are expected to follow all College policies, both during on-campus and off-campus activities. In addition to the policies in the Student Handbook, the Student Organization Manual (https://my.slc.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/Departments/StudentAffairs/Student_Involvement_and_Leadership/Student_Leader_Resources.jnz) outlines policies regarding the conduct of student organizations. Student organizations suspected of violating College policy will be required to participate in a hearing convened by a member of the Student Life staff. Outcomes of a hearing may include, but are not limited to, monetary fines, restriction of activities, or suspension of organization recognition.

FACILITIES AND OPERATIONS

Duplicating Center for Copying

The Duplicating Center is located in Bates (across from the Science Center), and the hours of operation are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. For convenience, there are two self-service copiers (black & white and color). In addition to those at the Duplicating Center, there are copy machines across campus: library main level, lower level, and upstairs level; computer lab in the Heimbold Visual Arts Center; Barbara Walters Campus Center Student Organization space; lower level of 45 Wrexham; second floor of Slonim House; study space in Hill House; William Schuman Music Library in Marshall Field; and 24-hour study space in MacCracken. Additional color copiers are located on the main level computer lab in the Heimbold Visual Arts Center and the second level computer lab in the library.

Post Office

The Post Office is located in Bates (next to the Duplicating Center), and the hours of operation are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday–Friday. To reduce unclaimed/lost packages, include your mailbox number (this can be found on MySLC) when addressing items to campus.

IDENTIFICATION CARD (1CARD)

All students, faculty, and staff are issued a College identification card called the Sarah Lawrence College 1Card. The 1Card may also be referred to as Sarah Lawrence 1Card, ID card, SLC ID card, or SLC 1Card. A cardholder is any individual who is issued an official Sarah Lawrence ID, and an acceptor is any department or entity accepting the 1Card for the purposes of identification.

Card Ownership

The 1Card is the property of Sarah Lawrence College. It must be surrendered upon request of an authorized party. Sarah Lawrence College produces the card and maintains the database of cardholders. The College administers a set of card policies for the production and use of the card. Any and all cardholders and card acceptors must adhere to these policies for any use of the card.

Card Eligibility and Insurance

All official members of the Sarah Lawrence community should obtain a Sarah Lawrence College ID card. Students/faculty/staff are required to have a Sarah Lawrence College ID card. The status and permissions granted to each cardholder are determined by their official College status within the Card Management System. A card will only be issued if the individual requesting the card is on file in the Card Management System. No person shall possess more than one Sarah Lawrence ID card. This card is void upon termination or interruption of enrollment and/or employment. All individuals must show official photo proof of identity issued by a government office in order to obtain a Sarah Lawrence ID card. Best forms of ID include New York State (or other state) driver's license, state-issued nondriver's ID, or passport.

Identification

The Sarah Lawrence College ID card is required for identification at Sarah Lawrence College, must be carried at all times, and is nontransferable. It must be presented upon request of any law enforcement officer, Campus Safety personnel, or authorized College personnel.

Alterations and Damage

The card may not be altered in any way. No individual or entity may alter the card for any reason. Students are not permitted to punch holes or add stickers to their ID card. The card may not be reencoded. The cardholder and acceptor may be held responsible for any damage caused to equipment by an altered card. Any card found meeting any of these criteria will warrant confiscation and possible conduct action by the College. Replacements for altered cards will be reissued at the cardholder's expense. This fee will not be waived. It is the cardholder's responsibility to prevent damage (see "Caring for Your ID Card" below).

Defects and Wear

Cards deemed by a card office employee to be defective will be replaced free of charge. Cards deemed to be unusable due to normal wear will be replaced free of charge. Only designated card office employees may make the determination of a card's condition.

Lost or Stolen Cards

Lost or stolen Sarah Lawrence College ID cards must be reported lost or stolen immediately at the 1Card website, <https://my.slc.edu/1card>, or to Campus Operations located in Andrews. Cardholders may be held responsible by any of the agencies using the card until it is properly deactivated. Once a new ID is produced, any previous ID cannot be reactivated. All previous ID cards should be destroyed immediately, if found.

Confiscation

The Sarah Lawrence College ID card issued to a cardholder is theirs exclusively. Due to the nature of the card, it is not transferable for any reason. If a person tries to use a card not their own, the card must be confiscated and cut on sight. Authorities may also be summoned. Replacement of a confiscated card carries a fee that cannot be waived.

Misuse of Cards

Any misuse or illegal acts involving a Sarah Lawrence College ID card will be investigated. The College will prosecute any violators of card policy or law pertaining to the card and the services attached to it.

Identification Replacement

You can obtain an ID Replacement at Campus Operations, Andrews House, at the Purple Door. The cost to produce a replacement ID is $40. Once a new ID card is produced, all other cards are deactivated and, if found, should be destroyed immediately. The replacement fee can only be waived if it is deemed by the card office to meet the criteria mentioned under Defects and Wear, or if the ID was stolen and a police report is filed. (A copy of the police report must be submitted as proof.)

Caring for Your ID Card

To ensure durability of the card, please refrain from:

- Using the card in any fashion that may damage it.
- Punching holes in the card, which may result in denied access to buildings and some services (don't allow anyone else, including campus offices, to do so either).
- Placing the card on stereo equipment or computers, or near any magnetic fields.
- Placing the card in a pocket with coins, as this will damage the magnetic strip.

Photos

Sarah Lawrence reserves the right to require that a new ID photo be taken when a new ID card is produced if the card office staff feels that the current photo on file no longer resembles the cardholder or if it does not meet the photo requirements. Photos cannot include sunglasses, hats, head covering (nonreligious), headbands, bandannas, scarves, or any other wear that detracts from the face. Hands or other objects cannot be visible in the photo, and only the shoulders and head of the subject should be visible. The subject's expression should be natural, and eyes should be open and looking at the camera.

1Card-Cash Accounts

1Card-Cash is carried over from year to year as long as the account holder is associated with Sarah Lawrence College. 1Card-Cash balances will be credited to the student's account upon graduation or withdrawal from the College; resulting credit balances $20 and under will be forfeited; those over $20 will be refunded to the student.

1Card-Cash Deposits

In addition to the student's ability to deposit online possibly being revoked, please note that a $25 processing fee will be charged to the student account for each charge back/retrieval/dispute request initiated with the credit card company for deposit transactions on the 1Card-Cash account. Questions about any deposit or purchase on the 1Card-Cash account should be addressed first to Student Accounts.

Meal-Money

Subscribers to a meal plan that contains Meal-Money will be allotted the value at the start of each semester. Meal-Money is nonrefundable and does not transfer from semester to semester.

Refunds

Sarah Lawrence College will only grant refunds due to machine malfunction/error. Some examples of machine malfunction include: laundry machine would not start, poor print quality, copier/printer jam, etc. A Refund Request form must be filled out and submitted in person to the department designated on the form within three business days of the transaction. Refund Request forms are available in the Campus Operations Office, Help Desk, and Duplicating Services. Refund requests will be reviewed within three business days of submission date. An email will be sent with the status of the refund. For a refund to be reviewed, all information pertaining to the transaction must be filled out on the form; incomplete, illegible, or incorrect forms will be rejected. The amount approved will only be refunded to the account that was used. Any mischarges or refunds dealing with a cashier should be handled directly with the cashier, unless the student feels mistreated. Then the incident should be reported to Campus Operations.

Off-Campus Merchants

The College has partnered with local merchants to allow students, faculty, and staff to pay for items using their 1Card-Cash account on their ID card. A full list of merchants is available on the Campus Operations https://my.slc.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/Departments/Campus_Operations/.

Lost and Found

Lost and Found is located at Swinford Annex. All items should be returned to Campus Safety's 24/7 Desk at Swinford Annex.

STUDENT MANAGED SPACES

There are a variety of student-run spaces on the campus. Each space is supervised by a staff member. Events in student spaces are subject to all College policies.

Common Ground (The HUB)

Common Ground's mission is to serve students of color and student-of-color identity groups, as well as to engage the Sarah Lawrence community in discussions about the perceptions, realities, and consequences of racial and ethnic identity in our society and in the world at large. The space serves as a meeting room, event space, lounge area, and resource center for students of color and members of student-of-color identity groups. While Common Ground primarily works with student-of-color identity groups, it also hosts events with other student organizations, faculty, and administrative offices committed to campus dialogue surrounding issues of multiculturalism and racial and ethnic diversity. Common Ground programming includes speakers, performances, discussions, movie nights, conferences, workshops, and other activities. For more information, please contact commonground@gm.slc.edu.

Food Sharing Space

The Food Sharing Space is an on-campus food pantry containing perishable and nonperishable food items as well as some toiletries, which is open to all SLC students. The space is managed by two student workers. Located in Bates 05 (across from the Science Center), the Food Sharing Space is open 6–10 hours per week. For more information, contact DEI@sarahlawrence.edu.

LGBTQIA Space (The HUB)

The LGBTQIA Space seeks to create a physical space for LGBTQIA students and LGBTQIA student identity groups to engage in dialogues regarding the realities and perceptions of their identities. Its purpose is to uplift LGBTQIA student voices and to foster greater understanding of LGBTQIA identities in the Sarah Lawrence community and abroad. The space hosts group meetings, speakers, workshops, study sessions, and other campus events. It also functions as a meeting room, lounge area, and resource center for LGBTQIA students and their allies. For more information, please contact lgbtqiaspace@gm.slc.edu.

Spiritual Space (The HUB)

The mission of the Spiritual Space is to foster exploration of spirituality and inner calm, to forge connections of spirituality within the Sarah Lawrence community, and to grow as a center of faith and peace. It can also be reserved as a meeting place for religious groups or spiritually based events. It also houses a religious/spiritual library and items to be used in religious practices. For more information, please contact spiritualspace@gm.slc.edu.

Teahaus (North Lawn)

The Teahaus is a small stone building in the center of the North Lawn that provides a quiet space for reading, reflection, and conversation. This student-run space offers light refreshments and a wide variety of international teas. The Teahaus is open during the day and sometimes hosts poetry readings, study groups, and open mic nights. Student organizations may also hold meetings or small events in the Teahaus. All proceeds benefit the Students for Students Scholarship Fund (SSSF). For more information, please contact teahaus@gm.slc.edu.

WSLC Student Radio Station (The HUB)

SLC's student-run radio station features a number of student DJs, each with a unique style. WSLC presents a variety of student-selected programs and music, and also hosts several music-focused community events throughout the year. You can listen to the station's online broadcast at live365.com. To get involved with WSLC or for more information about the station, please contact wslc@gm.slc.edu.

OTHER STUDENT SPACES

Student Organization Space (Barbara Walters Campus Center)

The Student Organization Space is a resource room and collaborative workspace for registered student organizations. Members can meet to plan events or work on organization projects. The space provides computers and supplies to support student organizations' activities and initiatives. Each organization may request storage for files and equipment (available on a first-come, first-served basis). For more information, please contact studentinvolvement@sarahlawrence.edu.

Prehealth Community Space (Bates)

The Prehealth Community Space offers an inviting, comfortable, and engaging space for students in our pre-health program (as well as any friends) to gather, grab a cup of coffee or snack, hold study groups, participate in the prehealth alliance meetings, and more! The prehealth community space first opened in fall 2021 and has been outfitted with a couch, microwave, coffee machine, large and small tables, whiteboards, and bean bag chairs. It is located on the third floor of Bates (best accessed by taking the elevator to the third floor) and is open during business hours, evenings, and weekends. The space is managed by our prehealth student program assistant and prehealth alliance board. For more information, please contact prehealthprogram@sarahlawrence.edu.

MacCracken Lounge

The MacCracken Lounge is located on the lowest level of MacCracken. Access to the space is from the north end exterior entrance or under the north bridge. Students may use the space from 7 a.m.–2 a.m. daily using their SLC ID cards.

Slonim Library

The Slonim Library is located on the first floor of Slonim available for use by graduate students from 9 a.m.–10 p.m. daily. The Slonim Library accommodates both walk-in use (if not reserved) and reservations made by individual graduate students or graduate student groups through Graduate and Professional Studies. Students who wish to use this space after hours should contact Graduate and Professional Studies.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND ATHLETICS

The Sarah Lawrence College Department of Athletics and Physical Education provides recreational and competitive athletics opportunities that contribute to the physical, social, and emotional well-being of our students. We are dedicated to assisting student-athletes in achieving balance and intellectual success in an inclusive environment that fosters leadership, commitment, and sportsmanship.

Campbell Sports Center

This 48,000-square-foot facility offers a variety of recreational opportunities for students. The Campbell Sports Center includes a gymnasium with a basketball/volleyball court, an elevated jogging track, swimming pool, three squash courts, a student lounge, a rowing tank, and a studio that provides space for activities ranging from aerobics to fencing. The Sports Center also houses the Caspar Whitney Fitness Center, which features a variety of cardiovascular equipment, including treadmills, ellipticals, bikes, rowing machines, Truweight-training circuit, and a free-weight area. Fitness assistants are on hand to assist in the safe and effective use of all equipment.

Physical Education

Exercise increases physical energy, mental alertness, and self-confidence, and is believed to help foster creativity. With these rewards in mind, the physical education (PE) program is designed to help students pursue meaningful activities. The program emphasizes participation and enjoyment in a noncompetitive atmosphere.

Students are required to take four credits of physical education, half of which must be completed in the first year. Registration for classes takes place at the beginning and midpoint of each semester at the Campbell Sports Center. Graduate students have no PE requirement, but may register for courses when space is available.

The College offers an average of 25 courses per semester. Courses vary seasonally and include yoga, dance, swimming, basketball, bowling, nutrition, aerobics, fencing, and martial arts. Suggestions for new activities are always welcome.

Athletics

The athletics program provides students the opportunity to participate in competitive intercollegiate sports. At Sarah Lawrence, competition is viewed as a challenge for excellence and an incentive for commitment. Reflecting the College's educational philosophy, success is measured by the growth and development of the individual and the team.

Sarah Lawrence College sponsors intercollegiate teams in basketball, crew, cross country, equestrian, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, and volleyball. These teams have active schedules competing against area colleges. The College is a member of NCAA Division III, the Skyline Conference, the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, and US Rowing.

STUDENT FOCUSED CAMPUS OFFICES

Anita L. Stafford Office of Community Partnerships and Engagement

914.395.2573, my.slc.edu/communitypartnerships or partnerships@sarahlawrence.edu 220 Bates, 2nd floor

Sarah Lawrence College has a rich history of education for social responsibility and a commitment to linking classroom learning and community-based work. Through on-site work, students can develop deep relationships with their community beyond the campus, expand their academic inquiry, learn more about their beliefs, develop skills in community organizing, assist in the mission of a local agency, and explore their ideas about what it means to be an engaged and contributing citizen. The staff of the Anita L. Stafford Office of Community Partnerships and Engagement supports and connects students and faculty interested in working for social change with agencies and organizations in Yonkers, Westchester County, and New York City.

Community-Based Learning

The Office of Community Partnerships helps students find community-based sites to complement their academic studies, whether through a practice-based course or for conference work. The College and community organizations collaborate to help students learn about their placements and the social issues pertaining to them, before and throughout their work experience. Opportunities include, but are not limited to, tutoring and mentoring elementary school-aged children, teaching English as a second language, leading writing workshops with prison inmates, organizing for unions throughout New York City, promoting environmental causes, community organizing, and working with the elderly through assisted living sites. Students can also come to the office to discuss other options they might like to pursue. Staff also coordinate College vehicles and stipends for transportation for students to and from community-based sites.

Cocurricular Projects

There are several ways students can engage in cocurricular projects. Our office sponsors and supports student-led initiatives, programs that are developed and sustained by students. Some examples of these include Right to Write, Health and Science Afterschool Program (HASAP), and Enviro-Earth. For students wishing to volunteer on their own time, Community Partnerships maintains a database of community-based organizations. The office organizes an annual day of service for Martin Luther King Jr. Day for students to work in local agencies.

CAREER SERVICES

914.395.2566—Bates, second floor south

Ready to explore, define, or just begin to think about life after Sarah Lawrence? Whether it's finding that perfect internship, getting practical information for landing the job, or just looking to explore your options, the Office of Career Services is the place to start. Meet with your career advisers to learn how they can support you on how to get started. It's never too early to start exploring!

Sarah Lawrence students can access a variety of programs and services through the Office of Career Services, ranging from individual career advising to networking events and internship fairs. Believing in Sarah Lawrence's core philosophy, centered upon the growth of the individual, our office takes a developmental and student-centered approach to career counseling.

Career Advising

One-on-One Career Advising

Similar to the donning system, our career advisers meet with students one on one, developing a rapport that will last during their time at Sarah Lawrence and beyond. We approach career development by class year and by each student's individual needs.

Our appointments with students typically cover one or more of the following topics: career exploration, resumes and cover letters, internship and job search strategies, personal branding, mock interviews, and networking advice. To make an appointment, visit Handshake, our online platform, at <https://sarahlawrence.joinhandshake.com/login> or email careerservices@sarahlawrence.edu.

Career Communities

Career Communities, or "industry clusters," connect students with peers, faculty, and alumni professionals who share an interest or expertise in a particular industry. Each Career Community is led by a career adviser and provides an opportunity to connect to specific, tailored industry resources and programs. By joining one or more communities, students have access to:

- Individual/group consultations facilitated by career advisers
- Industry-tailored resources, information, and advice
- Targeted internship, entry-level, and professional development opportunities
- Networking events and other Career Services programming
- Advice from faculty and alumni professionals

Internship Program

Internships provide Sarah Lawrence students a way to finesse their professional interests while they complete an enriching, interdisciplinary education. The Office of Career Services works closely with individual students to search for and apply to internships around the country.

In addition to meeting with a career adviser to discuss internship options, students can access opportunities on our online platform, Handshake.

Career Exploration and Networking Programs

We offer a comprehensive array of programming designed to engage and excite students about entering the world as a new professional. Whether it is an employer info session, an alumni networking event, or a panel of peers, students are able to make lasting connections and see how they can apply their interdisciplinary course work to the global workforce.

Alumni Connections

Our ongoing partnership with the Office of Alumni Relations has allowed us to continue to offer innovative and creative programming, connecting current students with alumni. We are grateful for the extraordinary commitment of our alumni, many of whom participate in programs and networking events, provide mentorship and career advice, and/or post internships and entry-level job opportunities for our students.

Handshake

Handshake continues to be our main online platform where students can make appointments with career advisers, RSVP to events, and search for internships and entry-level jobs. Over 100,000 employers are utilizing Handshake to connect with students, offering thousands of internships and entry-level opportunities in all industries, locally and nationally.

SLC Connect

Our secondary online platform, SLC Connect (<https://connect.slc.edu/>), is an extension of Sarah Lawrence's Career Communities program, which connects students with peers, faculty, and alumni professionals who share an interest or expertise in a particular industry. This platform enables students to join a career community, message alumni for career advice, and apply to internships and jobs posted by alumni.

Communications

Follow Career Services on Instagram, and remember to open and read Career Services emails, including our weekly newsletter to the SLC community, which regularly features select internship opportunities, upcoming programs, and resources.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Event Planning

914.395.2412, events@sarahlawrence.edu

Special Events supports the planning of on-campus events and offers on-site assistance to ensure all requested resources are delivered and properly set up. Special Events will guide students through each step of organizing a successful event. Please keep the following points in mind:

To reserve space through GryphonLink:

1. Navigate to your organization's event management page (GryphonLink > Left Navigation Menu > Gear Icon Next to Organization Name > Events).
 1. Select "Create Event."
 2. Complete the event information at the top of the form.
1. Please note that this information will be shared on the calendar, so be clear with your event title and description. It's often helpful to include the name of your organization in the event title, if the title you're planning is generic ("Info Session" vs. "Chess Club Info Session").
 1. Select "Add Reservation Request" under "Time and Place."
1. You should not select "Add Location Manually" unless you previously reserved a space in some other way (special space request, etc.).

5. Input the date, event times, setup time and teardown time.

1. Select "Browse Available Rooms."
1. You will be able to filter by building, room capacity and/or room features.
1. Select the room you would like to reserve. Additional information about the room will come up and you will be asked to select a layout.
1. Please keep the default room layout unless you absolutely need a special setup.

C. Select "Add Request to Event."

7. Select your desired event visibility:

1. Public: DO NOT MAKE EVENTS PUBLIC

1. Students & Staff: All events open to the campus community
2. Organization Members: Meetings and events for group members only
 1. Invited Users Only: If you want to invite a specific group of people or not have the event listed on the calendar at all

8. Complete the remainder of the event submission form.

9. Additional Event Information:

1. The final page of the event form asks additional questions about your space reservation. These answers will be shared with the Special Events Office to assist them in reserving your space.

10. Submit for approval.

1. Your event will then be reviewed in both GryphonLink and the space reservation system. Once approved, you will receive a confirmation from GryphonLink. If there are issues with your space reservation, the Special Events team will reach out to you directly.

If you have questions about reserving space or need suggestions for what space to select, please contact the SLC Events Office, events@sarahlawrence.edu. Please Note: Only student organization leaders and groups affiliated with a department are allowed to book space on campus. If you're a student looking for rehearsal space, you will need to work with your professor to reserve space.

Timing

Proper timing is essential for a successful event. Students are recommended to allow four to six weeks for planning and promotion. Please note that event or room reservations made less than four weeks in advance may not be accommodated.

Event Attendance

General Guideline

- Unless otherwise noted, events held at Sarah Lawrence College are intended exclusively for members of the SLC community, including current students, faculty, and staff. All attendees are required to carry their SLC ID, which may be requested by event staff or Campus Safety.

- Student Organization events are limited to the SLC community and are not open to the general public. Students who wish to host a public event must obtain prior written approval by contacting both the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership at studentinvolvement@sarahlawrence.edu and the Events Office at events@sarahlawrence.edu.

Invited Guest Policy

- Guests may attend Sarah Lawrence College events with prior approval from the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership. Depending on the event, a guest list may be required in advance.
- A guest is defined as any individual who is not a current student or employee of the College.
- All guests must be accompanied by their SLC host and must carry a valid photo ID.
- SLC hosts are fully responsible for their guests, who are expected to follow all College policies. Guests may be asked to leave if they fail to comply.

Resource Requests

If your event requires facilities equipment (such as tables, chairs, or trash cans) or audiovisual equipment (such as microphones, laptops, or projectors), please submit your request at least two weeks in advance using the Resource Request form available on GryphonLink.

Campus Safety (Security)

Special Events coordinates room openings, extra security, and additional parking requests. Please allow at least two weeks' notice for Campus Safety arrangements.

Food Service

Catering for events on campus is exclusively provided by AVI Fresh. All on-campus events must use AVI Fresh, as outside caterers are not permitted. In rare cases where AVI Fresh cannot fulfill a specific food request, a catering waiver may be granted at their discretion. Please note that a pizza exemption applies only to student events. Catering orders require a minimum of seven days' notice; orders submitted with less than seven days' notice may not be accommodated.

Catering orders are placed through CaterTrax, AVI Fresh's online ordering system. To place an order, you must create an account and use the CaterTrax website at <https://sarahlawrencecatering.catertrax.com> to view menus, pricing, and submit your order. Be sure to reserve your event space and receive confirmation before placing a catering order. Additionally, a budget number is required to complete the order.

For custom catering requests, please contact events@sarahlawrence.edu with at least three to four weeks' notice.

FINANCIAL AID

International Students

Only students who are citizens or permanent residents of the United States are eligible for federal aid. International students are advised to visit their Financial Aid Application Portal to review their checklist for required documents. International students are also encouraged to investigate other financing opportunities offered by their governments or by private institutions.

Graduate Procedures

The Office of Financial Aid awards scholarships to graduate students on the basis of need and merit at the time of admission. We process federal student loans for students who request them.

Students apply for need-based scholarships by signifying on the admission application that they are applying for financial aid. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid \(FAFSA\) is required for those scholarships with a need component and for federal student loans. International students need only send documentation of their income for the year requested. Admitted students with a completed application are automatically considered for all merit aid resources administered by Sarah Lawrence College. Scholarship decisions hold for the duration of the student's enrollment (although some awards are for one year only) as long as the student is making, as well as maintaining, satisfactory academic progress toward a degree. Continuing students must reapply for need-based aid and student loans each year.

Scholarships and student loans comprise the two elements of a Sarah Lawrence financial aid package. Every financial aid package includes a student loan award for eligible students. Students are not required to accept a student loan in order to receive a Sarah Lawrence College scholarship.

Please see our Graduate Guide to Understanding Financial Aid or visit the Graduate Financial Aid section of MySLC.

FOOD SERVICES

Dining Facilities

Bates Dining at the Bates Center for Student Life is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 9 a.m. to 2 a.m.

Campus Center Dining Pavilion is open Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. Café is open 7:30 a.m. to 11 p.m., weekly.

Dining venues accept credit/debit cards (Visa, Mastercard, Discover, and American Express), cash, 1CardCash, Meal-Money, and meal plan combo swipes. Meal plans are loaded onto each student's Sarah Lawrence College 1Card. Use of the meal plan will be denied to those without their Sarah Lawrence College 1Card. If a Sarah Lawrence College 1Card is misplaced or lost, a 24-hour meal/ID card is available by speaking with the Food Services manager on duty. The College reserves the right to alter dining facilities and operating hours during the academic year.

HELP DESK, COMPUTER SUPPORT SERVICES, MYSLC

Help Desk staff members are available to work out any problems with SLC email (Gryphon Mail), campus Wi-Fi, computer labs, and more. The Help Desk provides consultation and training to aid students in getting the most out of campus digital resources.

The Help Desk can assist students in learning about their computers, fixing software problems, or buying a new computer with their academic discount. Check out the website at sarahlawrence.edu/hd for all the details and answers to computer questions at Sarah Lawrence.

For support, call the Help Desk at 914.395.2460 or email hd@sarahlawrence.edu.

MySLC

my.slc.edu

MySLC is the primary source of information and online services for the Sarah Lawrence College community. Through MySLC, students can:

- Get course catalogues/schedules, attend online interviews for courses, and register for classes.
- Access course materials and communicate with faculty and classmates.
- View evaluations, assessments, and grades.
- Learn what departments can offer and get forms, policies, and more.
- Find on-campus and work study jobs.
- View student accounts and make payments online.
- Read and post campus classifieds, including for-sale and lost-and-found items.
- View events, calendars, and announcements.
- And much more.

Tips for Using MySLC

- Click the three vertical dots icon in the upper left to expand the main navigation.
- MySLC's idle timeout is 45 minutes (with a warning at 40 minutes). Therefore, save work often and/or keep a backup of any text.
- Search MySLC using the magnifying glass near the upper right.
- Need more help? Click "?" or "MySLC Help" at the bottom left or go to my.slc.edu/help.
- Follow MySLC on Instagram, instagram.com/MySLCedu; Threads, threads.net/@MySLCedu; Facebook, fb.me/my.slc.edu; and X, x.com/MySLCedu, for the latest updates.

Accessing MySLC

Students can access MySLC at my.slc.edu by logging in with their Sarah Lawrence College ID number (leaving off any leading zeros) and password. SLC ID numbers can be found on the front of student ID cards.

Students who forget their password should enter their SLC ID number, click the “Forgot Password?” link, enter their SLC email (Gryphon Mail) address, and click “Send” to have a password reset link sent to their SLC email (Gryphon Mail). Those continuing to experience problems logging in to MySLC should contact Web Systems Support at sysweb@sarahlawrence.edu using their Gryphon email. The email should include the student’s full name and SLC ID number but NOT any password information.

Changing Passwords

Students should change their MySLC passwords after receiving their login information:

1. Log in to MySLC.
 1. Click your photo in the upper right.
2. Click “My Profile & Settings.”
 1. Click “Password & Privacy.”
 2. Click the down arrow next to “Change password.”
 1. Complete the form, noting that the new password must be between eight and 100 characters, and click “Save.”

Please note: MySLC accounts are separate from Sarah Lawrence email (Gryphon Mail) accounts; changing a password in one system will not change the password in the other.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

914.395.2572 — Westlands, first floor in Financial Aid Office

The Office of Student Employment is the central point for information about on- and off-campus job opportunities for all students. Experience, skill level, job responsibilities, and application requirements vary by position. All on-campus positions are part time.

On-campus positions can be found on the Student Employment page of MySLC. Departments with open positions are highlighted in green. Off-campus opportunities are posted in the Classifieds section of MySLC. Local job postings might include tutoring, clerical positions, and childcare, among others. See the Student Employment Handbook for more information.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

Sarah Lawrence has partnered with College Pads to provide an off-campus housing marketplace for SLC students and community members. For the most up-to-date listings for Sarah Lawrence students, please visit: https://my.slc.edu/ICS/Student/Off-Campus_Housing (MySLC login required).

College Pads also provides students with online educational tools to help them become more educated renters, compare off-campus housing options, find potential roommates, and sublet their existing units, when applicable.

COMMUNITY STANDARDS

Responsibility for the care of the Sarah Lawrence community is shared by all of its constituents. As critical members of the community, students are expected to abide by the policies found in this handbook and the Student Housing License Agreement, where applicable. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action and sanctions as outlined below. Additional sanctions, such as those outlined in the Student Conduct Process \(p. 190\) may be issued based on the severity of the violation.

Conduct Code (p. 90)

The following policies set expectations for student conduct and behavior in order to support a positive living and learning environment.

General College Policies (p. 98)

This section contains general college policies such as emergency plans, fire safety protocols, parking rules, installations in public spaces and other general campus policies.

Policy on Sexual Violence

Sarah Lawrence College is an intellectual community founded on mutual respect and is committed to providing a living, learning, and working environment that is free from sexual violence in any form.

CONDUCT CODE

The following policies set expectations for student conduct and behavior in order to support a positive living and learning environment.

Violations and alleged violations will be investigated according to the College's Student Conduct Process \(p. 190\). Violators may also be subject to arrest, depending on federal, state, and local laws.

Alcohol and Other Drugs

Sarah Lawrence College observes all federal, state, and local laws and regulations governing the sale, purchase, and/or use of alcohol and other drugs. See Appendix 4 \(p. 198\). The College expects that these laws will be adhered to at all events associated with the College. The College cannot and will not protect any member of the Sarah Lawrence community who has broken federal, state, and/or local law.

Residents must adhere to all New York State laws and Sarah Lawrence College regulations concerning alcohol use. These regulations stipulate that individuals under the age of 21 are not permitted to possess or consume any alcoholic beverages.

Students (both residential and nonresidential) and guests who are 21 years of age or older are permitted to possess and consume alcoholic beverages within Sarah Lawrence residence halls, provided they adhere to the following guidelines:

- Students who are of legal drinking age and bring alcohol into a residence hall or have alcohol in their possession within a residence hall are accountable for ensuring its lawful use. This responsibility includes taking appropriate measures to prevent underage students and guests from possessing alcohol.

- Activities that encourage or involve the rapid, hazardous, or coerced consumption of alcohol (such as drinking games) are strictly prohibited.
- Selling or distributing alcohol in the residence halls is not allowed. This ban includes, but is not limited to: cash bars; events where tickets are sold or fees are charged (such as entertainment fees or membership dues); fees for access to an open bar; and parties where alcohol is served and contributions or donations to cover party expenses are requested.

Marijuana, in any form, is not allowed on campus. Any student found possessing, using, or being in the presence of marijuana will face disciplinary sanctions. Additionally, items like water pipes, bongs, hookahs, and other drug-related paraphernalia are also banned. Under the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act, a federal law, marijuana remains classified as an illegal substance, and schools must prohibit it on campus. Therefore, Sarah Lawrence, in accordance with federal law, does not allow the possession, use, or distribution of marijuana in any form or for any purpose on campus.

The possession or use of narcotics, other controlled substances, or the misuse of prescribed medications and other legal substances, is strictly prohibited. Students are required to comply with federal and New York State laws concerning the use, possession, sale, and distribution of controlled substances.

Prohibited Behaviors — Alcohol

Some of these behaviors may also be violations of local, state, and federal laws and may be subject to off-campus legal action. See Appendix 4 \(p. 198\).

Category A

- Consumption and/or possession of alcohol by an individual under the age of 21
- Possession of an open container of alcohol in public, regardless of age

Category B

- Participating in or sponsoring activities that encourage excessive consumption (e.g., drinking games or contests)
- Possession of mass-consumption containers (e.g., kegs, beer balls, beer bongs). Providing alcohol to an individual under the age of 21
- Providing alcohol to someone who is visibly intoxicated.

Category C

- Consumption of alcohol that causes a disruption to the community or necessitates assistance from others but does not require medical intervention (e.g., ER evaluation).

Category D

- Consumption of alcohol that necessitates medical intervention (e.g., ER evaluation).

Prohibited Behaviors — Other Drugs

Some of these behaviors may also be violations of local, state, and federal laws and may be subject to off-campus legal action. See Appendix 4 \(p. 198\).

Category A

- Possession or use of illegal drugs
- Possession or use of legal drugs not lawfully prescribed for the individual
- Intentional misuse of legally prescribed drugs
- Possession or use of drug paraphernalia

Category B

- Use of drugs that leads to medical intervention

Category C

- Intent to distribute or distribution (including purchase, sale, illegal transfer, or gifting) of legal or illegal drugs, including prescription medication

Good Samaritan Policy

We expect that all community members will take active steps to protect the safety and well-being of other community members. To ensure that students receive prompt and appropriate medical attention for alcohol or other drug intoxication and to reduce impediments to seeking such assistance, the College has instituted this Good Samaritan Policy.

The Good Samaritan Policy applies when:

- Student requests medical assistance for themselves by contacting Campus Safety or other College officials.
- Student(s) request medical assistance for another student.
- A student remains cooperative with each step of the process, as outlined below.

The Good Samaritan Policy does not apply when:

- A student violates other College policies beyond the Alcohol and Other Drugs policy.
- Action by police or other law-enforcement personnel takes place.
- A student possesses drugs with the intent to sell.

If the Good Samaritan Policy has been applied for a prior incident, it is at the discretion of the dean of student life or a designee whether a subsequent incident also falls under the Good Samaritan Policy.

In lieu of formal disciplinary action, the student requiring medical attention will meet with a Student Life staff member to discuss the incident. The student requiring medical attention will be referred to Health & Wellness for a consultation and should complete any resulting treatment recommendations in a timely manner. Students who requested medical assistance for a peer may also receive outreach from Student Life offering support and resources.

Bias-Related Incidents and Crimes

Bias-Related Incidents

An event that targets and/or denigrates a member or members of the Sarah Lawrence community on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, sex, gender, national origin, ancestry, gender identity or expression, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, language, or citizenship may constitute a bias incident. Such incidents need not rise to a criminal level in order to violate Sarah Lawrence policies or other applicable antidiscrimination laws.

If you believe that you are the victim of, or witness to, a bias incident, you may report it using the Bias Incident Report form found on MySLC. Please visit the DEI website on MySLC for FAQs about bias-incident reporting. You may also contact the Student Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Office at studentdeib@sarahlawrence.edu for information and/or support.

Bias-Related Crimes

Any crime committed by a defendant against a victim is considered a hate or bias crime when that victim (either a person or an institution) is intentionally selected, in whole or substantial part, because of that victim's perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, age, disability, or sexual orientation or expression.

Federal and state laws specifically regulate crimes that are motivated by hate or bias, and the College is required to report them to the local police. Any bias-related crime against a member of our community is viewed as an attack on the entire community and will not be tolerated. Students, faculty, staff, and visitors are encouraged to immediately report all bias-related crimes by contacting Campus Safety at 914.395.2222. You may also contact the Student Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Office at studentdeib@sarahlawrence.edu for information and/or support.

To help ensure an environment free of such hateful acts, the College has enacted policies and procedures that specifically deal with bias-related crimes.

Possible penalties for bias-related crimes committed by faculty or staff include warnings, formal reprimands, suspension without pay, or termination of employment.

Note: If the bias crime involves an alleged sexual assault, the Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct Policy will be followed and will supersede the College's bias-related crime policy and procedures. See Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct Policy \(p. 100\).

New York State Law Involving Bias Crimes

Under the New York State Hate Crimes Act of 2000 (Section 485.05 of the New York State Penal Code), in addition to the criminal charges and the penalties a perpetrator must face for the “crime” element of a hate crime, the law allows for additional charges for the “hate” element as well. This significantly increases the crime with which the perpetrator is charged, as well as the penalties and time of imprisonment if convicted.

Compliance

Students must comply with the requests of College officials, including, but not limited to, requests for responses, meetings, identification, or information. Violations of this policy also include lying to a College official, failing to provide relevant information, and/or running away when approached by a College official.

Damage to Property and Vandalism

Students are expected not to cause damage to, or otherwise vandalize, College property or property owned or controlled by a community member. Violations include, but are not limited to, damaging, removing, tampering with, adhering something to, vandalizing (including etching, painting, drawing upon, or otherwise marking something without permission), or otherwise altering property owned, operated, or controlled by the College or one of its members. This includes, but is not limited to, fire safety and electronic security devices such as smoke detectors, carbon monoxide detectors, emergency phones, windows, elevators, flagpoles, signs, doors, gardens, lawns, and landscapes.

Dishonesty and Falsification of Information

Students are expected to be honest with, and produce truthful information to, the College and/or College officials. Students will be considered in violation of this policy if they:

- Lie or furnish false information to the College or to College officials, including resident advisers.
- Are aware of false information being furnished by others with the intent to deceive (and do not correct that false information in a timely manner).
- Withhold information pertinent to student misconduct.
- Alter, misuse, enter any false information, or forge signatures on any official documents or College resources, including, but not limited to, registration forms, audit forms, academic transcripts, drop/add forms, or electronic communication.

- Alter or have in their possession an altered identification card of any form.
- Counterfeit, forge, and/or fabricate official documents, paperwork, and/or electronic communications.
- Intentionally issue a bad check/payment or other financial instrument in order to remove a hold, register for classes, or receive an official transcript or diploma.
- Provide false information or fail to provide current information for the purpose of defrauding Sarah Lawrence College or other parties.

Disruptive Behavior

Students should refrain from behavior that disrupts, impairs, interferes with, or obstructs the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the College, including, but not limited to: classes, performances, meetings, and events; self-destructive conduct that may impact the larger community; and interference with the rights of others to enter, use, or leave any College facility, service, or activity.

False Identification

Students are expected to not possess false identification or falsely identify themselves. Possessing false identification is a Class D Felony (170.10 of the New York State Penal Code — Forgery in the Second Degree or 170.25 of the New York State Penal Code — Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument in the Second Degree).

Freedom of Expression

At Sarah Lawrence College, freedom of expression is a core value that fosters an environment of open dialogue and intellectual growth. This freedom must be exercised responsibly, however, ensuring that it does not harm others or infringe upon their rights. Specifically, free expression must not:

- Cause injury or violate the rights of any member of the College community.
- Damage institutional facilities.
- Disrupt classes or other College activities or business.

This policy encompasses all forms of communication, including, but not limited to, oral, written, and electronic media (such as social media). Violations of this policy will be addressed through the Student Conduct Process.

Graffiti

Graffiti of any kind is forbidden on College property. Violations include, but are not limited to, altering, writing on, adhering to, painting, or chalking on walls, furniture, sidewalks, emergency phones, elevators, light poles, existing signage, and landscapes. Graffiti may lead to additional charges for repairing damage to College property.

Hazing

The College defines hazing as any action taken or situation created that, regardless of location or consent of the participants, recklessly or intentionally endangers mental or physical health or involves forced use of alcohol and/or other drugs for the purpose of initiation into or affiliation with any organizations at the College. Hazing includes, but is not limited to, physical and psychological shocks, morally degrading or humiliating games and activities, coerced or forced illegal acts, personal servitude, and sexual harassment.

According to the New York State Penal Code, “a person is guilty of hazing in the first degree when, in the course of another person’s initiation into or affiliation with any organization, he intentionally or recklessly engages in conduct which creates a substantial risk of physical injury to such other person and thereby causes such injury.”

The College prohibits all forms of hazing, and any instances of hazing should be reported immediately to Campus Safety at 914.395.2222.

Physical Assault

Physical assault is defined as striking, shoving, kicking, or otherwise subjecting another person to physical contact that causes that person harm, is harassing, or alarms that person. Physical assault also includes hitting a person with anything thrown or propelled.

If it is determined that a student found responsible for violating this policy had no other option but to use physical violence in self-defense, this will be taken into consideration in the sanctioning process.

Individuals who believe that they have been physically assaulted should seek immediate assistance by contacting Campus Safety at 914.395.2222. If medical assistance is required, contact Health & Wellness at 914.395.2350 during business hours or Campus Safety at 914.395.2222 at any time.

Retaliation

Threats or other forms of intimidation and/or retaliation against a student or employee, or their family or friends, for bringing a Complaint of any alleged violation of College policy, assisting another person with bringing a Complaint, or participating in the investigation and/or student conduct process are prohibited.

All incidents that are believed to constitute retaliation committed by or against a student should be reported immediately using the Residential Life Incident Reporting form found on MySLC (https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?SarahLawrence&layout_id=100).

Theft and Unauthorized Use

Sarah Lawrence community members are expected to respect College property, the private property of others, and the property of the larger community in which we live. Violations of this policy include, but are not limited to, the theft, attempted theft, unauthorized use, or possession of property or services owned or controlled by the College or a community member of the College.

Weapons

The use, possession, and storage of any weapons of any kind (e.g., firearms, ammunition, air guns, knives, bows and arrows, replicas of such), including those defined in Sections 265.01(3) and 265.06 of the New York State Penal Code, are strictly prohibited on campus. Exceptions, for educational purposes only, must be arranged in advance via written approval by the assistant vice president of Campus Safety.

GENERAL COLLEGE POLICIES

This section contains general College policies, such as emergency plans, fire safety protocols, parking rules, installations in public spaces, and other general campus policies.

Bicycles

Students must register their bicycles with Campus Operations. To obtain your free bike permit, complete the form on the Campus Operations Bike Registration page on MySLC. After registering your bike, visit Campus Operations to receive the permit sticker to be displayed on the bike. Campus Operations is located in Andrews House (Purple Door).

Exterior bicycle racks are located throughout the campus. Indoor bicycle racks are located at Hill House, and residents must store bicycles on the racks provided. Bicycles may not be parked or stored in hallways, entrance ways, stairwells, or common areas. Bicycles may not be locked to handrails or banisters, as this constitutes an accessibility issue and fire hazard. If an unregistered bicycle is found attached to or blocking any egress, it will be immediately removed and confiscated by Campus Safety and the student will be notified to retrieve property.

Bicycles are permitted inside a building only in a student's single room or a faculty or staff member's office.

This policy does not apply to motorized devices; motorized devices are never permitted inside campus buildings. E-bikes, hoverboards, and any other motorized devices that are gas powered or lithium ion battery powered may not be stored in any campus building, including dorms, for any length of time for fire safety reasons.

Registered bicycles should be removed from campus at the end of the spring semester. Returning fall students who want to keep their bicycles on campus over the summer must register their bicycle with Campus Operations and lock it to the indoor bike racks at Hill House. Unregistered bicycles will be removed from campus at the conclusion of the spring semester.

Bike Repair Station

Located outside the main library, a bike repair station is fully equipped with a stand, air pump, and necessary tools to repair bicycles.

Sanctions

Each offense: $50 fine plus removal of the bicycle and a $25 per week storage fee.

Billing, Payment of Tuition, Fees, and Related Charges

Timely payments are required to maintain a student's account in good standing. Payments must be made in full by the due date. If payment cannot be made in full by the due date, students will be required to enroll in a payment plan with Nelnet by the statement due date. The College has partnered with Nelnet to administer the College's payment plan.

Students with past-due balances may not register for courses until satisfactory payment arrangements have been made.

Past-due balances greater than $100 will be assessed a late-payment fee equal to one percent of the past-due balance or $10, whichever is greater. Late-payment fees are required by the due date.

Chosen Name Policy

As a community that strives to be inclusive, Sarah Lawrence College recognizes that some students may wish to be known by a name that is different from their legal name. Students may select a Chosen Name by which they may be identified within the Sarah Lawrence community (e.g., in class rosters, email address, MySLC forums, and student IDs). Chosen Names may be first and/or middle names. Changing the surname would require a legal change of name. For further information and to access the SLC Chosen Name form, please go to https://my.slc.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/Departments/StudentAffairs/Diversity_Equity_and_Inclusion/Chosen_Name_Policy_FAQs.jnz.

Students who wish to register a legal change of name must do so with the registrar on the second floor of Westlands. A Name Change form is available on MySLC. Email: regoff@sarahlawrence.edu; phone: 914.395.2301.

Closed Captioning

All televisions in common spaces on campus must have the option for the user to turn on closed captioning. All academic and nonacademic screenings of video and film must have the option of turning on closed captioning or subtitles when available. It is strongly recommended that all advertising for public video and film screenings include a statement regarding the availability of closed captioning/subtitles and contact information for anyone who needs this accommodation.

Computer and Network Acceptable Use

Sarah Lawrence College provides computer resources to students, faculty, and staff for academic purposes and for their use on College business. The College has established standards and policies for the acceptable use of these resources and expects users to be familiar with and honor them.

In order to maintain a computing environment that best serves the needs and protects the welfare of both individuals and the academic community, the College regulates access to and use of College-owned computing resources. These resources include connections to the College network, access by means of College-sponsored communication links, and access to computing resources located off campus.

Access to computers and computing resources is a privilege granted by the College to its students, faculty, and employees unless such access is suspended or denied for cause. Access to some computer programs, features, information, and networks may require a written request. Access to information that is private or confidential, as determined by the owner or by the College, may be restricted.

Acceptable Behavior

Because computing systems have such great power, activities that might seem at first to be merely mischievous can harm the entire College community and beyond. Any unauthorized access or interference with system functionality is unacceptable. Guidelines such as those established in the Student Handbook, Facts for Faculty, and the Personnel Manual apply to the use of computing resources, as do community standards of consideration for others and the primacy of Sarah Lawrence's educational mission. Federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and judicial decisions also apply.

In general, any uses of Sarah Lawrence College's computer facilities that infringe on another individual's right to privacy, adversely affect the user community, or are not allowed under the terms of our software licenses are prohibited. Examples of prohibited uses include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Accessing or using a password-protected computer account assigned to another person
- Hiding your identity or using someone else's identity in electronic communications
- Sharing a password to a protected account with another person
- Any deliberate act which denies or interferes with the access and use rights of others
- Unauthorized access or attempts to access data, computer systems, and/or networks on or off the College's campus (hacking)
- Intentional damage to hardware, software, security devices, or codes
- Intentional creation or distribution of viruses, worms, or other forms of electronic mayhem
- Commercial activities, such as development of software for sale, work undertaken to support any company, or other contracted work
- Use of deliberately offensive language or other communication that has the effect of harassing or intimidating another person as guided by the existing harassment policy
- Violations of copyright/civil law including, but not limited to, the copying, storing, displaying, or distributing of copyrighted material using College systems or networks without the express permission of the copyright owner, except as otherwise allowed under the copyright law (under the Federal Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, repeat infringements of copyright by a user can result in termination of the user's access to College systems and networks)

While recreational use of computing facilities is not prohibited, all such use is of the lowest priority. If there is contention for access, games and other recreational uses are prohibited. The use of video games and other software that produces sounds, or is by other means disruptive to others, is prohibited in public facilities.

Student Email Policy

Email is considered an official method for communication at Sarah Lawrence College, because it delivers information in a convenient, timely, cost-effective, and environmentally aware manner. Our policy ensures that all students have access to this important form of communication and ensures that students can be accessed through a standardized channel by faculty and other staff of the College as needed.

College Use of Email

The College may send communications to students via email. Students are responsible for the consequences of not reading, in a timely fashion, College-related communications sent to their official Sarah Lawrence College email accounts.

Student Email Accounts

All students obtain, when they enroll, an official Sarah Lawrence College student email account. The email account that is created by the College is the official email address to which the College will send email communications. This official address will be recorded in the College's electronic directories and records for that student.

Expectations Regarding Student Use of Email

Students are expected to check their Sarah Lawrence College official email on a frequent and consistent basis to remain informed of College-related communications. The College recommends checking email at least daily.

Appropriate Use

All use of email must be consistent with other College policies, including the Sarah Lawrence College Acceptable Use Policy. All use of email must be consistent with local, state, and federal laws.

Communications sent to a student's official Sarah Lawrence College email address may include notification of College-related actions. In general, email is not appropriate for transmitting sensitive or confidential information.

Redirecting Email

Students may elect to redirect (auto-forward) messages sent to their Sarah Lawrence College official email address. Students who redirect email from their official address to another address (such as AOL, Gmail, Yahoo!, or any email server other than the official College servers) do so at their own risk. Having email lost as a result of redirection does not absolve a student from the responsibilities associated with communication sent to an official email address. The College is not responsible for the handling of email by outside vendors or unofficial servers.

Copyright Information

The EDUCOM Code

Respect for intellectual labor and creativity is vital to academic discourse, and this principle applies to works of all authors and publishers in all media. The EDUCOM Code encompasses respect for the right to acknowledgment, the right to privacy, and the right to determine the form, manner, and terms of publication and distribution.

Because electronic information is volatile and easily reproduced, respect for the work and personal expression of others is especially critical in computer environments. Violations of authorial integrity, including plagiarism, invasion of privacy, unauthorized access, trade secrets, and copyright violations, may be grounds for sanctions against members of the academic community.

Students should be aware that the unauthorized peer-to-peer sharing of copyrighted work files, including music, pictures, and movies, is illegal and may carry significant monetary and/or criminal sanctions. It is the responsibility of students who are downloading or uploading documents to make certain that they are not copyrighted works or that the student has the permission of the copyright holder.

Security and Privacy Rights

Individuals using College-owned computing equipment can expect the College to take reasonable steps to ensure the security and integrity of information kept in or on, or transmitted by, that equipment. At the same time, the College reserves the right to protect the integrity of its computing enterprise. The privacy rights of individuals using College-owned equipment, therefore, have some limits. In particular, the College claims the following rights:

- The right to monitor volume (but not content) of information communicated on campus networks
- The right to audit for the presence of commercial software packages installed on its computing equipment
- The right to examine, under specific instances where there is evidence that a violation of computing use regulations has occurred, the content of data, text, images, and/or executable computer files
- The right to implement procedures to protect the integrity of the systems and networks (e.g., virus scans)

The College cannot guarantee the security of individual offices nor can it guarantee any piece of equipment against failure. It is, therefore, the responsibility of the user to ensure that data and other valued information assets are adequately backed up and secured.

Computer networks are not secure. Although it is counter to policy for an unintended recipient to deliberately read another person's electronic communications, the College cannot guarantee that an electronic message will not be read or examined by an unintended recipient, either on or off campus. It is therefore recommended that computer networks not be used to transmit information that is confidential, sensitive, or for which privacy rights might be a concern.

Official servers (email, web, name service, etc.) follow guidelines designed for that specific type of service and are approved by the College. Private servers are not prohibited, but must abide by standard College policies and are not supported. Excessive use of resources (e.g., high network use or server utilization and/or denial of services to others) will be subject to review, and limits may be imposed. Misuse could result in denial of network services.

Failure to comply with guidelines for acceptable use of computer resources will normally result in a warning. Serious or multiple infractions of computer-use policies may result in sanctions by the College. The due-process rights of individuals in cases of possible infractions are the same as for noncomputing violations of College regulations and are described in the relevant handbooks. Some computer-use infractions may violate local, state, or federal law; civil and/or criminal sanctions may be independently applicable.

Computer Accounts

Issuance of Accounts

All members of the Sarah Lawrence College student body are provided accounts on the mail server and MySLC and are subject to the Acceptable Use Policy (AUP), which is available for review on the Help Desk website. Services associated with these accounts include electronic mail, access to the internet, and remote access to library resources. Accounts are created for incoming students by Information Technology Services; information is mailed to incoming students during the summer.

Students who need support for their MySLC account or email should visit the Help Desk website at sarahlawrence.edu/hd to locate several self-help tutorials and documents on common issues or visit the Help Desk in the library. No account information is discussed or disseminated over the phone; under no circumstances may a password be changed over the phone. Students needing to change account information, such as usernames or passwords, must visit the Help Desk during office hours: 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Fridays during the fall and spring semesters.

Termination of Accounts

Students may retain their remote access to library resources until August 15 of the year in which they graduate. Gryphon Mail (gm.slc.edu accounts) will continue to be supported indefinitely for all students who successfully complete credits with the institution. Students who withdraw before completing any credit will have their accounts terminated at the end of the term in which they withdraw.

Additional information about student computer accounts is available at my.slc.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/Departments/Help_Desk/About.jnz

Emergency Notification

In case of school closings, delayed openings, or a crisis on campus, the College uses an external notification system that sends an email, text message, and voicemail. Students are expected to sign up with this system and keep their information current. If a student changes to a different cell phone provider, the student will need to update the emergency notification database.

Emergency Response Plan

The current emergency response plan is on the College website. Go to the Campus Safety page of the College site and click on the link. All members of the community should familiarize themselves with the plan.

Sarah Lawrence College is an open campus; sometimes uninvited people who do not have legitimate business here have access to the campus. In order to protect everyone:

1. Students must carry their Sarah Lawrence College ID card at all times and show it to Campus Safety officers or other College officials upon request.
2. Students are asked to take normal security precautions, including locking room doors and refusing to admit strangers to their residence halls and/or rooms.
3. Duplication of keys by a locksmith is prohibited. Unauthorized keys will be confiscated.
4. Ground-floor windows must be locked whenever the room is unoccupied. Facilities will provide ground-floor residents, free of charge, a “Charlie Bar” for use upon request.
5. Please dial 914.395.2222 for any campus emergency — Fire/Medical/Environmental Health & Safety and Campus Safety assistance — or 914.395.2209 (both always covered) for assistance and advice concerning any service, shuttle, security, or safety matter.
6. For a Safety escort, whether by foot or vehicle during off hours on campus or in isolated areas, call 914.395.2209 to arrange for an escort or ride from Campus Safety.
7. Emergency telephones are installed at various locations around the campus for emergency use. These telephones are clearly marked with a blue light and painted white for easy identification. The emergency phones are linked directly to Campus Safety. As students walk around campus, they should note the locations of these phones.
8. Never give a student’s housing location to a stranger.
9. Never prop open exterior doors of residence halls.

Filming on Campus

Any student wishing to film on campus must submit a Location Request to Film form (https://my.slc.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/Departments/Campus_Operations/Campus_Operations) to Campus Operations at least seven days in advance of the shoot day. If the location is inside a building, other permissions may be required. If filming takes place in a residence hall, permission must be secured from the director of residential life. If the location is the common area/hallway of a residential building, then the signatures of all the residents of that building will be required. If the location is in a specific student room, then signatures of students in all of the adjacent rooms, including above and below, will be required. All other buildings and outdoor or common spaces must be approved by the department head that occupies that space. To ensure that you have approvals from the correct staff/faculty, it is recommended that filmmakers contact Campus Operations (operations@sarahlawrence.edu) well in advance of submitting a Location Request to Film form.

Note: For any usage of prop weapons, Campus Safety must be notified and consulted at least 72 hours prior.

Fire Safety Procedures and Regulations

The College campus is a unique community. We live in close quarters, sharing various spaces. Our living environment affects many of the choices that we make about living habits, as well as the impact of those choices on the community members around us. Nowhere is the shared responsibility for a safe and healthy community more important than in the area of fire safety and prevention.

To this end, the College's Fire Safety Procedures and Regulations stem from the belief that each member of the community must work to ensure the fire safety of all. Each member of the community is responsible for knowing and following the procedures and safety regulations set forth in this policy. Violations of the policy will result in conduct action.

What to Do in Case of a Fire

If you discover or suspect a fire, pull the building fire alarm if it is on your way out of the building. As you leave, warn other occupants by knocking on doors and shouting a warning on your way out. Evacuate the building and notify emergency personnel from a safe location. Call 911 first, then 914.395.2222. Give as much information as possible: the name of the building, the location of the fire, your name, and a call-back number. You should stay on the phone until the dispatcher hangs up. Do not assume someone else has called.

If you hear a fire alarm, evacuate the building immediately. Stay low to the floor if smoke is present. Before opening a door, feel the knob. If it is hot, do not open the door. If the knob is not hot, brace yourself against the door and open it slightly. (Fire can create enough pressure to open a door if it is not held firmly.) If heat or heavy smoke is present in the corridor, close the door and stay in the room. When opening the door, stay below the level of the door handle and off to the side.

If you cannot leave the room, keep the door closed and open the windows. If the windows can be raised and lowered, open the top slightly to let out heat and smoke; open the bottom slightly to let in fresh air. Seal the cracks around the door with clothing or other material, soaked in water if available. To attract attention, hang an object out of the window, such as a shirt, jacket, or towel. Shout for help. Do not jump from windows above the first floor.

If you can leave the room, close all doors behind you as you exit. This will slow the spread of smoke and lessen damage. Go to the nearest exit or stairway. Do not use an elevator. If the nearest exit is blocked by smoke, heat, or fire, go to an alternate exit. If all exits from the floor are blocked, go back to a remote room, close the door, open the windows, and follow the procedure described above.

After leaving the building, move away from the building to ensure your safety and allow emergency personnel and equipment to enter and maneuver around the building. Follow the directions of Campus Safety and/or Yonkers Fire Department personnel and try to get to assigned assembly locations, if feasible.

Students, faculty, and staff must vacate any building when an alarm sounds. Fire drills will be held periodically throughout the year. Any student who fails to leave a building/area during a fire alarm is subject to disciplinary action and a $50 fine.

Fire Safety Policies and Sanctions

Policies regarding fire safety are outlined below. Violations and alleged violations will be investigated according to the College's Student Conduct Process \(p. 190\).

Approved Appliances

- Keurig coffee machines
- Electric teapots
- Mini and cube refrigerators; we recommend the following dimensions: 20" – 24" tall with a weight between 30 and 55 pounds

These appliances should be plugged directly into a wall outlet or an approved surge protector.

Possession of Prohibited Items

The following items are considered fire hazards and are prohibited in student rooms:

- Hanging items from the ceiling
- Paper lanterns and/or paper lamp shades
- Extension cords
- Open flames of any kind
- Hot plates
- Toasters

- Toaster ovens
- Halogen lamps
- Appliances with a heating unit (except UL-listed hair dryers and irons)
- Live cut trees, such as evergreens
- Hoverboards
- Lava lamps
- Window and floor air-conditioning units
- Gas-powered devices
- Propane or grills
- Vaping and electronic cigarettes
- Candles, incense burners, and candle warmers

Tapestries, posters, and papers are permitted, as long as they are hung to the wall and secured on all sides. Nothing may be hung from the ceiling. LED string lights are approved to use in student residence halls, as long as they are plugged directly into the wall or surge protector. Two or more string lights should not be connected. String lights may not be used near draperies or any type of flammable material. String lights may not be hung on fire equipment, including, but not limited to, sprinkler pipes and fire extinguishers. String lights may not impede escape routes. They may not be hung externally and may never be hung on an external door or window. Damaged string lights should be disposed of and not used.

Possession of Prohibited Appliances

The following items are considered fire hazards and are prohibited in student rooms:

- Air conditioners not installed by the College
- Electric heaters
- Heavy-duty appliances (except for cube-size refrigerators and small microwaves)

Possession and/or Use of Candles and/or Incense

Candles, regardless of whether they have been lit, and incense, whether lit or unlit, are prohibited. Wax melters are also prohibited.

Candles needed for religious purposes must be registered with the director of student diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging at the beginning of the year. These candles may not be lit in student rooms or common areas. For candle use for religious purposes, contact DEI/Student Life in reference to the Spiritual Space.

Possession and/or Use of Grills

Unauthorized Burning of Any Item on Campus

State and local laws prevent the burning of paper, wood, leaves, rubber, plastic, or any toxic material on campus.

Tampering With Fire Safety Equipment

Tampering with fire safety equipment in any way is strictly prohibited. Tampering with fire safety equipment includes, but is not limited to: moving or removing fire extinguishers, signs, and poles; unnecessarily discharging a fire extinguisher; marking on or covering fire safety signs; or hanging anything from a sprinkler system, including all pipes and sprinkler heads.

Tampering With Smoke Detectors/Carbon Monoxide Detectors/Heat Detectors

Covering, removing, and/or damaging the heads of smoke, carbon monoxide, or heat detectors is extremely dangerous and prohibited. If a detector in a common area or shared room is covered or disabled, all occupants will be assessed the sanctions, regardless of who tampered with the detector, unless the resident(s) takes responsibility. In this case, not removing the cover or reporting that the detector is disabled is as dangerous as covering the detector.

Tampering With, Dismantling, or Damaging Door Emergency Alarms or Locks That are Found on Attic, Balcony, and Roof Doors

Students are not permitted to tamper with, dismantle, or damage the alarms or locks on doors leading to attics, balconies, or roofs.

Blocking of Fire Exit and Propping Fire Doors

Blocking fire exits (e.g., doors to hallways, entrances, and any area that leads to an outside door) or propping open fire doors (i.e., those that help contain a fire) is prohibited.

Failure to Leave a Building During a Fire Alarm or Fire Drill

Students, faculty, and staff must vacate any building when an alarm sounds. Fire drills will be held periodically throughout the year.

Activating a False Fire Alarm or Improper Use of an Emergency Door (Malicious)

Intentionally activating a fire alarm or using an emergency door when there is no safety emergency necessitating the alarm is a criminal offense, and any student found to have done so is subject to criminal charges along with College disciplinary action.

Activating a False Fire Alarm (Unintentional)

In cases where a policy violation leads to the unintentional activation of a fire alarm, additional sanctions will be assessed. For example, students who set off a fire alarm by smoking in their rooms will be subject not only to the smoking policy sanctions but also to fire safety sanctions.

Activating a Fire Alarm Due to Cooking

It is the responsibility of the person(s) using the kitchen to ensure that their cooking does not activate a fire alarm. Burning or smoking food will set off the fire alarm and initiate a response from the Yonkers Fire Department.

Health and Safety Emergencies

The health and safety of our community members is a top priority at Sarah Lawrence College; however, the College, a microcosm of the greater community, is not immune from emergencies that may pose a threat to the health and safety of students, faculty, staff, and campus visitors. Given this, the College reserves the right to take appropriate action in emergency situations that pose an immediate threat to the health and safety of its community members, the determination of which will be made in the sole discretion of the College. Examples of such emergency situations may include, but are not limited to, violence against community members or an outbreak of serious illness on campus. Responsive emergency action by the College may include entering residence halls, classrooms, and other campus facilities without prior notice when necessary to address immediate risks, campus evacuation, medical intervention, suspension of activities on campus, and/or contacting emergency services. At any time deemed necessary by the College, additional measures, including the adoption and implementation of policies, procedures, and programs, may be taken to prevent future health and safety threats to those in the Sarah Lawrence community. This policy applies to all situations and activities occurring on the campus of Sarah Lawrence College, as well as College-sponsored events occurring off-campus, to the degree that they have a direct impact on campus safety.

Campus members may report concerns about potential health and safety threats to Campus Safety, Residential Life staff, or through appropriate online reporting forms available in MySLC. Such reports will be reviewed and action will be taken by the College when deemed necessary in its sole discretion.

Health Insurance and Fees

The College requires each student to be covered by a health insurance plan. The annual premium for the Student Health Insurance Plan offered by the College will be included on the student's bill. The Student Health Insurance may be waived only if the online waiver form is completed annually, demonstrating comparable insurance coverage for the student. Although many families have some form of insurance, it's important to ensure that students have comprehensive medical, mental health, and prescription-drug coverage in the local New York area while attending school. All too often, situations arise where a student requires care beyond what is available at the Sarah Lawrence College Health & Wellness Center only to discover that their insurance covers them only in the event of an emergency or in their home geographic region. Students who waive the Student Health Insurance Plan are responsible to check with their own insurance companies regarding coverage for off-campus providers.

A detailed brochure about the Student Health Insurance Plan is available on the Health & Wellness Center website at www.sarahlawrence.edu/health-and-wellness/. There are no fees for any office visits provided at the Health & Wellness Center. In-house laboratory tests, medical supplies, vaccinations, and some prescription medications are provided for a fee that covers cost. Any prescription medication not available in-house may be purchased at a local pharmacy and may be covered by insurance, depending on the student's insurance plan. Copayments at local pharmacies must be made at the time medication is purchased. Special diagnostic services, such as laboratory tests, X-rays, and diagnostic procedures, are provided off campus and will be billed to the student's health insurance.

Installations in Public Spaces

The following guidelines are in place to ensure a safe and accessible campus and to support the artistic expression of members of the Sarah Lawrence community. These guidelines apply to all art and other installations proposed for public locations outside of the Heimbold Visual Arts Center.

1. All art or other installations proposed for a public location, including outside spaces (other than in the Heimbold Visual Arts Center), must receive approval from Campus Operations. If the proposed location is in a residence hall, approval must also be obtained from the director of residential life and residents of the hall/house/apartment.
2. Installations may be approved for up to a seven-day period.
3. Proposals should include:
 - A written description of the proposed installation, including a description of the installation and the proposed location, the materials to be used, and how the installation will be secured.
 - A drawing of the installation and proposed location.
 - The requested date(s) and time(s) for the installation (Note: the requested dates and times should include setup and removal).
 - The name and contact information (both a reliable phone number and email address) of the person(s) responsible for the installation.
4. Students should make an appointment to meet with the assistant vice president of facilities in Campus Operations (Purple Door/Andrews House) to review the proposed project for accessibility and safety issues at least two weeks before the installation start date. This will ensure time to get proper approvals from other departments or students. The student should also meet with the associate director of fire safety to assess possible fire hazards.
5. Approved installations must have an "artist's statement" about the installation and the name of the person responsible for the installation located next to the installation.
6. If an approved installation becomes a safety hazard for any reason, Facilities will attempt to contact the artist via phone or email to address the problem. Facilities maintains the right to remove the installation, if necessary, for safety reasons.
7. These guidelines exist to ensure a safe, accessible, and clean community environment. Failure to comply with these guidelines and the installation's approved expectations and conditions, including, but not limited to, removal by the specified date and time or use of unapproved materials, will result in removal of the installation by Facilities. Students may be charged with costs associated with the removal of an art installation and may be subject to disciplinary action.

The College is not responsible for any damage to or theft of public installations.

Library Noise and Food/Drink Policy

The library is committed to providing an environment that is comfortable, inviting, and conducive to study. In order to provide various experiences throughout the library, we have different noise expectations for each floor in the library:

Lower Level: Talking Zone

Expectations:

- Voices at average talking volume
- Food only allowed near vending machines in the Lower Level

Main Level: Quiet Zone

Expectations:

- Any conversations conducted in muted voices
- Exceptions where louder conversation is often necessary:
 - Information & Circulation Desks
- Food allowed only near vending machines in the Lower Level

Upper Level: Silent Zone

Expectations:

- No conversations or disruptions of any kind
- Exceptions where conversation is necessary and sound will bleed through:
 - Information & Circulation Desks downstairs
 - Study rooms
 - The Pillow Room

Patrons should report noise situations to the Information Desk, and all library staff and student supervisors have the responsibility to intervene in these situations. Patrons who fail to comply may be asked to leave the building.

The library's policy regarding food and drink is intended to preserve library materials, equipment, and furnishings and to ensure a pleasant and comfortable workspace for our patrons.

- Drinks in spill-proof containers or sports bottles are allowed throughout the library—food is allowed only in the vending machine area.

- No food deliveries of any kind are permitted.
- Occasionally, events are scheduled in the library during which refreshments are served. In that case, food and drink are restricted to the event area.
- Patrons who fail to comply with these restrictions may be asked to leave the building.

Nondiscrimination

Pursuant to Revenue Procedure 75-50 dated December 8, 1975, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX"), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 ("Section 504"), and the Department of Health and Human Services regulations promulgated to effectuate Title IX and Section 504, Sarah Lawrence College hereby gives notice of its nondiscriminatory policy as to students and employees.

Continuing its longstanding policy to actively support equality of opportunity for all persons, Sarah Lawrence College does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, gender, color, sexual orientation, gender identity or its expression, disability, religion, age, veteran status, or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its admission, employment, educational policies, scholarship or other financial-aid programs, athletics, or other College-administered programs. Sarah Lawrence affirms that it admits students and selects employees regardless of race, gender, color, sexual orientation, gender identity or its expression, veteran status, disability, religion, age, or national or ethnic origin and thereafter accords them all the rights and privileges generally made available to students or employees at the College. The College is strongly committed to basing judgments about individuals solely upon their qualifications and abilities and to protecting individual rights of privacy, association, belief, and expression.

Sarah Lawrence College is committed to the ideal of a community founded on mutual respect and tolerance. Free and robust debate and exchange of ideas are at the heart of our academic enterprise. The College makes a distinction, however, between free expression of ideas and physical or verbal abuse or harassment, which threatens or inhibits such expression or significantly interferes with a person's education or work. The College takes the issues of discrimination and harassment seriously and will thoroughly investigate any complaints that are brought to its attention in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth in this handbook. If the investigation determines that discrimination or harassment has occurred, appropriate disciplinary action will be invoked up to and including permanent separation from the College. Retaliation against an individual for reporting or providing information about discrimination or harassment is an equally serious violation of College policies.

Inquiries concerning the application of the aforementioned Revenue Procedure, Title IX, or Section 504 to any policy, program, or other activity at Sarah Lawrence may be referred to the vice president for human resources, who has been designated by the College to oversee the continued application of the College's nondiscriminatory policies, or to the College's Title IX coordinator. In addition, inquiries may be addressed to: Director, Office for Civil Rights, Washington, D.C. 20201

Complaint Procedures for Discrimination Claims

If any student believes that they have been subjected to discrimination, whether by a student, faculty member, administrator, other College employee, or any other person who comes on school property with permission, the student should report the incident promptly.

- Complaints against an administrator or staff member should be brought to the vice president for human resources.
- Complaints against a faculty member should be brought to the provost and dean of the faculty.
- Complaints against a student should be brought to the vice president and dean of students or the Office of the Dean of Studies.

A faculty member, an administrator, or other College supervisor who receives a complaint of discrimination is a Mandated Reporter and, therefore, required to notify the appropriate administrator (listed above) immediately to initiate an investigation. A faculty member, an administrator, or other Mandated Reporter for the College who receives or learns of a complaint of sexual harassment, misconduct, or assault is expected to notify the Title IX coordinator.

Official Communication

The College uses several methods for communicating official information to students. This information may include policy or regulation changes, emergency procedures, academic information, notification of a conduct hearing, or other official correspondence from the College. For all students, information may be distributed through campus mail or email using Sarah Lawrence email addresses. Students are responsible for all information communicated through these media and, therefore, are strongly encouraged to check email and mailboxes daily. For assistance in setting up Sarah Lawrence email accounts, contact the Help Desk. Forwarding to another email address is possible from a Sarah Lawrence email account.

Operating a Business/Solicitation

Sales including, but not limited to, running a business out of a residence hall room or any type of solicitation in the halls is not permitted. Fundraisers on campus must get approval from the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership. Requests should be submitted via the Fundraiser Proposal form on GryphonLink at least one week prior to the proposed date of fundraiser.

Parking and Driving

Regulations

1. All student-owned vehicles parked on campus must be registered with the College and must display a valid parking permit sticker.
2. All staff and faculty-owned vehicles parked on campus must be registered with the College and must display a plastic hang tag parking permit.

3. Vehicles parked on campus that are owned by visitors and community members must display a temporary parking pass, which may be obtained at Campus Operations Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Guests using the Sports Center facilities may obtain a temporary permit there.
4. Student parking permits are issued by Campus Operations for a fee to cover administrative costs. The permit may be purchased in advance of the academic year or per semester. The full-time residential students' rate is $200 per semester, full-time commuters' rate is $100 per semester, and part-time commuters' rate is $50 per semester. This fee is charged to the purchaser's student account. The fee is nonrefundable. The cost of a permit is not prorated. Only one permit sticker at a time will be issued. Students must register their vehicles and obtain new permits every academic year.
5. To obtain a parking permit sticker from Campus Operations, students must go to my.slc.edu/parkingpermit. The fee will be billed to their account, and they can pick up the permit in Campus Operations, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
6. A student parking permit must be posted on the inside lower-left corner of the rear window.
7. Any transfer of ownership, such as the purchase, sale, or exchange of a vehicle bearing the College parking permit, should be reported promptly to Campus Operations. Students must return their permits at this time. If, for any reason, a student no longer needs their parking permit, it must be returned to Campus Operations. Permits are nontransferable. Students are responsible for any violations against their permits.
8. Students are responsible for campus parking of any vehicle registered in their name, even if someone else is driving it or has parked it.
9. All state and local motor vehicle and traffic laws are necessarily a part of Sarah Lawrence's regulations and must be observed.
10. The campus speed limit is 15 miles per hour.
11. Winter parking: From December 15 through March 31, all residential students with vehicles are required to park exclusively in Kober lot. Both upper and lower Kober lots are available for use. Commuter and/or graduate students are permitted to park both in Kober and Wrexham lot, with the exception of overnight parking. ALL Sarah Lawrence community members and guests who wish to leave their vehicle overnight must park in Kober lot. Individuals with medical accommodations must email operations@sarahlawrence.edu.
12. If a student or a guest needs to park an unregistered vehicle on campus, a one-day parking pass or temporary parking pass may be requested from Campus Operations.
13. Anyone appealing a parking fine must write a letter of appeal to the director of campus operations at operations@sarahlawrence.edu. The appeal must be made within two weeks of receiving the ticket. The appeal will be reviewed by Campus Operations.
14. Due to a finite number of campus parking spots, purchasing a Sarah Lawrence parking permit does not, at any time, guarantee a space in a campus parking lot.
15. Illegally parking a car will result in a ticket, fine, and/or booting or towing. Parking is not permitted on campus roads or in the driveways of the College's houses.

Accessible Parking

1. Students, faculty, and staff who are in need of accessible parking on campus due to a disability and who have city- or state-issued accessible plates or permits may park in any designated accessible parking space on campus. Accessible parking is available in the Westlands, Kober, Andrews, 45 Wrexham, and North parking lots and near the Performing Arts Center, Mead Way, and Swinford Lot. To park in the designated accessible spaces, vehicles must also display a valid Sarah Lawrence parking pass.
2. Students with temporary disabilities requiring parking accommodations should contact Health & Wellness, healthservices@sarahlawrence.edu, or Assistant Dean of Access and Disability Services Kara Barrows, kbarrows@sarahlawrence.edu, to request a temporary accessible parking permit. Faculty and staff with temporary disabilities should contact Human Resources to request a temporary accessible parking permit. These permits will allow parking in specific lots on campus close to where classes or programs are held. These permits do not allow parking in the designated accessible parking spaces; a city- or state-issued accessible plate or permit would still be required. Once approved for the temporary accessible parking permits, students, faculty, and staff with temporary disabilities will need to go to Campus Operations in Andrews House to obtain the Sarah Lawrence temporary parking permit. Their vehicle must be registered at my.slc.edu/parkingpermit.

Sarah Lawrence College assumes no responsibility for vehicles operated or parked on campus property. Operation and parking are fully at the risk of the owner of the vehicle.

Parking Violation Penalties

For Registered Vehicles and Applicable to ALL Sarah Lawrence College Community Members

First violation: $35 fine

Second violation: $50 fine

Third and all subsequent violations for the academic year: $75 fine and/or booting or towing

Booting: $75 fine per day

All fines will be billed to the student's account.

Students with more than 10 violations during the school year will automatically lose their parking privileges and must remove their vehicles from campus for the remainder of the school year.

For Unregistered Vehicles

A $75 fine and/or towing or booting will occur on the first and all subsequent violations.

Exceptions to Parking Violation Penalties for Registered Vehicles

The following will occur on the first and all subsequent violations:

1. Parking in any lot, other than Kober, during a snow emergency will result in a daily $100 fine and/or booting or towing.
2. Parking in a handicapped-accessible spot or fire zone will result in a $100 fine and/or booting or towing.

Payment for a Fine/Boot

1. Violators who are not Sarah Lawrence students, faculty, or staff must pay fines in cash only. Fines to students not paid within 30 days will automatically be charged to the violator's student account and will be collected through the Student Accounts billing process.
2. To have a boot removed, the violator must go to Campus Operations to pay the fine or have the fine billed to the violator's College account. After business hours on weekdays and on weekends, one must pay in cash only at Westlands Desk.

Vans

The College maintains a limited number of passenger vans and vehicles for College-sponsored activities, class trips, community partnership programs, and athletic events. Vans must be scheduled in advance through the Office of Campus Operations. To ensure that each trip is valid, a faculty/staff member must submit a van request online via the Events Management System (EMS).

It is strongly recommended that vans be reserved at least a week in advance. The 15-passenger vans accommodate 14 passengers and a driver, while a minivan accommodates six passengers and a driver. Vans traveling more than an hour's distance or overnight from the Bronxville Campus must have a faculty or staff member in the van as either a passenger or registered driver. Vans may only travel a maximum of 500 miles from campus. No driver may drive more than five consecutive hours. On trips where the driving time exceeds five hours, there must be two registered drivers. Due to the high demand for vehicles during our academic year, vans may be reserved for a maximum duration of three consecutive days. Scheduled van trips may be canceled by the College due to weather conditions or public-safety emergencies. The assistant vice president of campus safety and assistant vice president of facilities/operations will hear requests for exceptions to this policy.

Van Drivers: The group requesting the van is responsible for driving the van or for finding an authorized student driver. Start with the class or organization; check to see if there is an authorized driver among the students intending to go on the trip. If not, email the van coordinator at vancoordinator@sarahlawrence.edu at least one week prior to the scheduled trip. Van reservations are unconfirmed until an authorized driver has been found.

Van Driver Responsibilities: All approved van drivers will receive a notice stating the College's rules and regulations while operating a vehicle. More information on payment, tolls, accidents, and driving concerns may be found on MySLC — search Campus Operations or visit https://my.slc.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/Departments/Campus_Operations.

Pets

Sarah Lawrence has a no-pet policy for students. Pets or other animals are not allowed inside any College building. If animal or pet paraphernalia is found in any area of a College building, the student responsible will be fined $100 per occurrence. A residential student will face additional sanctions, up to loss of housing, and will be charged $100 per day until the animal is removed from campus. A student will be held financially responsible for any extra cleaning, pest control, and/or repairs that result from the animal's presence. In cases where an animal was not observed in a student's room but its presence was made known due to smell, fleas, and/or damage, the resident(s) will be held accountable for the costs of cleaning, pest control, and repairs.

There are two exceptions to this policy.

1. Students may request to keep an Emotional Support Animal (ESA) in their residence-hall room as an accommodation for a documented disability. A student who wishes to request this accommodation may review the policy and procedure on MySLC or contact the Office of Access and Disability Services at disabilityservices@sarahlawrence.edu. ESAs are only allowed in the student's room, not in communal areas or any other buildings. ESAs are allowed outside if they are on a leash or under the control of the student at all times. Students who have animals in the residence halls without the approval of the Office of Access and Disability Services will be sanctioned according to the language above, and the animals will have to be removed within 48 hours. Students with ESAs who are found to be in violation of the ESA agreement that they have signed will be subject to a conduct process.
2. Service dogs, as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), are dogs that are individually trained to do work or perform tasks for people with disabilities. Service dogs are allowed to accompany people with disabilities in all areas of the campus where the public is normally allowed, and the dogs must be under the control of the handler at all times.

Photography and Video Policy

All students are advised that Sarah Lawrence College's Office of Marketing & Communications photographs and videotapes members of the campus community throughout the year, which may include students in classrooms, in study and social areas, at athletic events, and at other Sarah Lawrence on- and off-campus activities. Sarah Lawrence College reserves the right to incorporate this collected imagery in its internal and external communications efforts, as well as to retain the imagery in the College Archives. Therefore, students who enroll at Sarah Lawrence College do so with the understanding that their images, names, voices, and likenesses may be included, published, or used in Sarah Lawrence College publications—including print, online, broadcast, social, and/or other electronic media for publicity, commercial, or marketing purposes—and their enrollment constitutes consent to such inclusion.

Students who prefer not to allow their photographic or video likeness, name, or voice to be thus utilized should alert photographers or videographers whom they encounter that they do not wish to be photographed or recorded; these wishes will be respected. Students may also email the Sarah Lawrence College Office of Marketing & Communications with the subject line “Photo/video opt out” to advise that they prefer not to be included in College materials, and every effort will be made to avoid using photos of these students. Students must include their full name and Sarah Lawrence College ID number, as well as a current photo for identification purposes, without which requests cannot be accommodated. Please direct such requests to:

Sarah Lawrence College Office of Marketing and Communications communications@sarahlawrence.edu

Publicity and Posting

Individuals or groups are entitled to post a maximum of 25 posters and/or flyers around campus to announce an event. All posters/flyers must be stamped at the Barbara Walters Campus Center Information Desk, first floor, main entrance. The stamping of these posters/flyers is the only way to ensure a limit on the amount of paper used. Any poster/flyer that is not stamped and/or is posted improperly, including postings outside of the spaces designated below, will be removed. Graffiti in any form is not permitted as advertising. Chalking and stickers are not permitted.

Content: Posters/flyers containing violations of College policies or regulations will not be stamped. The groups/individuals responsible for the event must identify themselves on the poster and are encouraged to include contact information when possible.

Approved Posting Locations: Posters/flyers may be put up only in the designated bulletin board spots listed below. Posters/flyers should only be hung using push pins or blue painter’s tape. No other kind of tape is allowed. Posters/flyers may not cover other posters/flyers. Approved posting locations include the following:

- Barbara Walters Campus Center four bulletin boards
- Bates common dining lobby
- Campbell Sports Center
- Heimbold Visual Arts Center
- Ilchman Science Center first, second, and third floors
- Laundry rooms (all locations)
- Library copy machine area
- MacCracken lower level
- Marshall Field lobby
- Reisinger lobby bulletin boards
- The HUB
- Slonim Living Room
- Wrexham lower level

Enforcement: The spaces for posting are community-monitored. Individuals or groups may post stamped announcements in these designated spaces with the expectation that they allow others fair access to the limited space available. Any outdated and unstamped posters may be taken down by anyone to be reused or recycled. Violation of this policy is subject to disciplinary action.

Alcohol: For event publicity, including flyers and posters, alcohol should not be the primary focus of the advertisement. Any reference to binge drinking, underage drinking, other abuse of alcohol, and/or the total amount of alcohol to be served is not permitted. Reference to alcohol in the title of an event is not permitted.

TV Screens: LCD TVs are located in a number of high-traffic areas around campus for the purpose of distribution of campus information, including the promotion of campus events. To request space on the TVs, send a simple, landscape-oriented image to events@sarahlawrence.edu. Due to limited space in the rotation, large campus-wide events and announcements take priority.

Free Expression Spaces: There are two free expression boards on campus, located at Bates and Hill House, that may also be used to promote events. Messages and images painted on these boards must comply with the College's Freedom of Expression policy and other relevant policies. The boards may be repainted at any time, regardless of the current content.

Outside Individuals/Organizations: Individuals or groups not associated with the College that wish to announce a community event must get prior approval from events@sarahlawrence.edu. Outside individual organizations are not permitted to table on campus.

Sarah Lawrence College prohibits the advertising, marketing, or merchandising of credit cards anywhere on campus.

Roofs, Attics, Balconies, and Fire Escapes

Students are prohibited from entering attics and climbing on roofs, balconies, or fire escapes, except in emergencies. Students are also prohibited from storing items on or otherwise blocking these spaces.

Student Group Travel Policy

Statement of Purpose

These guidelines provide recommendations related to predeparture information, safety, and health, as well as emergency response procedures, for Sarah Lawrence College students traveling off campus for College-related activities. Sarah Lawrence College and the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership cannot guarantee or ensure the safety of students traveling off campus. Personal safety is the responsibility of each participant. The College can help students prepare for travel; ultimately, however, students must accept responsibility for their own personal safety and take actions to ensure their security and well-being.

Registration Process

The Office of Student Involvement and Leadership can provide students and organizations with predeparture information to aid in the planning of a student group trip. It is each student's responsibility to read the contents of this policy and ask the Student Involvement and Leadership Office any specific questions prior to departure. It is required that students register their trips with the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership and take copies of the registration documents with them on the trip.

Definition: Student Group Trip

For the purposes of this policy, a student group trip is defined as any group of students leaving campus for a College-sponsored or -supported activity that requires overnight stay and/or involves a hazardous activity. Groups must register their trip with the Graduate Studies Office at least two weeks prior to departure if any of the following conditions exist:

- The activity requires overnight stay.
- The activity or event involves a hazardous component.
- The activity is in any part funded by the College (including Student Senate).
- The trip is coordinated by a Sarah Lawrence College student organization.
- Attendance of the participants (regardless of the number) is based on their affiliation rather than individual initiative (i.e., it is more likely that they attended because of their affiliation with a College organization).

Exceptions:

- Trips sponsored by a Sarah Lawrence College office, department, or faculty member (It is recommended, however, that all Sarah Lawrence College-sponsored trips mirror the guidelines outlined in this policy.)
- Day trips within the local area that do not include hazardous activities

Before departure, the following documents must be filed with the Student Involvement and Leadership Office. Copies of these documents are available on the Student Involvement and Leadership page on MySLC.

- Personal Emergency Information for Student Travel Form. Each participating student must complete this form. Any changes must be reported to the Student Involvement and Leadership Office as soon as possible, and all information must be accurate at the time of departure.
- Student Travel Information and Roster Form. One copy must be filed with the Student Involvement and Leadership Office before departure. Any changes must be reported to the Student Involvement and Leadership Office as soon as possible, and all information must be accurate at the time of departure.
- Release and Assumption of Risk. Each participating student must complete this release. One copy must be filed with the Student Involvement and Leadership Office prior to departure.
- Student Leader/Adviser Checklist for Student Group Travel. One copy must be filed with the Student Involvement and Leadership Office prior to departure.

Trespass

Sarah Lawrence College buildings, grounds, and facilities are for the use of Sarah Lawrence community members and their registered guests and other guests of the College. Being a member of the community or a guest does not give an individual unlimited access to all areas of the College at all times of the day. In certain situations, a person's legal right to be on Sarah Lawrence College property or in a specific area/building may be rescinded by Sarah Lawrence officials. An individual who fails to leave immediately after being asked to do so by a College official may be charged with trespassing.

Behaviors considered to be violations of this policy include, but are not limited to:

- The entry or attempted entry of, or remaining in, any College-owned or operated building, area of a building, or facility without authorization or the legal right to do so
- The unauthorized possession, duplication, or use of keys or ID cards, including the use of such to enter or use any College facility

Violations of this policy will result in disciplinary action, including, but not limited to: a community impact fine; any applicable repair, replacement, and/or cleaning costs; warning; housing probation; social probation; or loss of housing. Multiple violations may result in suspension from the College. Non-Sarah Lawrence community members found to be in violation will be asked to leave campus, may be issued a "No Trespass" or "Persona Non Grata" letter prohibiting them from campus, and may be subject to arrest.

Unmanned Aircraft (Drones and Model Aircraft)

This policy applies to Sarah Lawrence College employees, students, and third parties.

The operation of unmanned aircraft systems (UAS) and model aircraft is prohibited on or above the College's property due to the inherent risk in the operation of such equipment and the close proximity and density of kilovolt overhead electrical wires and aerial phone and network cabling.

Definitions

Unmanned Aircraft Systems (UAS) — UAS are also known as, or may be characterized as, drones.

According to the FAA, a UAS includes the unmanned aircraft and all of the associated support equipment, control station, data links, telemetry, communications and navigation equipment, etc., necessary to operate the unmanned aircraft. UAS may have a variety of names, including quadcopter, quadroter, etc. FAA regulation applies to UAS regardless of size or weight. Model aircraft are not considered by the FAA as UAS and have different regulations. The operation of unmanned aircraft systems is prohibited on or above the College's property unless a formal exception is granted by the dean of the college.

Model Aircraft — Model aircraft are considered differently from other UAS by the FAA and have different regulations. Model aircraft are not for business purposes, only for hobby and recreation. Model aircraft must be kept within the visual sightline of the operator and should weigh under 55 pounds unless certified by an aeromodeling community-based organization. Model aircraft must be flown a sufficient distance from populated areas. The operation of model aircraft is prohibited on or above the College's property.

Certificate of Authorization (COA) or Waiver — According to the FAA, a COA is an authorization issued by the Air Traffic Organization to a public operator for a specific UAS activity. After a complete application is submitted, FAA conducts a comprehensive operational and technical review. If necessary, provisions or limitations may be imposed as part of the approval to ensure that the UAS can operate safely with other airspace users. In most cases, the FAA will provide a formal response within 60 days from the time a completed application is submitted.

333 Exemption — This FAA exemption is based on Section 333 of the FAA Modernization and Reform Act of 2012 (FMRA), which grants the Secretary of Transportation the authority to determine whether an airworthiness certificate is required for a UAS to operate safely in the National Airspace System.

Procedures

1. Any College employee or student wishing to operate a UAS as part of academic work or research must contact the dean of the college to obtain permission by submitting their request electronically at least two weeks prior to operating a UAS on College property.
2. All members of the College community are personally responsible for complying with FAA regulations, state and federal laws, and College policies.
3. Any College employee or student who obtains permission to operate a UAS as part of their College employment or as part of a College academic or research program must first obtain a 333 Exemption or Certificate of Authorization (COA) or Waiver issued by the FAA.
4. Third parties engaged by any College employee or student who obtains permission to operate a UAS must also provide proof of FAA approval. In addition, operation of a UAS by a third party over College property must be under a contract that holds the College harmless from any resulting claims or harm to individuals and damage to College property and must provide evidence of insurance as required by the College.
5. If the approved use involves recording or transmitting visual or oral images, operators must take all reasonable measures to avoid violations of areas normally considered private. Under New York State law, unlawful surveillance constitutes a felony.
6. Use of UAS must comply with all other applicable College policies.

Prohibited Uses

- UAS shall not be used to monitor or record areas where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy in accordance with accepted social norms. These areas include, but are not limited to, restrooms, locker rooms, individual residential rooms, changing or dressing rooms, and health treatment rooms.
- UAS shall not be used to monitor or record residential hallways, residential lounges, or the insides of campus daycare facilities.

- UAS shall not be used to monitor or record sensitive institutional or personal information that may be found, for example, in an individual's workspaces, on a computer, or on other electronic displays.

Sanctions

Any violations of College policies by an individual will be handled in accordance with applicable College policies and procedures, which may include disciplinary actions up to and including termination from the College. Legal prohibitions regarding physical presence on campus/trespassing and other legal action may also be pursued against third parties that operate UAS in violation of this policy. Fines or damages incurred by individuals or departments that do not comply with this policy will not be paid by the College and will be the responsibility of the persons involved.

Smoke-Free Policy

Summary

Sarah Lawrence College is committed to providing a smoke-free environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

Policy Statement

Sarah Lawrence College maintains an environment where students, employees, and visitors are not exposed to secondhand smoke. Therefore, smoking is prohibited on all College-owned and College-managed property in New York State, hereafter referred to as "College property," both indoors and outdoors. This includes, but is not limited to:

- All buildings on the Sarah Lawrence College Bronxville Campus, including, but not limited to, classrooms, lecture halls, residences, residence halls, apartments (excluding legacy tenants of Hill House), laboratories, faculty and administrative offices, work areas, study areas, reception areas, meeting rooms, lobbies, hallways, stairwells, elevators, eating areas, lounges, and restrooms.
- All outdoor spaces on the Sarah Lawrence College Bronxville Campus, including, but not limited to, lawns, patios, terraces, fields, open land areas, parking lots, garages, athletic venues, outdoor paths, bridges, and wooded areas. (City-owned streets and sidewalks are excluded from this policy.)
- All partially enclosed areas, including, but not limited to, covered and uncovered walkways, breezeways, loading docks, building entrances, exterior stairways, and landings.
- All vehicles owned and leased by Sarah Lawrence College or its affiliated organizations.
- All off-site locations, buildings, and/or properties leased and managed by Sarah Lawrence College in New York State.

Organizers of and attendees at all events, such as conferences, meetings, lectures, social events, cultural events, and athletic events, including property rentals using College property, will be required to abide by the Sarah Lawrence College Smoke-Free Policy. In addition:

- The sale of tobacco and/or vapor products, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, cigars, cigarillos, pipes, beedies, kreteks, water pipes, vapor pipes, bongs, and hookahs, is not permitted on College-owned and College-managed property.
- The free distribution of tobacco and/or vapor products at College events or to College organizations by vendors or organizations is not permitted.
- Tobacco- or vapor-related advertising or sponsorship is not permitted.
- Tobacco- or vapor-related advertising is permitted in newspapers or magazines not produced by the College and which are lawfully sold, bought, or distributed on College property.

Background

Health risks associated with smoking are well-documented. Research findings show that tobacco use, including smoking and breathing secondhand smoke, constitutes a significant health hazard. National studies also found that smoking contributes to institutional costs, including increased medical costs, lost productivity in the workplace, fire damage, cleaning, and maintenance.

Applicability

This policy applies to all members of the College community, including, but not limited to, faculty, students, and staff—including those employed through contract agencies, contractors, vendors, and contracted parties. This policy also applies to all guests, visitors, and any other individuals while on College property.

Definitions

Secondhand Smoke and/or Vapor: A mixture of the smoke and/or vapor given off by the burning or heated element of products—including, but not limited to, cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, cigars, cigarillos, pipes, beedies, kreteks, water pipes, vapor pipes, bongs, and hookahs—and the smoke and/or vapor exhaled from the users of these products.

Smoking: Burning and/or heating any type of matter or substance that contains tobacco and/or nicotine or any other legal or illegal substances and drugs, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, cigars, cigarillos, pipes, beedies, kreteks, water pipes, vapor pipes, bongs, and hookahs.

Tobacco-Related: Applies to the use of a tobacco brand or corporate name, trademark, logo, symbol, motto, selling message, recognizable pattern or colors, or any other indicia of a product identical to, similar to, or identifiable with those used for any brand of tobacco products or company that manufactures tobacco products.

College Property: New York State property or facilities owned, managed, maintained, leased, or controlled by Sarah Lawrence College.

Compliance and Enforcement

Effective implementation of this policy depends on the mutual respect and cooperation of all members of the Sarah Lawrence College community.

Failure of students, faculty, or staff to comply with this policy will result in a $100 fine for the first violation, a $200 fine for the second violation, and a $300 fine for each subsequent violation per academic year. In addition, an indoor violation by a resident student will result in housing probation for one year. All reports of student violations shall be referred to the Office of Student Life. All reports of faculty and staff violations shall be referred to the Office of Human Resources.

Visitors, guests, volunteers, trainees, vendors, contracted parties, and supplemental staff employed through contract agencies are expected to observe the Sarah Lawrence College Smoke-Free Policy. College employees, event coordinators, and sponsors/hosts of events held at the College are responsible for notifying individuals of the policy, including the restrictions on the sale or distribution of tobacco products. Individuals who smoke will be requested to extinguish the cigarette, electronic cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc. and will be informed of the policy. Refusal to extinguish or a repeated request to extinguish will constitute a violation of the policy and may result in removal from, or denial of readmission to, the building or event or removal from campus.

POLICY ON SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Purpose of the Policy

Sarah Lawrence College is an intellectual community founded on mutual respect and is committed to providing a living, learning, and working environment that is free from sexual violence in any form. The College, pursuant to the terms of this Policy on Sexual Violence (the “Policy”) prohibits offenses of sexual violence (referenced in this Policy as “sexual violence”), which include sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual exploitation.

Jurisdiction of the Policy

For every report received by the College, the Title IX Office will review the circumstances of the reported conduct to determine whether the College has jurisdiction over the parties involved and take steps reasonably within its control and appropriate to the circumstances, with the aim of addressing reported concerns and preventing harm to those in the community.

I. To Whom the Policy Applies

This Policy applies to the following individuals:

- All current and incoming students and student employees, both undergraduate and graduate, enrolled at Sarah Lawrence College
- All Sarah Lawrence College employees (faculty and staff)
- All third parties serving the campus or involved with College-related activities, such as employees of contractors or vendors

The College retains the authority to exercise jurisdiction regardless of where the incident(s) that are reported, or of which the College becomes aware, may have occurred (i.e., whether on campus or off campus) and to determine the appropriate policy provisions and procedures to be applied in responding to such reports. If the College has jurisdiction over the involved parties, Sarah Lawrence College also may investigate any reported violations of this Policy that occur in the context of a College program or activity that affects the College’s working or learning environment.

Third-party reports of sexual violence may also be made by any individual affiliated with the College and any nonaffiliated individual. Such reports must still be applicable to the populations listed above.

Geographic Scope of the Policy

The Title IX Office is required to be consistent with federal regulations that impose limits on the situations and the geographic settings that fall within the scope of the College’s Title IX compliance obligations. Under New York law and under College policies other than this Policy, however, other occurrences beyond the scope of Title IX jurisdiction may still be investigated and disciplined, where appropriate. Allegations in a Title IX Formal Complaint related to behavior that occurs outside of the education program or activity or outside the United States, or behavior that would not meet the definition of Title IX sexual harassment as defined by federal regulation, must be dismissed as required by federal regulations currently in effect. Both the complainant and the respondent may appeal the dismissal of any allegations under Title IX. In keeping with the College's educational mission and commitment to fostering a learning, living, and working environment free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation, however, the College may still move forward with a resolution option (administrative assistance, mediation, or the Formal Complaint Process, as discussed below) employed under conduct policies other than the College's Policy Against Sexual Violence. In such circumstances, the College will use the same resolution process for all forms of prohibited behavior under the College's Policy Against Sexual Violence. Therefore, all allegations of conduct that would otherwise constitute a violation of this Policy, irrespective of the site of the alleged misconduct or the presence or absence of any connection with an education program or activity, will be handled by the Title IX Office and follow the same procedures.

The College will offer supportive measures, including counseling services and educational accommodations, to any students in need of such services, whether an incident is subject to review under this Policy or any other. Additionally, regardless of the jurisdiction of the incident, students may seek support through law-enforcement resources, community resources, or other agencies outside the College.

For more information regarding resources for all persons, including those injured by the acts or conduct of non-College-affiliated individuals, please see "Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence \(p. 143\)." For additional information about available resources on sexual violence, see www.sarahlawrence.edu/svps and www.my.slc.edu/safe.

II. Applicable Procedures Under This Policy

For violations allegedly committed by students or by College faculty, staff, or third-party employees impacting students:

- The disciplinary process and applicable procedures for investigating and/or adjudicating alleged violations of this Policy under the above circumstances may be found in the Student Handbook by visiting: Procedures for Complaints Against Students Regarding Sexual Violence \(p. 161\) > Options for Reporting Individuals > Formal Complaint Process. Please refer to Procedures for Complaints Against Students Regarding Sexual Violence. \(p. 161\)

III. Campus Disciplinary Process vs. Legal Proceedings

Acts of sexual violence within the scope of this Policy also are prohibited under various New York State and federal laws, including applicable criminal laws in certain circumstances. Incidents of sexual violence, therefore, may give rise not only to an investigation or determination under this College Policy but also to claims in civil litigation and to criminal charges prosecuted in the criminal justice system. The internal Sarah Lawrence processes differ from civil or criminal matters, and the legal definitions used in criminal or civil litigation may vary from definitions used by the Sarah Lawrence community as outlined in this Policy. In connection with matters reported or proceeding under this Policy, the definitions as outlined in this Policy will govern; and the College, in its sole discretion, will determine any and all jurisdictional questions arising under this Policy.

Pursuing campus resolution under this Policy does not preclude an individual from contacting law enforcement immediately, from seeking the assistance of law-enforcement authorities in the future, from pursuing a criminal charge, or from pursuing a claim in civil court. Similarly, the pursuit of legal action and/or reporting the conduct to law enforcement does not preclude pursuit of campus resolution under this Policy and the Policy's corresponding conduct process.

Additionally, the standards for finding a violation under applicable criminal law are different from the standards for finding a violation of this Policy. Therefore, criminal investigations or reports by law-enforcement officials, or by the District Attorney with respect to bringing a criminal case, are not determinative of whether a Policy violation involving sexual violence can be found to have occurred under the College's Policy. The College's conduct process may run concurrently with a criminal justice investigation and proceeding, except for temporary delays as requested by external law-enforcement officials who may, for example, be gathering evidence, or temporary delays otherwise deemed appropriate in the discretion of the College. Temporary delays generally should not last more than 10 days, except when law-enforcement officials specifically request and justify a longer delay or the College believes a longer delay period is warranted.

Please see the Appendix for a list of relevant local, state, and federal laws that may relate to an incident of sexual violence.

Enforcement of the Policy

The College will promptly consider all reports of sexual violence. The College will take necessary and appropriate measures seeking to remedy such situations, after due consideration of the reporting party's wishes and concerns, although its ability to effectively remediate may be impaired or precluded if a student who reports an act of sexual violence is unable, or unwilling, to identify a potentially responsible party, is unwilling to assist in any investigation that may be undertaken, or requests that no action be taken with respect to a potentially responsible party. In addition, if a reporting student wishes to maintain confidentiality and requests that the student's name or other identifiable information not be shared in connection with any investigation or proceedings under this Policy, or requests that the College not conduct an investigation, the College, may in its discretion, but is not obligated to, honor the student's request.

In exercising such discretion, the College will weigh requests by a student to decline the disciplinary process or for confidentiality against the College's obligation to take reasonable steps to help ensure a safe, nondiscriminatory environment for all members of its community. The College has the sole discretion to make the determination as to whether an investigation must be conducted or proceedings under this Policy must occur. Additionally, if a student pursues the disciplinary process, that student may also withdraw a Formal Complaint any time after filing it or may withdraw from any continuing involvement with the College's process at any time. That determination by the student will not preclude the College from continuing to investigate or from continuing the College's process under this Policy.

Definitions

The College intends to define terms, for purposes of implementing this Policy, consistent with current law and regulation. To the extent such laws or regulations change, the College will apply this Policy and conduct all proceedings hereunder consistent with governing law and regulation.

I. Definitions of Prohibited Conduct

A. Sexual Assault

Sexual assault is defined as engaging in sexual activity without consent, including having sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another individual without consent.

- i. Sexual contact without consent: Any intentional and knowing contact or fondling with the intimate parts of another, causing another to touch one's intimate parts, or disrobing or exposure of another (whether involving physical contact or not) without permission, or with a person incapable of providing consent. Intimate parts may include the breasts, genitals, buttocks, groin, mouth, or any other part of the body that is touched in a sexual manner. This also entails contact done directly or indirectly through clothing, bodily fluids, or with an object. Sexual contact also includes attempted sexual intercourse.
- ii. Sexual intercourse without consent: Any penetration of the sex organs or anus of another person when consent is not present; any penetration of the mouth of another person with a sex organ when consent is not present; or performing oral sex on another person when consent is not present. This includes penetration or intrusion, however slight, of the sex organs or anus of another person by an object or any part of the body.
- iii. Statutory rape: Under the law in New York, sexual activity is deemed to be nonconsensual if between a legal adult (age 18 or older) and a person under 17 years of age, except that persons 15 years of age or older may be deemed capable of consenting to sexual activity with another who is four years older or less. For a more detailed discussion of these laws and their impact on the ability to consent, see Sections 130.25 and 130.30 of the New York State Penal Code.

B. Sexual Exploitation

Sexual exploitation is taking nonconsensual or abusive sexual advantage of another person for a person's own advantage or benefit, or violating the sexual privacy of another when consent is not present. This includes, but is not limited to, the following actions (including when they are done via electronic means, methods, or devices):

- Sexual voyeurism, such as permitting others to witness or observe the sexual or intimate activity of another person, in a state of undress, or in a place and time where such person had reasonable expectation of privacy (such as a changing room, toilet, or shower) without that person's consent;
- Recording any person engaged in sexual or intimate activity in a private space without that person's consent;

- Disseminating, streaming, or posting sexual information, images, or recordings about another person without that person's consent as of the time of the dissemination, streaming, or posting;
- Recruiting, harboring, transporting, providing, or obtaining another person for the purpose of sexual exploitation;
- Exposing or inducing others to expose themselves when consent is not present;
- Knowingly exposing or transmitting a sexually transmitted disease or infection (STD or STI) or human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) to another person;
- Inducing incapacitation in another person without their consent or knowledge with the intent to engage in sexual conduct, regardless of whether prohibited sexual conduct actually occurs; or
- Sexually based stalking and/or bullying can constitute sexual exploitation, in addition to constituting independently prohibited conduct under this Policy.

C. Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, or other unwanted or unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, whether verbal, nonverbal, graphic, physical, or otherwise, when one or more of the following conditions are present:

i. Quid Pro Quo:

- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of a person's employment, academic standing, or participation in any College program and/or activity, or is used as the basis for College decisions affecting the individual.
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for decisions affecting the individual, such as grading; acceptance into a course, program or team; advancement, promotion, hiring, or retention.

- #### ii. Hostile Environment: A hostile environment exists when the conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it unreasonably interferes with, limits, or deprives an individual from participating in or benefiting from the College's education or employment programs and/or activities. The existence of a hostile environment is to be judged both objectively (meaning a reasonable person would find the environment hostile) and subjectively (meaning the impacted individual felt the environment was hostile).

Examples of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment include but are not limited to:

- Pressure for a dating, romantic, or intimate relationship
- Unwelcome sexual advances
- Unwelcome touching, kissing, hugging, or massaging
- Pressure for or forced sexual activity
- Unnecessary references to parts of the body
- Sexual comments or references
- Sexual innuendoes, gestures, or humor

- Sexual graffiti, pictures, or posters

D. Relationship Violence

- Dating violence: Any abusive or violent behaviors (including, but not limited to, emotional, physical, sexual, and financial abuse or threat of abuse) between two people committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the person who has been subjected to such abusive or violent behaviors, where the existence of such a romantic or intimate relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of relationship
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

This violation includes behavior that seeks to establish power and control over another person by causing fear of physical violence or sexual abuse or assault. Dating violence may be a single act or a pattern of behavior, depending on the frequency, nature, and severity of the conduct.

- Domestic violence: Any abusive or violent behaviors (including, but not limited to, emotional, physical, sexual, and financial abuse or threat of abuse) between two people that is committed by:

- The current or former spouse of the person who is subjected to the acts of abuse or violence
- A person with whom the person subjected to such abusive or violent behaviors shares a child in common
- A person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the person subjected to abusive or violent behaviors
- Any other person against an adult or youth who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of New York State

This behavior seeks to establish power and control over another person by causing fear of physical or sexual abuse or violence. Domestic violence may be a single act or a pattern of behavior, depending on the frequency, nature, and severity of the conduct.

E. Stalking

Stalking is knowingly engaging in an unwanted course of conduct directed at a specific person that one knows or should know would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress. Emotional distress means significant mental suffering, anxiety, or alarm.

Conduct that can amount to stalking may include actions directed at another person, whether done directly, indirectly, or through others via devices or via any other methods or means (specifically including electronic means, e.g., cyberstalking), including, but not limited to:

- Following a person
- Being or remaining in close proximity to a person
- Entering or remaining on or near a person's property, residence, or place of employment without permission and without a legitimate purpose
- Monitoring, observing, or conducting surveillance of a person
- Threatening (directly or indirectly) a person
- Communicating to or about a person
- Giving gifts or objects to, or leaving items for, a person
- Interfering with or damaging a person's property (including pets)
- Engaging in other unwelcome contact when that behavior causes fear of harm or substantial emotional distress, and that fear or distress is a reasonable response to the behavior

II. Definitions of Affirmative Consent

Affirmative consent is a knowing, active, voluntary, present, and ongoing mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent may be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Any party claiming that consent was present during a sexual encounter has the burden of proving consent under this Policy.

A. Valid Aspects of Consent

Consent must be all of the following:

- Knowing: All individuals understand, are aware of, and agree as to the “who” (same partners), “what” (same acts), “where” (same location), “when” (same time), and “how” (the same way and under the same conditions) of the sexual activity.
- Active: Consent must take the form of “clearly understandable words or actions” that reveal one's expectations and agreement to engage in specific sexual activity. This means that silence, passivity, submission, or the lack of verbal or physical resistance (including the lack of a verbalized “no”) should not, in and of themselves, be understood as consent. Consent may not be inferred by an individual's manner of dress, the giving or acceptance of gifts, the extension or acceptance of an invitation to go to a private room or location, or going on a date. It is the responsibility of the person initiating sexual activity to ensure that affirmative consent to that activity, and to all sexual acts, has been given.

- Voluntary: Consent must be freely given and may not be the result of the respondent's intimidation (extortion, menacing behavior, bullying), coercion (severe or persistent pressure causing fear of significant consequences from respondent if one does not engage in sexual activity), force (violence, physical restraint, or the presence of a weapon), threats (indications of intent to harm, whether direct or indirect), or fraud (misrepresentation or material omission about oneself or the present situation in order to gain permission for sexual or intimate activity).
- Present and Ongoing: Consent must exist both at the time of initiation of sexual activity and at all times thereafter throughout the entirety of sexual activity. Consent to previous sexual activity, either at prior times or earlier on a specific date, does not imply consent to later sexual acts; similarly, consent to one type of sexual activity does not imply consent to other sexual acts. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not constitute consent to engage in sexual activity with another person.

B. Capacity to Consent

Consent is not present when an individual does not have the capacity to give consent, voluntarily or involuntarily, due to:

- Age (Generally, the age of consent to engage in sexual activity with a legal adult [18 years of age or older] is 17 in New York.)
- Physical condition
- Disability that impairs the individual's ability to give consent

Reasons why one could lack capacity to give consent due to a physical condition or disability include, but are not limited to, consumption of drugs or alcohol (voluntarily or involuntarily) to the point of incapacitation (that being where the person, through drug or alcohol use, is incapable of appreciating that sexual activity is occurring or about to occur, or incapable of knowing, active, voluntary, present, and ongoing consent); or being in a state of unconsciousness, sleep, or other state in which the person is unaware that sexual activity is occurring or about to occur; or otherwise in a condition rendering the person incapable of knowing, active, voluntary, present, and ongoing consent. For a more detailed definition of incapacitation, please refer to Related Definitions directly below.

For the legal definition of consent under New York State law, see the Appendix to this Policy.

Related Definitions

A. Force or Coercion

- Force: The use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation, and coercion to overcome resistance.
- Coercion: An unreasonable amount of pressure or an intimidating behavior. The use of emotional manipulation to persuade someone to do something they do not want to do or are reluctant to do, such as engaging in sexual activity or performing certain sexual acts, may constitute coercion.

Coercing a person into having sex or performing sexual acts may vitiate consent, even when that consent otherwise may have been expressed by the subject in words or actions. Coercion may occur even where the parties are otherwise in an ongoing relationship, such as a romantic or dating relationship.

Coercion is more than an effort to persuade, entice, or attract another person to engage in sexual activity. When a person makes clear that they do not want to participate in a particular form of sexual activity, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go beyond a certain type of sexual activity, continued pressure can be coercive if it would reasonably place an individual in fear of immediate or future harm.

In evaluating whether coercion was used, the frequency, duration, and intensity of the other person's verbal or physical conduct or threats are all relevant, as is the degree of confinement or isolation to which the person was subjected. Coercion may be evidenced by an interaction that may reasonably be interpreted as indicating that a party will be harmed or restrained if they do not engage in sexual conduct.

B. Incapacitation

When alcohol is involved, incapacitation is a state beyond drunkenness or being “buzzed” or intoxicated. When drug use is involved, incapacitation is a state beyond being under the influence or impaired by use of the drug. In general terms, the difference between intoxication or impairment, on the one hand, and incapacitation, on the other, is that a person incapacitated by drug or alcohol use is incapable of appreciating that sexual activity is occurring or about to occur or incapable of providing knowing, active, voluntary, present, and ongoing consent. Alcohol and other drugs impact each individual differently; some indicators of a lack of capacity to give consent due to consumption of drugs or alcohol may include:

- Lack of full control over physical movements (for example, significant difficulty walking or standing without assistance, or stumbling about);
- Lack of awareness of circumstances or surroundings (for example, lack of engagement with others in the environment, lack of an indication of awareness of where one is, how one got there, who one is with, or how or why one became engaged in ongoing interactions);
- Lack of consciousness or periodic episodes suggesting the person is “in and out” of consciousness; and/or
- Inability to effectively communicate (for example, inability to communicate coherently, inability to follow or meaningfully participate in a discussion, significant slurring of speech, inability to complete thoughts or sentences, difficulty finding words).

A person who is incapacitated but who may appear to be giving consent may not have the capacity to do so. When determining whether a person has the capacity to provide consent, the College will consider whether a sober, reasonable person in the respondent's position knew or should have known that the other party was incapacitated and, as a result, could not consent to the sexual activity. It is especially important, therefore, that anyone engaging in sexual activity is aware of both any other person's level of intoxication and capacity to give consent. When a question is reasonably raised as to whether a potential partner is incapacitated by alcohol or drug use, one should assume that consent is not able to be given. Being intoxicated or impaired by drugs or alcohol also does not excuse one from the responsibility to obtain consent or from ensuring that a potential partner is capable of consenting. Being intoxicated or impaired by drugs or alcohol is never an excuse to commit sexual violence or to engage in nonconsensual sexual activity.

Because the impact of alcohol and other drugs varies from person to person, the amount of alcohol and/or drugs that a person consumes will not ordinarily be sufficient, without other evidence, to prove that they were incapacitated under this provision.

Another effect of alcohol consumption may be memory impairment or forgetting entire or partial events (sometimes referred to as "blackout" or "brown-out"). A person may experience this symptom while appearing to be functioning "normally," including communicating through actions or words that seem to express an interest in engaging in sexual activity. Whether sexual activity with a person who is "blacked-out" constitutes a violation of this policy depends on the presence or absence of the observable factors that would indicate to a reasonable, sober person that a person is also incapacitated, as described above. Total or partial loss of memory, without more, is insufficient to demonstrate incapacitation.

C. Preponderance of the Evidence

Preponderance of the evidence is the evidentiary standard used at Sarah Lawrence College to determine whether or not a respondent, including any student, staff member, or faculty member, is responsible for violating the Policy on Sexual Violence. This standard requires that the preponderance of the evidence—the totality of the credible evidence, considered impartially—must establish that it is more likely than not that the Policy was violated.

D. Retaliation

The College does not tolerate retaliation or discrimination against those who bring forward a report or make a Formal Complaint against any person and/or their family and friends, as well as any person who cooperates in the investigation of a report or a Formal Complaint or who participates in the conduct process (either as a party or as a witness) for an alleged violation of the Policy on Sexual Violence.

Anyone who believes that they have been retaliated against as a result of their involvement with an investigation and/or conduct process for an alleged violation of the Policy should immediately report the alleged retaliation to the director of human resources (for faculty and staff) or the dean of studies and student life (for students). The appropriate conduct action will be taken, which may be independent from any investigation into a report of sexual misconduct and/or the Formal Complaint Process. Sanctions for retaliation will range up to and including suspension or expulsion from the College in the case of a student who has retaliated, and up to and including termination of employment in the case of an employee who has retaliated. The Title IX coordinator may be consulted about allegations of retaliation, and retaliation allegations may be resolved within an investigation into the underlying report of sexual misconduct and/or the Formal Complaint Process, at the discretion of the Title IX coordinator in consultation with the director of human resources (for faculty and staff) or the dean of studies and student life (for students). For further information on the College's general policy prohibiting retaliation, please refer to the Conduct Code section of the Student Handbook.

Definitions of Roles Under This Policy

A. Adviser

Students may select a single adviser of their choice. The adviser may be a parent, friend, faculty/staff member, or a lawyer. The adviser must maintain confidentiality throughout the duration of their time serving as an adviser and even after conclusion of the process. This includes a prohibition of public disclosure of information learned during the proceedings under this Policy. An individual is not obligated to serve as an adviser and may decline to do so if, for example, they perceive a conflict of interest in being one party's adviser, conclude they may not effectively assist the party, or perceive the presence of any other compelling reason.

At the student's request, an adviser may be present at any meeting conducted as part of the process under this Policy. The role of the adviser is limited to the following:

- Within any meeting or communication regarding the Formal Complaint (except questioning in the hearing, addressed separately below), the adviser may not speak on behalf of the student. The adviser may counsel the student and may seek reasonable breaks during meetings or discussions to allow such counseling to occur.
- During the investigation, the adviser also may not speak on behalf of the student. The sole role of the adviser during the investigation is to provide private support and advice to the student outside of the interview. The adviser also may seek reasonable breaks during meetings or discussions to allow such counseling to occur.
- During the hearing, the role of the adviser is to relay their party's desired questions (subject to the Hearing Adjudicator determining whether the question is appropriate and relevant) to be asked of the other party or witnesses. Advisers are not permitted to raise objections to questions posed by the other party's adviser or the Adjudicator, argue in support of their advisee's position, or otherwise "represent" the advisee in the hearing. The parties and their adviser may consult in private during the hearing, but any break in the hearing for purposes of such consultation may not occur while a question is pending.

If a student is unable or unwilling to procure an adviser of their choice, the College will appoint an adviser to the student, free of charge. While the student may determine the participation of the adviser during the investigation, the adviser must be present during the hearing in order to ask questions of the other party and witnesses, as stated above. Parties are prohibited from directly questioning any other party, or any witness, at any hearings conducted as part of the Formal Complaint Process.

B. Complainant

The Complainant is an individual who has signed or endorsed a Formal Complaint alleging a violation of this Policy, and/or other applicable College policies, and has requested an investigation and hearing as part of a Formal Complaint Process.

In the event the person who has experienced the alleged misconduct chooses not to file a Formal Complaint and the College files a Formal Complaint, the College will be deemed the Complainant and the person who experienced the alleged misconduct will be deemed a witness.

C. Hearing Coordinator

The Title IX coordinator or the coordinator's designee serves as the Hearing Coordinator. The Hearing Coordinator is responsible for overseeing the hearing procedure for all alleged violations of this Policy, including administrative and logistical assistance to the Hearing Adjudicator, disseminating the Hearing Adjudicator's decisions, and maintaining the case records. The Hearing Coordinator ensures that the Complainant's and the Respondent's rights under these procedures are honored and that hearing procedures are followed.

The Hearing Coordinator or the coordinator's designee may be present for the hearing but will not take part in the deliberations and outcome of the Hearing; however, the Hearing Adjudicator may call upon the Hearing Coordinator during the deliberations to answer questions about the conduct process, precedent, or other pertinent matters.

D. Hearing Adjudicator

The Hearing Adjudicator hears and assesses Formal Complaints of alleged violations of the Policy; makes determinations of responsibility in such cases; and, if applicable, determines sanctions. The Hearing Adjudicator is a single individual specifically trained to adjudicate hearings within the Formal Complaint Process. In addition to training on the adjudication process, the training includes information on how to evaluate evidence impartially, engage trauma-informed sensitivity during hearings, and analyze facts and credibility.

The potential Hearing Adjudicator may be excused in the event of a conflict of interest, lack of availability, or other valid reason, as determined by the Title IX coordinator and in the Title IX coordinator's sole discretion.

E. Investigator

The College will designate the Investigator(s), who may investigate reports and Formal Complaints made under the Policy. The Investigator(s) are responsible for overseeing and completing the investigation procedure and shall draft the Final Investigatory Report, which includes the Formal Complaint; relevant statements; summaries of interviews of the Complainant, the Respondent, and any relevant witnesses; relevant physical and documentary evidence; and, if appropriate, a credibility analysis.

F. Reporting Individual/Complainant

The Reporting Individual is a person who reports an alleged violation of the Policy but has not filed a Formal Complaint. The Reporting Individual may be the person who has been subjected to an alleged violation of the Policy or may be a third party (such as a witness or Mandated Reporter).

G. Respondent

The Respondent is a person who has been alleged to have violated and/or has been charged with an alleged violation of, the Policy in a Formal Complaint and/or other related conduct violations under other applicable College policies.

H. Witnesses

Witnesses are identified as any person(s) with direct and/or relevant knowledge of the alleged Policy violation being reported other than a Complainant or Respondent. Witnesses may be individuals affiliated with the College community and/or individuals outside of the community

Alcohol and/or Drug-Use Amnesty

The health and safety of every student at the College is of critical importance. The College recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that sexual violence occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct.

A. Bystanders or Reporting Individuals Reporting Under the Influence

A bystander acting in good faith or a reporting individual acting in good faith who discloses any incident of sexual violence to the College's officials or law enforcement will not be subject to the College's conduct process for violations of alcohol and/or drug-use policies occurring or allegedly occurring at or near the time of the alleged incident. The College strongly encourages students and all community members to promptly report incidents of sexual violence to appropriate College officials.

B. Disclosing Substance Use During the Formal Complaint Process

Similarly, students disclosing during the Formal Complaint Process the use of alcohol or drugs in connection with a potential violation of this Policy will not be subject to the College's disciplinary process for such disclosed violations, assuming that the disclosure is related to the alleged Policy violation at issue.

Policy on Consensual Relationships

I. Policy on Romantic or Sexual Relationships Between Employees and Students

As a condition of employment, all employees of the College (including full- and part-time administrative staff, full- and part-time regular faculty, guest faculty, graduate faculty, coaches, and employees of independent contractors or vendors) may not engage in sexual or romantic relations with any Sarah Lawrence College student, regardless of whether the student consents to such interaction. The Policy does not apply to students who are already spouses/domestic partners of current employees at the College or spouses/domestic partners of contractor or vendor employees working at the College.

A romantic or sexual relationship between a faculty or staff member and a student poses a significant potential threat to the health and well-being of the College community.

- Such a relationship could lead to preferential treatment or other acts, actual or perceived, of alleged favoritism or alleged retaliation on the part of an employee toward a student.
- Given the power differential between students and faculty or staff members, there is serious concern that such relationships could never be fully consensual or could be perceived by others, at the time or in retrospect, as coercive in nature.
- Such relationships may also be harmful to other students and employees not directly involved and highly injurious to the College's commitment to providing a nurturing learning and work environment for all in the community.

II. Procedures on Romantic or Sexual Relationships Between Employees and Students

A. Reporting Violations of This Policy

1. For Concerns Regarding Faculty: Students, faculty, and staff concerned about a sexual or romantic relationship involving a faculty member and a student should speak to the Title IX Office. The Title IX Office and/or Human Resources Office will meet with the parties involved to discuss this report. The Office will confer with the director of human resources and the provost and dean of the faculty or, if appropriate because the student is a graduate student, the dean of graduate and professional studies. The matter may be referred to the process established for complaints involving faculty (see Article III, Section GD of the faculty bylaws). The appropriate dean will report the resolution of any such complaint to both the student and the faculty member.
2. For Concerns Regarding Staff: Students, faculty, and staff concerned about a sexual or romantic relationship involving a staff member or contractor/vendor employee with a student should contact the director of human resources.

Employees who engage in sexual or romantic relationships with a student contrary to the requirements provided in this Policy are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, depending upon the nature of and context for the violation. Employees who are approached by a student seeking to establish or embark upon a romantic relationship shall (in addition to rejecting the overture) immediately report the overture to their direct supervisor and to the director of human resources. Failure to make such a report may constitute grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

For advice or consultation regarding the appropriate course of action, community members may seek assistance from the director of human resources or the College's Title IX coordinator. If there is any doubt whether a relationship falls within this Policy, individuals should disclose the facts and seek guidance rather than fail to disclose. Additional questions may be addressed to an appropriate supervisor, the provost and dean of the faculty, the dean of graduate and professional studies, the College's Title IX coordinator, or the Human Resources Office.

B. Jurisdiction of This Policy

Should a romantic or sexual relationship with a student be considered to potentially have been nonconsensual or to potentially have met the definition of sexual harassment against a faculty member or staff member, the College will investigate and resolve this matter in accordance with the Sarah Lawrence College Policy on Sexual Violence. This Policy on Romantic or Sexual Relationships Between Employees and Students therefore applies to such relationships only to the extent that they are not covered by the Policy on Sexual Violence. In the event a question arises as to which policy is applicable to a given set of circumstances, the College, in its sole discretion, will choose the policy and the procedures that will control.

C. Adjudicating Violations of This Policy

Upon receipt of a notification involving a possible violation of this Policy, the director of human resources (or the director's designee) and/or the provost and dean of the faculty (or their designee) will meet with the parties involved. The parties involved may have an adviser of their choice present during the initial interviews and during such further interviews as the director and/or the provost and dean of the faculty may deem necessary.

The director of human resources and/or the provost and dean of the faculty will use a preponderance-of-the-evidence standard to determine responsibility (i.e., it is more likely than not that the Respondent was responsible for the prohibited behavior). The director of human resources and/or the provost and dean of the faculty will report the resolution to both parties. This report will summarize the conclusions of the investigation and also may include, where deemed appropriate, any actions taken or penalties imposed.

The facts about individual cases and their disposition are confidential. This means that such information is shared by the College only on a need-to-know basis. The College reserves the right, moreover, to correct or address misinformation or incomplete information that becomes public as a result of the alleged violation or to make such disclosures as may be in the best interest of the College and the College community.

Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence

Should an individual find that one or more of the provisions within the Policy on Sexual Violence has been violated, this section describes how to report an incident of sexual violence, students' rights and responsibilities in the disciplinary process, and other on- and off-campus resources.

Reporting Options

The College encourages reporting of sexual misconduct. Members of the College community who believe that they have experienced sexual misconduct have the right to choose whether to report the incident to the College or law enforcement and have the right to choose whether to engage with the College once the College receives a report. The information below is for individuals who wish to report incidents of sexual misconduct. All persons are cautioned that a delay in reporting alleged Policy violations or in pursuing a Formal Complaint that can trigger an investigation may impair the effectiveness of such investigation or any proceedings hereunder.

I. Reporting to the College

A. Title IX Office

The College has named a Title IX coordinator to oversee College compliance with Title IX regulations. The Title IX coordinator will:

- Provide oversight for all Title IX reports and identify patterns, issues, and/or problems. Note: The Title IX coordinator oversees these processes but does not have a role in the sexual-violence investigation, hearing, and/or adjudication except as otherwise stated, which may be found in "Procedures for Complaints Against Students Regarding Sexual Violence \(p. 161\)."
- Review and support the informational initiatives enabling students, staff, and faculty to fully understand sexual violence and sexual harassment as forms of sexual discrimination and to further educate the community about College policy and procedures.

To contact the Title IX coordinator, please refer to the following information:

Title IX Coordinator

Phone Number: 914.395.2575

Email: titleix@sarahlawrence.edu

B. Mandated Reporters

The College recognizes that students may be most comfortable disclosing gender-based misconduct to a College employee whom they know well. These individuals (also known as "Mandated Reporters") are required to report the incident to the Title IX coordinator. Before a student reveals information about an incident, the Mandated Reporter will try to ensure that the student understands their reporting obligations.

Mandated Reporters include the following individuals:

- Office of Residential Life staff members, including resident advisers (RAs) and assistant residential-life coordinators (ARLCs)
- All Office of Student Life staff
- All Campus Safety staff
- All faculty members, including dons and guest faculty
- All other College employees (with the exception of Health & Wellness staff)

C. Exceptions to College Reporting

If an individual discloses information through a public-awareness event, such as candlelight vigils, protests, or other public events, the College will not consider such disclosure to be a report of an incident under this Policy and will not be obligated to evaluate the report based on such information. The College may use the information provided at such an event, however, to inform additional education and prevention efforts.

II. On-Campus Confidential Resources

If a student wants to maintain confidentiality and has not disclosed information about an incident, Mandated Reporters will seek to direct the student to the College's confidential resources. Confidential resources are individuals or groups whose communications legally may not be disclosed to another person without a student's consent except under very limited circumstances, such as an imminent threat or danger to self or others. Students may use these resources even if they decide not to make a report, decide not to file a Formal Complaint, or decide not to participate in the College's conduct process or the legal process.

The College maintains only one confidential resource: the Health & Wellness Center.

- Students may speak with a Health & Wellness staff member openly and without fear of initiating a report to the Title IX Office, Campus Safety, or others on or off campus, as long as there is no imminent danger to the individual or others.
- Health & Wellness staff will listen, help students to access additional assistance if needed, and explain options for obtaining additional support from the College and others. Health & Wellness staff can also arrange for medical care or accommodations and accompany students, or arrange for someone to accompany students, to seek such care. The staff are also familiar with the College's disciplinary process, can explain what to expect, and provide support while disciplinary or criminal processes are pending.

Some students may still wish to seek other confidential resources in addition to Health & Wellness. For more information on how to access off-campus confidential resources, please see the section on "Off-Campus Resources & Assistance \(p. 148\)" under Supportive Measures.

III. Reporting to Law Enforcement

An individual who has experienced sexual violence has the right to choose whether to file a police report. Sarah Lawrence College encourages individuals to report incidents of sexual violence to local law enforcement. The Title IX Office provides information on contacting local law enforcement and, at the individual's request, can assist an individual in doing so; however, the Title IX Office will not compel an individual to go to law enforcement.

A. Reporting to Local Yonkers Law Enforcement

If the Reporting Individual decides to file a criminal report, the College will assist in contacting the Yonkers Police Department or other appropriate law-enforcement agency. The College also has an agreement with the Yonkers Police Department pursuant to which the police will come to campus to take a report.

- When the police come to campus, they also will engage in such acts as they deem appropriate to ensure the physical safety of the involved persons.
- Interviews generally will be conducted in private, but students may request the presence of a member of Public Safety, a friend, or another adviser or supportive person during the interview.

- Filing a police report may result in the investigation of whether sexual violence or related crimes occurred and the prosecution of the perpetrator.

It is also important to note that timely reporting to the police is an important factor in the successful investigation and prosecution of crimes, including sexual violence.

Once the police investigation is completed, the case generally will be referred to the Westchester County District Attorney's Office for a preliminary review. The District Attorney's Office decides whether a case will be prosecuted criminally. Some of the factors going into that decision will be the quantity and quality of evidence available to prove the charge(s) in court. If the district attorney decides not to prosecute, that decision does not mean that the report of assault was not credible or that there was no assault. It only means that, based on past experience, the prosecutors in the District Attorney's Office do not believe that there is sufficient evidence to successfully prosecute the case in court, where they must prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

B. Reporting to New York State Law Enforcement

As a result of the New York State Enough Is Enough legislation, the state instituted a New York State Police Campus Sexual Assault Victims Unit. This unit acts as a liaison with all private and public colleges and universities within the state and is specifically trained to respond to Reporting Individuals. In addition to having the option to report to local law enforcement, Reporting Individuals may also make reports of sexual violence to the Campus Sexual Assault Victims Unit.

The state troopers within the Campus Sexual Assault Victims Unit are available to assist Reporting Individuals in reporting to law enforcement and to inform Reporting Individuals of the legal and criminal action that they may pursue. The Title IX Office provides information on contacting state law enforcement and, at the individual's request, may assist an individual in doing so; however, the Title IX Office will not compel an individual to go to law enforcement.

Supportive Measures

Sarah Lawrence College offers myriad services and resources concerning sexual violence. The College is committed to providing equal access to resources for both Reporting Individuals/Complainants and Respondents. These resources include counseling services, medical services, victim advocates, volunteer visa and immigration assistance, and volunteer legal assistance. The College also has the ability to institute supportive measures to prevent or minimize contact between a Reporting Individual/Complainant and a Respondent.

I. On-Campus Resources & Assistance

The information listed below pertains to resources that the College has the ability to initiate for students involved in incidents of sexual violence.

A. Measures for the Individual(s) Involved

Individuals who make a report may be offered supportive measures (changes to academic, living, working, or transportation situations or other applicable arrangements) in order to help ensure safety, prevent retaliation, and avoid an ongoing hostile environment. Individuals may receive these measures regardless of whether they choose to report the crime to law enforcement. Individuals may also receive these measures regardless of their decision to pursue any disciplinary action or the Formal Complaint Process.

Depending on an individual's needs or the nature of the situation, these supportive measures and accommodations may vary and change. Below is a list of potential accommodations, which may be temporary or permanent and which may be taken where reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.

B. Measures Involving Notification to the Alleged Individual

1. No Contact Order (NCO) Directive

Upon receiving a Preliminary Report, the Title IX Office may issue a No Contact Order to any parties involved, if deemed appropriate, or at the request of the Reporting Individual/Complainant and/or the Respondent.

A No Contact Order, if issued, will be mutual and will stipulate that both parties are not allowed to have any contact with each other in person, online, or through third parties on their behalf or what appears to be on their behalf. Additionally, if the parties observe each other in a public place, it shall be the responsibility of the individual who came into the area subsequent to the first individual situated there to leave the area immediately and without directly contacting or communicating with each other unless the No Contact Order specifically states otherwise. The College may also establish an appropriate schedule for the parties to access applicable College buildings and property, where needed. Restrictions that may arise from No Contact

Orders are not sanctions imposed for violations of this Policy and may be imposed at any time in the process and without the need for a finding of responsibility or non-responsibility for any Policy violation on the part of any party.

2. Community Safety Assessment

A community safety assessment is a process conducted by the Office of Campus Safety to determine if a student, such as the Respondent who is the subject of a report alleging a violation of this Policy, may be a danger to the Reporting Party and/or members of the College community. Typically, a campus safety assessment regarding sexual violence will consider whether the Respondent or another person may be a danger to the Reporting Individual/Complainant or to the College community. While this process may be utilized in relation to alleged incidents of sexual violence, it is also utilized by the College in other incidents pertaining to the safety of individual students and the community.

The Title IX Office, in consultation with such others as deemed appropriate, will determine if a campus safety assessment should occur upon receipt of a report of sexual violence. If it is determined as a result of the assessment that the Respondent or other person may be a danger to the Reporting Individual/Complainant or the community, the Title IX coordinator, in consultation with such others as the coordinator may consider appropriate, will take appropriate action to address and limit the perceived danger. Such action may include, but is not limited to, immediately removing the Respondent or other person from campus or restricting access to portions of the campus or to one or more campus activities.

Additional supportive restrictions may be determined by the Title IX coordinator or the dean of studies and student life based on the needs and interests of the campus community. Restrictions that may arise from this assessment process are not sanctions imposed for violations of this Policy and may be imposed at any time in the process and without the need for a finding of responsibility or non-responsibility for any Policy violation on the part of any party.

3. Persona Non Grata (PNG) Directive

Upon receiving a Preliminary Report in which the alleged individual is not affiliated with the College, the Title IX Office may issue a persona non grata (PNG) directive at the request of the Reporting Individual/Complainant.

A PNG directive stipulates that the alleged non-Sarah Lawrence College-affiliated individual is an unwelcome person to the College and is prohibited from being on College grounds or at any College-sponsored event. If a violation of the PNG directive is made, the recipient of the directive may be removed by Campus Safety or arrested by local law enforcement.

The Title IX Office evaluates the need for the PNG directive after receiving information from a Reporting Individual/Complainant. Considerations for the directive include, but are not limited to, concern for a Reporting Individual's/Complainant's safety and well-being, concern for the safety and well-being of the College community, or previous incidents in which the alleged individual has made themselves known to the College.

II. Off-Campus Resources & Assistance

The information listed below pertains to off-campus resources that students involved in incidents of sexual violence may wish to consider. All resources are completely independent entities from the College.

A. Advocacy Resources

Below is a list of free off-campus advocacy resources:

1. Seeking Confidential Medical Services

Experiencing any form of sexual violence is difficult and overwhelming. Regardless of whether the individual chooses to report the incident, the College strongly encourages survivors of any form of violence to seek medical attention as soon as possible—even if the individual feels no injury was sustained.

Medical-assistance providers can treat visible physical injuries and identify injuries that may not be visible and, where appropriate, address concerns regarding sexually transmitted infections and pregnancy and provide emergency contraception (if requested). In addition, a hospital can test for the presence of alcohol or drugs (e.g., Rohypnol or other “date-rape” drugs) and perform a rape evidence-collection procedure, both of which are strongly recommended to preserve all legal remedies. Such services are confidential resources and are not obligated to disclose reports of sexual misconduct to the Title IX coordinator for the College under any circumstance or to law enforcement except in very limited situations, such as when failure to disclose the information would result in imminent danger to the individual or to others or as otherwise required by law.

Rape evidence collection may be performed through:

Westchester Medical Center

Forensic Acute Care Team \(FACT\) Program

This program is available 24/7, provides medical and/or forensic evidence collection evaluations free of charge, and offers counseling and advocate services. The program is available to individuals of all ages in which the incident occurred within the past 96 hours or if the individual is reporting active symptoms (such as pain, bleeding, or skin injury).

If the incident is reported to the College or the Title IX Office, transportation to Westchester Medical Center may be provided by SLC Campus Safety.

2. Preserving Physical Evidence

Regardless of whether an incident of sexual violence is reported to law enforcement or to the College, Sarah Lawrence College strongly encourages individuals who have experienced sexual violence to preserve evidence to the greatest extent possible, as this will best preserve all legal options for the future. Additionally, such evidence may be helpful in pursuing a complaint with the College. While the College does not conduct forensic tests for parties involved in a Formal Complaint, results of such tests that have been conducted by law-enforcement agencies and/or medical assistance providers may be submitted as evidence that may be considered in the process, provided those results are available at the time of the investigation and proceeding.

Below are suggestions for preserving evidence related to an incident of sexual violence. It is important to keep in mind that each suggestion may not apply in every incident.

General physical-evidence preservation suggestions:

- In order to best preserve their legal options in the future, individuals should consider not altering, disposing of, or destroying any physical evidence of sexual violence.
- If there is suspicion that a drink may have been drugged, an individual should inform a medical assistance provider and/or law enforcement as soon as possible so that they can attempt to collect possible evidence (e.g., from the drink, through urine, or by blood sample).
- Individuals can preserve evidence of electronic communications by saving them and/or by taking screenshots of text messages, instant messages, social-networking pages, or other electronic communications and by keeping pictures, logs, or copies of documents that relate to the incident and/or perpetrator.
- Even if survivors choose not to make a report with the College, they may consider speaking with law enforcement to preserve evidence. Please note that Campus Safety, as College employees, would have to report the concern to the Title IX Office.

Physical evidence preservation suggestions specific to sexual assault:

- Because some evidence, particularly evidence that may be located on the body, dissipates quickly (within 48–96 hours), individuals who have been sexually assaulted and wish to preserve evidence should immediately go to a hospital or medical facility to seek a medical examination and/or evidence collection.
- An individual who has been sexually assaulted and wishes to preserve evidence should, if possible, not shower, bathe, douche, smoke, brush teeth, eat, drink, use the bathroom, or change clothes or bedding before going to the hospital or seeking medical attention.
- An individual who has been sexually assaulted and decides to change clothes or bedding and wishes to preserve evidence should not wash the clothes worn or bedding used during the assault and should bring them to a hospital, medical facility, or the police in a nonplastic (e.g., paper) bag.

B. Legal Resources

▪ Orders of Protection

Orders of Protection, sometimes called restraining orders, are legally mandated court orders issued by the courts, the District Attorney's office, and/or the police. The College has no direct role in the process related to the issuance of Orders of Protection; however, individuals have the right to be assisted by the College's Campus Safety or other College officials in seeking an Order of Protection. The individual is also entitled to receive a copy of any Order of Protection or equivalent that may be issued as promptly as practicable after such order is received by the College and have an opportunity to meet or speak with a College representative or other appropriate individual who can explain the order and answer questions about it, including information about the responsibility of the recipient of the order to stay away from the protected person or persons.

Sarah Lawrence College recognizes Orders of Protection by directing any person who obtains such an order to provide a copy to the director of campus safety. An individual who is a protected person under the order may then meet with the director of campus safety to develop a plan to reduce risk of harm while on campus or while coming to and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to, escorts, special parking arrangements, changes in housing/ academic/campus work arrangements, and other necessary accommodations.

Individuals have the right to receive assistance from Campus Safety when the individual may seek to cause or request an arrest for an alleged violation of an Order of Protection; however, Campus Safety does not possess arrest powers. Therefore, upon request, College Campus Safety staff will call on local law enforcement for this purpose. Nothing in this Policy shall limit or negate current law-enforcement jurisdiction and procedures. Visit the New York Courts website for a more comprehensive discussion on Orders of Protection.

- Cases in Which There Is No Order of Protection in Place: Even if there is no Order of Protection in place, the College can still help parties under this Policy with the development and implementation of a plan to reduce risk of harm while on campus or while coming to and going from campus. Please refer to the previous section, "On-Campus Confidential Resources \(p.143\)".

III. Sex Offender Registration

The federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, enacted on October 28, 2000, requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law-enforcement agency information concerning registered sex offenders, provided by a state, may be obtained. The Act also requires sex offenders already required to register in a state to provide notice, as required under state law, to each institution of higher education in that state at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, volunteers services, or is a student.

Information regarding sexual offenders is available through the New York State Offender Registry at <https://www.criminaljustice.ny.gov/nsor> or by calling, toll-free, 1.800.262.3257. Compliance with the provisions of this Policy does not constitute a violation of section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly known as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

Below is a list of free off-campus legal resources:

Description of Services: The Alliance provides services for survivors and victims of sexual assault through the Alliance Legal Services Program and can offer consultation, representation, and referrals for criminal justice, victim compensation, visa/immigration needs, family law issues, and Title IX-related concerns.

Prevention and Education

All members of the Sarah Lawrence community play a role in creating a culture of safety and respect and in eliminating sexual violence. Members of the campus community may take steps to limit the potential to hurt others by seeking out education on what consent really means. The College prohibits sexual violence and will offer resources to anyone who has experienced such violence while also taking appropriate administrative and conduct action regarding any allegedly responsible individual within the jurisdiction of the institution. The Policy on Sexual Violence applies equally to all students and employees regardless of sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, or gender expression. Without a proper understanding of the concept of consent, any person is at risk of committing a violation of this Policy.

Student Onboarding and Ongoing Efforts

Sarah Lawrence College has developed a comprehensive student onboarding and ongoing education campaign to educate members of the College community about domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault. Topics about which education is provided by the College include:

- Relevant definitions, including, but not limited to, the definitions of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, sexual harassment, and sexual exploitation
- The role of the Title IX coordinator, Campus Safety, and other relevant offices that address sexual violence prevention and response
- Awareness of violence, its impact on those who have experienced sexual violence as well as their friends and family, and its long-term impacts on members of our community
- Bystander intervention and the importance of taking action to prevent violence when one can safely do so
- Risk assessment and reduction, including, but not limited to, steps that all persons can take to lower the incidence of violations, which may contain information about the dangers of drug and alcohol use, including underage drinking and binge drinking, involuntary consumption of incapacitating drugs and the danger of mislabeled drugs and alcohol, the importance of communication with trusted friends and family (whether on or off campus), and the availability of College officials who can answer general or specific questions about risk reduction
- Consequences and sanctions for individuals who commit crimes and/or Policy or Code of Conduct violations.
- The fact that the College requires all employees participate in an interactive online program that outlines current laws against sexual harassment and provides examples that clearly illustrate situations and behaviors to be avoided (Employees must take the program when first employed and then periodically thereafter throughout employment.)
- The fact that all new students are required to complete online programs regarding sexual violence, affirmative consent, and bystander intervention
- The fact that the College administers a student survey every other year to assess the campus climate regarding sexual violence

- Ongoing training throughout the academic year on sexual misconduct and related topics for athletes, student leaders, and student organizations

Procedures for Complaints Against Students Regarding Sexual Violence

The following procedures apply to cases in which a Sarah Lawrence College student is a Complainant or Respondent of a Formal Complaint. If a faculty member, staff member, or third-party employee of the College is named as a Complainant or Respondent in a Formal Complaint involving a student, these procedures apply as well.

In the event an ambiguity or a question arises with respect to the procedures that will govern the review of a particular report or Formal Complaint alleging sexual violence, the College's Title IX coordinator shall have the sole and exclusive discretion to make the determination as to the procedures that will be followed. Moreover, modifications to any of the procedures discussed herein may be considered, if agreed to by the Complainant and Respondent (henceforth known as the Parties), and approved by the Title IX coordinator. Approval of such modifications shall be in the sole and exclusive discretion of the Title IX coordinator.

Rights and Responsibilities

I. Access to Information on Resources

Persons making reports of sexual violence ("Reporting Individuals") and persons who are the subjects of those reports ("Respondents") will be informed of their rights to the supportive measures and protections referenced in these procedures and the corresponding Policy Against Sexual Violence. The College shall assist both Reporting Individuals and Respondents in securing information about supportive measures and off-campus resources, including intervention, mental health counseling, and medical services, which shall include information on whether such resources are available at no cost or for a fee. Please refer to "Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence \(p. 143\)" for detailed information regarding resources.

The Title IX Office will also provide information on sexual-assault forensic examinations and other resources available through the New York State Office of Victim Services. For additional information, please refer to "Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence \(p. 143\)" or visit <https://ovs.ny.gov>.

II. Options & Assistance for Reporting Individuals/Complainants

The College will ensure that Reporting Individuals/Complainants are advised of their ability to:

- Make an Incident Report of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, sexual harassment, and/or sexual exploitation and to consult with the Title IX Office with respect to reported occurrences:
 - The College will take reasonable measures to keep a Reporting Individual's identity private, if said Reporting Individual wishes to maintain privacy.
 - The College will provide supportive measures regardless of whether a Reporting Individual pursues the Formal Complaint Process.

- Have access to the Title IX coordinator or other appropriate officials trained in assisting individuals who have experienced sexual violence, who shall be available to:
 - Provide information regarding options to proceed with College processes or access College resources;
 - Discuss the importance of preserving evidence and obtaining a sexual assault forensic examination as soon as possible;
 - Explain that the criminal-justice process utilizes different standards of proof and that evidence and any questions about whether a specific incident violated the Penal Law may be addressed to law enforcement or to prosecutors, such as those at the District Attorney's office; and
 - Offer access to confidential resources.
- Meet with the Title IX Office or other appropriate officials trained in assisting individuals who have experienced sexual violence upon initiation of the Formal Complaint Process. The Title IX Office, or other appropriate officials, shall be available to:
 - Provide information regarding options to proceed with and participate in College processes or access College resources; and
 - Explain that the criminal-justice process utilizes different standards of proof and that any questions about whether a specific incident violated the Penal Law should be addressed to law enforcement or to the District Attorney.
- Disclose the incident to College confidential resources who can offer privacy or confidentiality, as appropriate, and can assist in obtaining needed resources, such as counseling and clinical care.
- Receive assistance from appropriate College representatives in initiating legal proceedings in family court or civil court.
- Exercise their right to exclude their own prior sexual history with persons other than the other party or parties involved in the conduct process.
- Be free from retaliation for making a good-faith report of a violation of the College's Policy Against Sexual Violence or for participating in or cooperating with an investigation or any other process under these procedures.

The following topics also should be considered by Reporting Individuals, and Reporting Individuals may receive additional information from the Title IX Office about them:

A. Timeliness of Formal Complaints

Delays in reporting an act of sexual violence can negatively impact the College's ability to investigate and, in certain cases, can foreclose the ability of the matter to proceed to a hearing and/or limit the available options in the event of a finding of responsibility. Students may, as noted, choose to make a report of an incident of sexual violence (referenced in these procedures as an "Incident Report") but ask that the Incident Report not be investigated and that the matter not proceed to a hearing.

To trigger the commencement of an investigation and/or the potential for a hearing, the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation must file a Formal Complaint with the Title IX Office that asserts a violation of the College's Policy Against Sexual Violence unless the College files a Formal Complaint, as discussed above. The individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation, upon filing a Formal Complaint, will be referenced as a Complainant. The individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation may file a Formal Complaint anytime at or after the time the Incident Report is made. The process involved in making a Formal Complaint is discussed in Section III of the Procedural Options section. See "Procedural Options \(p. 170\)."

To file a Formal Complaint, both the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation and the Respondent must be enrolled at the College at the time that the Formal Complaint is made. If the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation or the Respondent will be graduating before the investigation and/or any hearing has concluded, the graduated parties will be permitted to participate in the remaining portions of the investigation and/or hearing. Participation will be facilitated through electronic means (e.g., Zoom), if the person(s) are not able to attend and participate in person. If the Respondent has graduated before the investigation or hearing procedure has been concluded but a hearing results in a finding of responsibility, among other things the sanction may include a restriction or limitation on the Respondent's access to campus, to College events, or to future campus employment.

In all events, however, reasonable follow-up and review may be conducted on any reports involving students or employees who are no longer members of the College community.

B. Declining to Pursue the Formal Complaint Process

Students have the right to decide whether to disclose an incident of sexual violence and the corresponding right to participate or to decline to participate in the conduct process. Therefore, a Reporting Individual/Complainant making an Incident Report or, if they did not make the Incident Report, the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation may affirmatively request that an investigation not be undertaken and/or may decline to file a Formal Complaint. Students should be aware that honoring such a request to forego pursuit of a Formal Complaint may limit the College's ability to meaningfully investigate and pursue conduct action against a Respondent.

Students also should be aware that the College generally will honor a request by the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation not to investigate Incident Reports of sexual violence through the Formal Complaint Process. If, however, the Title IX coordinator determines that declining to investigate the allegations in the report is unreasonable in light of the known circumstances or that the facts reported reasonably raise safety concerns related to the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation or other members of the campus community, the Title IX coordinator may determine to file a Formal Complaint and investigate under this Policy in order to mitigate potential risk of harm or for other compelling reasons that indicate that an investigation is warranted.

Factors used by the College to determine whether to honor a student's request to decline the Formal Complaint Process or to pursue investigation and proceedings under these procedures include, but are not limited to:

- Whether the Respondent identified in the Incident Report made to the College has a history of violent behavior, has been alleged to be a repeat offender, or has been the subject of multiple reports;
- Whether the incident represents escalation in unlawful or inappropriate conduct from previously noted behavior by the Respondent;
- Whether the College believes that there is an increased risk that the Respondent will commit acts of violence in the future;
- Whether the Respondent is alleged to have used a weapon or force;
- Whether the circumstances reported suggest identifiable and tangible risks to the community;
- Whether the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation is a minor;
- Whether the institution possesses other means to obtain evidence, such as security footage, and whether available information reveals a pattern of conduct at a given location or by a particular group; and
- Whether the totality of the circumstances, in the judgment of the Title IX coordinator, warrants resolution of the matter through the Formal Complaint Process.

If the College determines not to investigate or pursue the Formal Complaint Process, the College will notify the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation and indicate whether the determination was made at their request. When the College determines to proceed with an investigation or proceedings despite the request of an individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation to refrain from doing so, the College also will notify them. Notification or communication will usually be made in writing.

Additionally, if a Reporting Individual/Complainant chooses not to make a Formal Complaint to the College regarding an incident, that party nevertheless should take steps to preserve relevant evidence in the event that they decide at a later date to report the incident to law enforcement or pursue a Formal Complaint. Such evidence may assist in proving that the alleged offense occurred or otherwise be useful. This evidence may include things such as instant messages, social-networking pages, other communications, pictures, logs or other documents, and/or physical evidence like clothing or bed linens. Those reporting an incident should understand that a delay in reporting, a delay in proceeding, and/or a delay in providing or preserving evidence may negatively impact or even preclude:

- The ability of law enforcement to investigate fully or to establish proof of potential violations of the law;

- The ability of the Reporting Individual/Complainant to pursue potential claims against the Respondent; and/or
- The ability of the College to investigate fully or to pursue proceedings under this Policy or of any other potentially applicable College conduct policies.

C. Request to Withdraw a Formal Complaint

At any point, the Complainant may withdraw a Formal Complaint. Should the Complainant wish to withdraw a Formal Complaint after it is filed, the Complainant should contact the Title IX coordinator, in writing, to inform the coordinator of this decision.

If the Complainant chooses to withdraw a Formal Complaint, the College may halt the process and, if it does, will notify the Respondent that the Formal Complaint Process is no longer being pursued. In determining whether in such circumstances to halt the Formal Complaint Process, a determination entrusted to the Title IX coordinator's sole discretion, the Title IX coordinator shall consider factors such as those set forth in Section II(B), above.

III. Options & Assistance for Respondents

The College will ensure that Respondents are advised of their ability to:

- Be informed in cases where:
 - The individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation has declined the Formal Complaint Process but has requested supportive measures that require the Respondent's notification of that measure.
 - A meeting with the Respondent is otherwise deemed appropriate, of the approximate date and time, location, and nature of the alleged Policy violation that has been reported to the Title IX Office.
- Meet with the Title IX Office, or other appropriate officials trained in assisting individuals who have experienced sexual violence, upon initiation of the Formal Complaint Process. The Title IX Office or other appropriate officials shall be available to:
 - Provide information regarding options to proceed with and participate in College processes or access College resources;
 - Explain that the criminal-justice process utilizes different standards of proof and that any questions about whether a specific incident violated the Penal Law should be addressed to law enforcement or to the District Attorney;
 - Offer access to confidential resources; and
 - Provide the Notice of Complaint, with details including the date, time, location, and the alleged Policy violation(s) to be investigated under these procedures.
- Discuss the incident with the College confidential resources who can offer privacy or confidentiality, as appropriate, and can assist in obtaining needed resources such as counseling and clinical care.
- Exercise their right to exclude their own prior sexual history with persons other than the other party or parties involved in the conduct process.

- Be free from retaliation for making a good-faith response to a report of a violation of the College's Policy Against Sexual Violence or for participating in or cooperating with an investigation or any other process under these procedures.

The following topics also should be considered by Respondents, who may receive additional information from the Title IX Office about:

A. Declining to Participate in the Formal Complaint Process

Respondents may decline to participate in the investigation, adjudication, and/or any step of this process and any subsequent appeal.

- Declining to participate in an investigation will not preempt the investigation and further relevant proceedings.
- Declining to participate in an investigation will not preclude the Respondent's adviser from questioning other parties and witnesses who are present at a hearing.
- Declining to participate in an investigation may hinder the investigators from receiving information of relevance to the Formal Complaint or from developing a comprehensive investigation record.

B. Community Safety Assessment

The College may determine a need to perform a community safety assessment regarding the Respondent. Further information on the Community Safety Assessment can be found under “Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence \(p. 143\)”.

C. Potential Restrictions

If deemed necessary, the Title IX Office has the authority to place limits and restrictive measures on individuals, including Respondents, during the pendency of proceedings under this Policy.

For example, should an individual refuse to participate in the community safety-assessment process, the refusing individual may be placed on social probation, not permitted to live on campus, placed on interim suspension, or subjected to such other limits and restrictive measures pending the outcome of the conduct process as the Title IX Office deems appropriate.

D. Option to Appeal Restrictions

For any restriction imposed by the College, a Respondent may appeal to modify or eliminate the restrictions under the following conditions:

- Excessiveness of the restriction or undue hardship created by the restriction
- Medical or disability-related concerns impacted or exacerbated by the restriction
- Material change in circumstances warranting elimination or modification of the restriction
- Other compelling circumstances warranting elimination or modification of the restriction

The appeal must be submitted to the Title IX coordinator within five (5) calendar days of notification of the restriction. The appeal statement shall be no longer than two pages and consist of one-inch margins and Times New Roman 12-point font. No attachments or exhibits will be accepted. Any references to the restriction, however, may be made in the appeal statement. During the appeal process, the restriction being challenged will remain in place.

The Title IX coordinator may accept, reject, or alter the terms of the restriction as a result of the appeal and will notify the Respondent of the decision regarding the appeal, via Maxient, promptly and generally within five (5) calendar days of receiving the appeal. Where appropriate, the Reporting Individual/Complainant also will be notified of modifications to, or eliminations of, any restriction. This determination is final.

Student Bill of Rights

Under Section 6443 of New York State's "Enough Is Enough" legislation, all students have the right to:

- Make a report to local law enforcement and/or state police.
- Have disclosures of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault treated seriously.
- Make a decision about whether to disclose a crime or violation and to participate or decline to participate in the judicial or conduct process and/or criminal-justice process free from pressure by the College.
- Participate in a process that is fair, impartial, and provides adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard.
- Be treated with dignity and to receive from the institution courteous, fair, and respectful health care and counseling services, where available.
- Be free from any suggestion that the Reporting Individual is at fault for crimes or violations that are reported or should have acted in a different manner to prevent such crimes or violations from occurring.
- Describe the incident to as few College representatives as practicable and not be required to unnecessarily repeat a description of the incident.
- Be protected by the College from retaliation by the College or by any student (including any student's friends, family, and acquaintances) within the jurisdiction of the College.
- Have access to at least one level of appeal of a determination made under this Policy.
- Be accompanied by an adviser of choice, who may assist and advise the Parties throughout the judicial or conduct process, including during all meetings and hearings related to such process. and
- Exercise civil rights and practice of religion without interference by the investigative, criminal justice, or judicial or conduct process of the College.

These Rights are quoted, verbatim, from the statute. The full text of the "Enough Is Enough" Law is available at the New York State Senate website.

Preliminary Reports

I. Intake of Incident Reports

An Incident Report is the initial report in which a Reporting Individual/Complainant shares an alleged Policy violation with the Title IX Office and/or Campus Safety. The Title IX coordinator is the primary College official responsible for receiving Preliminary Reports, often in conjunction with Campus Safety. Reports may be submitted by any person (other than confidential resources) whether the Reporting Individual/Complainant claims to have been impacted directly by an act of sexual violence. When receiving Reports from third parties not directly impacted by an act of sexual violence or sexual misconduct, the Title IX coordinator will consider an appropriate response to assist individuals impacted directly by the reported acts.

The Title IX coordinator's (or their designee's) duty upon receipt of a Preliminary Report is to aid the Reporting Individual/Complainant in understanding their rights and the disciplinary process under these procedures. The Title IX coordinator further provides assistance to Reporting Individuals/Complainants, to Complainants (where the Reporting Individual is not the Complainant), and to Respondents.

II. Assessment of Preliminary Reports

After receiving a Preliminary Report, the Title IX coordinator (or designee) shall conduct an Initial Assessment to evaluate whether, if substantiated, the conduct as alleged in the Report could constitute a Policy violation and whether it is otherwise possible to proceed with the College's conduct process. The Title IX coordinator may consult with other College administrators during the Initial Assessment to ensure the appropriate response.

The Title IX coordinator (or designee) shall assess the available information and may take any of the following actions:

- Determine that the Preliminary Report does not allege conduct that constitutes a potential violation of the Policy or of any other College policy or Code of Conduct provision;
- Refer the Preliminary Report to another office at the College for review, if it is determined that the Report details conduct that is outside the scope of this Policy but may violate one or more other College policies or may trigger other corrective actions; and/or
- Review the available procedural options with the Reporting Individual/Complainant, including the ability of the Reporting Individual/Complainant to file a Formal Complaint and to be afforded supportive measures.

Depending on the circumstances and options chosen by the Reporting Individual/Complainant, the Respondent may or may not be notified of the existence of the Preliminary Report. The College, however, must notify a Respondent when taking action that would impact the Respondent's privileges or ability to access campus or upon the filing of a Formal Complaint.

III. Contact the Title IX Office

To make a Preliminary Report regarding an alleged violation of the Policy, the Title IX coordinator may be consulted. Relevant contact information is:

Title IX Coordinator

Phone Number: 914.395.2575

Email Address: titleix@sarahlawrence.edu

For more detailed information, please refer to the section on Reporting Options under the chapter on "Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence \(p. 143\)."

Procedural Options

At the conclusion of the assessment conducted in response to a Preliminary Report, relevant options for proceeding will be discussed with the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation. If the Preliminary Report is deemed to constitute potential violation of the Policy Against Sexual Violence, available options for resolution typically will include:

- Administrative assistance,
- Mediation, and/or
- The Formal Complaint Process.

Two of these three forms of resolution (administrative assistance and mediation) do not involve an investigation or the potential for a hearing under these procedures. Administrative assistance and mediation are options that may be available even if the Reporting Individual/Complainant does not wish to proceed with the Formal Complaint Process, and the goal of those alternative forms of resolution is to engage the Title IX Office's assistance to mitigate the harm and address the concerns of the parties.

While the preferences of the Reporting Individual/Complainant will be considered, as discussed above, the Title IX coordinator also has the authority, in consultation with such other College administrators as deemed appropriate, to determine that an investigation and pursuit of the Formal Complaint Process are necessary in order to ensure a safe campus environment. Additionally, should statements made during administrative assistance or mediation highlight aspects of the reported conduct not previously known to the College or detail additional violations of the Policy, the College reserves the right to stop that resolution process and re-evaluate the available resolution processes; however, statements made by a party during the administrative assistance or mediation proceedings will not be included as evidence in reports made with respect to an ensuing investigation.

Administrative Assistance

Administrative assistance does not involve any adjudication of responsibility but will focus on attempting to provide accommodations and supportive measures upon request by the Reporting Individual/ Complainant and/or the Respondent. This option is available regardless of whether mediation and/or the Formal Complaint Process is being pursued.

Excluding a request for a No Contact Order (or, for third parties or persons no longer students at the College, a no-trespassing order known as a persona non grata or “PNG” directive), administrative assistance may become effective without notification to the Respondent. For further detailed information on protective measures and other necessary accommodations such as the PNG directive, please see the section on Supportive Measures under the chapter on “Resources for Students Who Experience Sexual Violence \(p. 143\).”

Mediation

The purpose of Mediation is for the parties who are in conflict to identify the implications of the reported actions and identify points of agreement and appropriate remedies to address them. Either party may request Mediation to seek resolution; however, Mediation will be available only under both of the following conditions:

- The consent of both Parties, and
- When the incident constitutes conduct that, in the discretion of the Title IX coordinator, is appropriate to be potentially resolved through Mediation.

Prior to Mediation, a temporary, mutual No Contact Order will be put in place to ensure the parties do not contact one another during the process. Either party has the right, at any time, to terminate participation in the Mediation process.

The Title IX coordinator or their designee, known as the Facilitator, will facilitate Mediation. During Mediation, the Facilitator will guide a discussion between the Reporting Individual/Complainant and the Respondent in an effort to identify an outcome upon which both Parties agree. If either party feels uncomfortable being present in the same room as the other party, the parties may mediate via telephone or electronic means facilitated by the College. Alternatively, at the request of either party, the Facilitator may conduct “caucus” mediation, in which the Facilitator conducts separate meetings with each Party. Whether the parties agree to meet face to face, each party will be permitted to bring an adviser of their choice to the Mediation meeting(s).

If the Mediation results in an agreed-upon resolution between the Reporting Individual/Complainant and the Respondent, the Facilitator will record, in writing, the agreement that was reached between the Parties, and the matter will be closed on the agreed-upon terms. A notification of this agreement will be given to both Parties, and the Title IX Office will thereafter monitor adherence to the agreed-upon resolution.

If a resolution cannot be reached through Mediation, or if the Mediation otherwise concludes without agreement, the Reporting Individual/Complainant has the ability to pursue the Formal Complaint Process discussed below.

Formal Complaint Process

A Formal Complaint is a written statement providing details (i.e., time, place, and circumstance) of an act of alleged sexual harassment or sexual violence, typically received from the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation though it may be filed by the Title IX coordinator in some circumstances, as described above, seeking an investigation into the allegations and related proceedings under this Policy. In order to commence the Formal Complaint Process under these procedures, the individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation must submit the Formal Complaint Process Acknowledgement Form, including their signature or electronic signature, unless the Title IX coordinator does so, as described above. Once an individual who experienced the alleged Policy violation files a Formal Complaint, that individual shall be known as the Complainant throughout the process.

Upon receipt of a request to file a Formal Complaint of an alleged incident of sexual violence, the Title IX coordinator (or designee) will discern if there is sufficient information (such as the names of individuals involved, a reasonably detailed description of the incident, and additional relevant information) to permit an investigation and pursuit of the Formal Complaint Process.

A Formal Complaint may be filed at the time the Preliminary Report is made or at any time thereafter. The Investigation and Hearing (exclusive of Appeal Procedure) of the Formal Complaint Process typically will be completed within seventy-seven (77) calendar days of the College's receipt of the Formal Complaint; however, the College's process allows for extensions of this time frame, and all other time frames specified below, when the College determines, in its sole discretion, that good cause for such extension(s) exists. Written notice to the Complainant and the Respondent notifying them of any extension(s), and the reasons for the extension(s), will be provided.

Additionally, upon initiation of a Formal Complaint, the Title IX Office must assess and provide information to the Parties (if not previously provided) with respect to the following:

- Supportive Measures \(p. 148\), the potential availability and benefit of such Measures;
- No Contact Orders \(p. 148\), the potential availability and impact of such Orders; and
- Access to information on the Formal Complaint Procedures and Policies on Sexual Violence.

I. Investigation Procedures Related to Formal Complaints

To make a Preliminary Report regarding an alleged violation of the Policy, consult the Title IX coordinator:

Title IX Coordinator

Phone Number: 914.395.2575

Email Address: titleix@sarahlawrence.edu

A. Pre-Investigation

Upon initiation of the Formal Complaint, the Title IX coordinator will send both the Complainant and the Respondent a Notice of Complaint. The Notice of Complaint will describe and include the following information:

- The date, time, location, and allegations concerning the Policy violation(s);
- The specific Code of Conduct and/or Policy provisions alleged to have been violated;
- That the Respondent is presumed not responsible unless and until the Adjudicator determines there is a preponderance of the evidence that the Policy violation(s) occurred; and
- All possible sanctions.

Additionally, the Parties will be notified how to submit the following:

- Written statement: Either party may elect to make a written submission in support of, or in response to, the Formal Complaint. A Party may also choose to move forward without a written statement and be interviewed. Parties may, as previously noted, decline to be interviewed; but that will not preclude interviews of other Parties and witnesses and, where appropriate, a hearing under the Policy.

The written statement must be prepared and submitted by the Party and not by their adviser. The written statement should follow these guidelines:

- Its content should be relevant to the issues in the Notice of Complaint.
- It should be professional in tone, non-disparaging, and not overly combative.
- It should include or refer to probative information about the allegation(s).
- It should not discuss the impact of the alleged violation(s) and/or investigation. (Impact is only appropriate for the sanctioning stage, if any.)

The written statement shall be no longer than five pages and consist of one-inch margins and Times New Roman 12-point font; however, a Party may request additional pages for their written statement, which may be granted at the discretion of the Title IX coordinator or their designee, for good cause shown.

- List of witnesses: Each Party may submit a list of individuals whom they believe are witnesses with relevant information surrounding the alleged incident(s) that are the subject of the Formal Complaint. The Parties should also include a short description of why they determine a witness has relevant information and should be interviewed. The Investigator(s) may decline to interview any witness whose information is cumulative, irrelevant to the allegations in the Formal Complaint, or otherwise not reasonably probative of those allegations, or who is not reasonably available for an interview. All individuals who are interviewed may also, at the interview, present witness lists or request that specific persons with pertinent information be contacted by the Investigator.

- Evidence: If a Party believes that they have physical evidence surrounding the alleged incident(s), including electronic evidence like text messages or similar communications, the Party is encouraged to submit these materials promptly. Physical evidence, like clothing, also should be preserved and documented. Privileged information, such as health records, is never required to be submitted but may be submitted if the Party whose health records are to be submitted consents to their submission. All individuals who are interviewed may also present evidence during the interview with the Investigator(s), although delays in the submission of evidence may limit or preclude its consideration during the Formal Complaint Process.
- Adviser Form: The Complainant and Respondent are allowed to have an adviser throughout this process. For a detailed description of an adviser and the adviser's role, please see "Adviser \(p. 130\)." If a Party wishes to have an adviser present during the interview process, the Party must complete and submit the Adviser Form in advance of the interview.

Both the Complainant and Respondent will be given seven (7) calendar days from the Notice of Complaint to supply these materials (a written statement, if any; a proposed witness list; supporting evidence, if any; and the Adviser Form) to the Title IX coordinator or their designee. The Title IX coordinator does not play a role in reviewing or analyzing any statements, witness lists, or evidence presented by the parties but promptly will give all such information to the Investigator(s) to utilize in the investigation.

Upon receipt of the above materials or seven (7) or more calendar days after issuance of the Notice of Complaint, the Title IX coordinator or their designee will coordinate with all Parties (including the Complainant, the Respondent, and all witnesses made known at that time) to schedule an interview with the Investigator(s). The interview(s) typically will occur within fourteen (14) days of the Title IX coordinator's receipt of the above materials, although events such as scheduled class breaks and unscheduled events may impact the timeline.

B. Investigation Procedure

The Investigator(s) will seek to complete the investigation and prepare the Final Investigatory Report (FIR) within thirty-five (35) calendar days of the date the Formal Complaint is filed.

Extensions may become necessary, depending on any of the following:

- The cooperation and availability of witnesses, whether the College is in session, and/or if there are criminal proceedings or criminal investigations underway with respect to the incident or incidents reported that delay the College's internal proceedings; or
- One or both Parties request a delay in the process, and that request is granted for good cause shown; or
- Other extenuating or appropriate circumstances arise, the adequacy of which rests in the Title IX coordinator's sole discretion.

If the investigation cannot be completed within the thirty-five (35) day period, both the Complainant and Respondent will be notified in writing by the Title IX coordinator. Such written notification typically will be sent before the expiration of the expected completion date for the investigation.

The typical steps of the Investigation Procedure are as follows:

- i. The Title IX coordinator and Investigator(s) will designate dates and times at which the Investigator(s) are available to conduct interviews on campus or by video, if on campus is not possible. The Title IX coordinator or designee, will perform all administrative tasks involved in scheduling these interviews.
- ii. Once all interviews are scheduled, the Investigator(s) meet with the scheduled individual(s). The Title IX coordinator, or other College representative, may be present at the start of the interview to review the Formal Complaint Process and other information pertaining to the interview. If an Adviser is present, the College representative may also review their role in the process.
- iii. During the Investigation Procedure, all Parties involved will have the opportunity to provide further evidence regarding the events surrounding the incident(s) to the Investigator(s). The Investigator(s) also have the discretion to deem which submitted items of evidence are relevant to the case, although they shall identify in the Final Investigatory Report (FIR) all evidence submitted, including a summary of the evidence deemed not relevant and the reasoning for that determination.
- iv. During interviews, if the Investigator(s) identify other individuals as witnesses with potentially probative information, these other individuals may also be contacted whether or not either Party has brought their names forward.
- v. After interviewing each involved Party and witness, the Investigator(s) will draft a summary of the relevant information from the interview and shall send it to the interviewee to review. The interviewee may confirm the contents of the summary or comment on new information or discrepancies within the summary. Any comments received from the interviewee will be included with the FIR, typically in an Appendix.
- vi. The Investigator may conduct follow-up interviews with the Complainant, the Respondent, and/or relevant witnesses as deemed necessary and appropriate.
- vii. When all of the interviews have been concluded, the FIR drafted by the Investigator will be sent to the Title IX coordinator. The FIR should include factual information and may comment on the credibility of the witnesses and/or the Parties; however, in no event shall conclusions as to responsibility be stated, as that remains in the sole responsibility of the Adjudicator.
- viii. In the event that the Title IX coordinator believes that there may be material information missing from the FIR or an additional investigation is warranted, the Title IX coordinator may direct the Investigator(s) to investigate further and supplement the FIR. The Title IX coordinator shall identify the particular additional information to be gathered or the additional investigation warranted, in writing, to the Investigator(s), and the Investigator(s)'s supplementation will be included in the Appendix of the FIR.

- ix. When the Title IX coordinator has determined that the FIR is complete and comprehensive, the Title IX coordinator will direct the Investigator(s) to allow the Parties and their advisers to inspect and review the directly related evidence, including transcripts or notes of all interviews conducted as part of the investigation; however, such evidence will be redacted if it is not directly related to the allegations or is otherwise privileged. Additionally, the Parties and their advisers may not make copies, download, preserve, share, or otherwise disseminate or maintain the evidence that was shared with them for the purpose of the evidence-review process.
- x. The Parties will then have ten (10) calendar days following inspection and review of the evidence to submit a written response to the evidence, if they choose to do so. Any written response to the evidence will be included in an addendum to the FIR.
- xi. Following the evidence-review period, the FIR promptly will be forwarded to the Hearing Coordinator by the Title IX coordinator.

The submission of the FIR to the Hearing Coordinator will close the investigative record. In the event that, after submission of the FIR but prior to the hearing, any additional evidence is identified by any involved person, the Title IX coordinator shall have the sole discretion to determine whether such evidence is previously unavailable, relevant evidence which, when considered, may materially alter the outcome. If the evidence is approved for inclusion with the FIR, the Title IX coordinator will so indicate in an addendum to the FIR, with the date of submission and the identity of the submitter also identified. Additionally, the Title IX coordinator will consider whether to direct further investigation and extension, reschedule the hearing, authorize a reply in response to the supplemental evidence, or grant accommodations to ensure that a full hearing record is assembled on terms that are fair to the Parties.

The FIR is to remain confidential and shall only be accessible to necessary and appropriate individuals, including, but not limited to: designated Investigator(s), Title IX coordinator, Hearing Coordinator, Hearing Adjudicator, Complainant, Respondent, the Parties' advisers, and such other persons, if any, who in the Title IX coordinator's discretion are necessary and appropriate recipients. All persons receiving the FIR are expected, and obliged, to maintain in confidence the information reported in the FIR and not to share it with any person who lacks a legitimate need to know.

II. Hearing Procedure

Within five (5) calendar days of forwarding the completed FIR to the Hearing Coordinator, the Title IX coordinator will send the final Notice of Complaint and Hearing (also known as the “Hearing Notice”), including any changes or additions to the allegations to be adjudicated, to the Respondent and the Complainant. This Hearing Notice will describe or incorporate the following:

- The date, time, location, and allegations concerning the conduct violation(s);
- The specific Code of Conduct and/or Policy provisions alleged to have been violated;
- The presumption that the Respondent is not responsible unless and until the Adjudicator determines there is a preponderance of the evidence that the Policy violation(s) occurred; and
- All possible sanctions.

The Hearing Notice will specify the date and time of the hearing, which in most circumstances will be no less than ten (10) nor more than twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice. After the Hearing Notice is sent, the hearing will be completed within twenty (20) days unless there is a need for an extension, which may be granted in the Hearing Coordinator’s sole discretion for good cause shown. Notification of any extension will be given in writing to both Parties.

If a supplemental statement or additional evidence is offered at or after the hearing, the presumption will be that good cause for such submissions at this point in the proceedings does not exist. The burden shall be on the submitting Party to overcome this presumption and to establish the relevance of the information, any reasonable excuse for the delay in submission, and the fairness of the submission at this point in the proceedings. If the additional evidence is deemed relevant and appropriate for consideration, the Hearing Coordinator also will consider whether additional investigation is appropriate, whether rescheduling of the hearing is warranted, whether the hearing should be continued or reopened, whether any adverse Party shall be granted an opportunity to respond in writing, or whether any other remedial measures are warranted.

A. Before the Hearing

- The Hearing Coordinator will arrange separate meetings with the Complainant and the Respondent to review the Hearing Notice and the Final Investigatory Report (FIR), and all addenda, and to answer questions regarding those documents and the hearing process. Both parties must have their adviser present at this review.
- Review of the FIR at these meetings does not authorize submission of additional proposed revisions or comments, beyond those referenced in Section B of the Investigation Procedure above. The pre-hearing review instead allows for transparency, permitting each party to see the FIR in its entirety and allowing them the opportunity to prepare for the hearing accordingly.
- The parties may not keep or make copies and/or download the FIR or its attachments unless explicitly allowed to do so by the Hearing Coordinator.

- If, at any time, a Party changes their adviser, the Title IX coordinator and Hearing Coordinator must be notified immediately. Should a Party change or lose an adviser, the Party has three (3) calendar days to notify the College of their new adviser or be appointed an adviser by the College. The adviser must then review the FIR within five (5) days of their appointment.
- The Complainant and Respondent will be informed at these meetings that they may submit an impact statement to the Hearing Coordinator. Submission of this statement shall be no later than one (1) calendar day prior to the day the hearing commences. The impact statement(s) shall be provided to the Hearing Adjudicator, henceforth known as the Adjudicator, or the assistant vice president of human resources only if there has been a finding of responsibility. The impact statements shall be read during the sanctioning phase and may be considered in assessing any sanction.
- Prior to the hearing, the Hearing Coordinator also will provide the Adjudicator access to the FIR and other related materials.

B. Rules of the Hearing

- The hearing is closed to the public. Attendees at the hearing shall include the Hearing Coordinator, the Hearing Adjudicator, the Complainant, the Respondent, their advisers, and witnesses. Witnesses shall only be present in the hearing during their respective participation in the process.
- For in-person hearings: The Hearing Coordinator will make reasonable efforts to secure a space for the hearing that is appropriate and private. The hearing room will be set up with a screen or wall between the two Parties. The Parties in all events will be able to hear one another but generally not see one another.
- For virtual hearings: Zoom or other electronic means may be used to conduct a virtual hearing. At the direction of the Hearing Coordinator or Adjudicator, participants may turn their camera on or off at designated times.
- If the Complainant, the Respondent, or witnesses fail to appear, the hearing will continue as scheduled, unless the Hearing Adjudicator determines otherwise for good cause.
- All speakers must be recognized by the Hearing Adjudicator prior to speaking. No interruptions will be tolerated.
- The Parties will not directly question or address each other or the witnesses. Advisers of the Parties have the opportunity to engage in cross-examination (henceforth known as “questioning”) of the other Party and of witnesses. Advisers will be allowed to have a view of the individual they are questioning. An adviser is not allowed to question their advisee.
 - If a Party does not select an adviser, the College will select and supply an adviser for that Party, solely for the purpose of questioning. This adviser shall be furnished without cost to the Party. For further information, please see “Adviser” under Definition of Roles Under This Policy \(p. 130\) in Policy on Sexual Violence.

- Questioning: Advisers may pose relevant questions about any information shared or any issue raised during the hearing. The Adjudicator may determine whether a proposed question is relevant and appropriate. Should the question be deemed irrelevant, the Adjudicator will provide the rationale for that conclusion. Should the question be approved as relevant, the Party or witness in question may provide their answer. The Adjudicator's decision on such matters is final.
- If any Party involved or their adviser fails to follow the instructions of the Hearing Coordinator, they may be removed. If an adviser is removed, a Party will choose a new adviser.
- Brief breaks during the hearing will be taken at the request of either Party or the Adjudicator. The Parties and their adviser may consult in private during the hearing, but any break in the hearing for purposes of consultation may not occur while a question is pending. The Hearing Coordinator will determine the reasonableness of requests for breaks.

C. Order of Business for the Hearing

Generally, hearings will follow the order of business listed below; however, variations may occur, depending on the circumstances of an individual case, and are in the sole discretion of the Hearing Adjudicator.

1. The Hearing Coordinator makes introductions of the Hearing Adjudicator, the Parties, and their advisers; no witnesses will be in the hearing room until the time they are called to present information to the Adjudicator.
2. The Hearing Coordinator and Hearing Adjudicator explain the hearing process and answer any questions related to the process.
3. Both the Complainant and Respondent may, but are not obliged to, attend or participate at the hearing.
4. The Complainant may make an opening statement in addition to any written statement in the FIR.
5. The Respondent may make an opening statement in addition to any written statement in the FIR.
6. The Complainant testifies, answers questions from the Hearing Adjudicator and any questions posed by the Respondent's adviser in accordance with the rules of the hearing stated above.
7. The Respondent testifies, answers questions from the Hearing Adjudicator and any questions posed by the Complainant's adviser in accordance with the rules of the hearing stated above.
8. The witnesses answer questions from the Hearing Adjudicator and any questions posed by the advisers of both the Complainant and the Respondent in accordance with the rules of the hearing stated above.
9. The Complainant may, but is not obliged to, make a final statement.
10. The Respondent may, but is not obliged to, make a final statement.
11. The Hearing Adjudicator dismisses all participants.

Opening statements and final statements made by the Parties must follow the following guidelines:

- The statements will refer only to probative and relevant information.
- The statements will be professional and not overly combative or disparaging in tone.
- The statements will not reference evidence not presented at the hearing or introduce new information that was not provided during the investigation or hearing, including evidence or information excluded from consideration by the Adjudicator.

III. Adjudication

A. Deliberations

Upon completion of the hearing, the Adjudicator will deliberate to determine if the Respondent is responsible for the violation(s) alleged in the Hearing Notice. If it is not possible for the Adjudicator to make a decision the same day as the hearing concludes, the Complainant and the Respondent shall be notified by the Title IX coordinator of an anticipated date for release of a decision.

The Adjudicator will make one of the following determinations for each alleged Policy violation:

- Not Responsible: The Respondent will be found not responsible when the Adjudicator determines that it is more likely than not that the alleged behavior did not occur, there was insufficient evidence to determine that it was more likely than not that the behavior occurred, and/or the behavior that occurred was not in violation of the Policy Against Sexual Violence or other applicable policies under Sarah Lawrence College's Code of Conduct.
- Responsible: The Respondent will be found responsible when the Adjudicator determines that it is more likely than not that the alleged behavior did occur and that the behavior was in violation of the Policy Against Sexual Violence or other applicable violations of Sarah Lawrence College's Code of Conduct.

B. Notification & Decision

If the Respondent is found not responsible for all allegations:

- The Adjudicator will prepare the Decision Letter, including the Adjudicator's stated rationale for that determination.
- The Adjudicator will send the letter to the Hearing Coordinator, who shall provide copies of the Decision Letter, simultaneously or in a reasonably contemporaneous fashion, to both the Respondent and the Complainant.

If the Respondent is found responsible for one or more allegations:

The Adjudicator will notify the Hearing Coordinator of the decision before deliberating on sanctions. The Hearing Coordinator then will inform the Adjudicator of the Respondent's prior conduct history at the College, if any, including any past findings of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, sexual assault, or sexual exploitation. The Hearing Coordinator also shall share with the Adjudicator any impact statements received from the Complainant and/or the Respondent. No Party is compelled to address or comment upon their own mental-health diagnosis and/or treatment in their impact statements, and the Adjudicator shall draw no conclusion or make no inference from the absence of such information from any impact statement. The Adjudicator will consider the question of sanctions.

Typically, the Decision Letter will be sent to the parties within three (3) calendar days of the conclusion of the Adjudicator's deliberations. The Decision Letter will include the following information:

- Written determination regarding responsibility:
 - Specifying the findings of fact made,
 - Providing conclusions about whether the charged conduct occurred, and
 - Providing the reasoning for each such conclusion.
- Disciplinary sanctions to be imposed on the Respondent (if applicable); and
- Restorative remedies for the Complainant (if applicable).

Both Parties have the right to choose whether to disclose or discuss the outcome of the conduct process. They are also guaranteed the right to have all information obtained during the course of the conduct process protected from public release by the College until the appeals panel makes a final determination, unless otherwise required by law.

C. Sanctions for Violations of Sexual Violence

a. Procedure for Sanctioning for Student Respondents:

If the Respondent is found responsible for violating the Policy Against Sexual Violence, the Adjudicator may impose one or more of the following sanctions, as indicated for the specific violation. If more than one violation of the Policy is found to have occurred, the Respondent may face enhanced sanctions. Additional, different, or enhanced sanctions for other conduct violations or College Policy violations may be possible as well.

For a finding of sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, relationship violence, and/or stalking, the sanction may include:

- Social probation, which may include restriction from particular College buildings, areas of campus, and/or College activities
- Loss of College housing, either permanently or for a defined period of time
- Suspension from the College for a minimum of one full semester
- Expulsion

For a finding of sexual assault:

- Suspension from the College for a minimum of two full semesters. (In the event that a finding of responsibility for sexual assault is made during the course of a semester, a Respondent is suspended immediately, and the two full semesters during which the Respondent shall be suspended are subsequent to the current term.)
- Expulsion

In addition to the above sanctions, the Adjudicator may require a Respondent to participate in mandatory educational programs, an evaluation by Counseling and Psychological Services, or other remedial or restorative measures, as deemed appropriate by the Adjudicator.

b. Sanctioning for Staff and Faculty:

For cases involving a staff or faculty member, the Adjudicator will provide any finding of responsibility, or lack thereof, and the rationale for such decision to the Title IX coordinator. Then, the Title IX coordinator will supply this decision and rationale to the assistant vice president of human resources, who will then determine any penalties to be imposed as provided below:

- Written warning (available only for a finding of harassment)
- Formal reprimand (available only for a finding of harassment)
- Suspension without pay (In the case of a faculty member, the assistant vice president of human resources will make this recommendation to the Advisory Committee on Appointments.)
- Termination of employment (The assistant vice president of human resources will make this recommendation to the president for staff members or to the provost for faculty members. If applicable, the provost may begin the process for revocation of tenure.)

IV. Appeal Process

A. Basis for Appeal

Either the Complainant or the Respondent may appeal the Adjudicator's decision. An appeal may address only the following four grounds:

- A material procedural error occurred, and that error was significantly prejudicial to the outcome of the hearing as it affects the student appealing.
- Previously unavailable relevant evidence, which was either not available or not known to the student appealing at the time of the hearing, is identified and which, when considered, may materially alter the outcome. Information that the appealing student chose not to pursue with due diligence or present at the time of the hearing is not considered new information.
- College personnel involved in the case presented a conflict of interest or bias that was significantly prejudicial to the outcome of the findings.
- The sanction imposed was inappropriate (either excessive or insufficient), based on the weight of the information provided during the investigation and/or hearing.

B. Submitting an Appeal

An appeal must be submitted to the Hearing Coordinator within five (5) calendar days of the Appealing Party's receipt of the Adjudicator's Decision Letter, which time may be extended, for good cause shown, by the Title IX coordinator or the coordinator's designee. Extension requests shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Title IX coordinator or the coordinator's designee. The Nonappealing Party will promptly be notified if an appeal is submitted and be provided with a copy of the appeal documents. Nonappealing Parties may themselves submit a written response to the appeal for the Appeals Panel to consider within five (5) days of being provided with the Appealing Party's appeal documents, which time may be extended, for good cause shown, by the Title IX coordinator or the coordinator's designee. Extension requests shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Title IX coordinator or the coordinator's designee. No further submissions shall be permitted absent permission of the Title IX coordinator.

All appeal statements, responses, and/or replies must be sent by the student requesting the appeal (not on behalf of the student by an adviser or parent). Each appeal statement shall be no longer than five pages and consist of one-inch margins and Times New Roman 12-point font. No attachments or exhibits will be accepted; however, any references to the Final Investigatory Report and other materials may be made in the appeal statements or response.

C. Appeal Deliberations

Upon receipt of an appeal, the Hearing Coordinator will call together an Appeals Panel to review the appeal. An appeal is not a new hearing but, rather, a reviewing body that will evaluate the grounds for appeal of the Adjudicator's determination in light of the hearing record as a whole. The Appeals Panel will meet alone (without the presence of the parties, witnesses, Adjudicator, or Hearing Coordinator).

The three-member Appeals Panel will consist of the provost/dean of the faculty (or the dean's designee), serving as chair, and two members of the trained pool of faculty and staff members, selected by the Hearing Coordinator, who were not involved in the investigation or adjudication of the underlying matter. The Appeals Panel members shall not include individuals with a conflict of interest or who had prior nonpublic information about the conduct charged.

The Appeals Panel will in most instances make its decision within ten (10) calendar days of the receipt of the final appeal-related submission(s); however, extenuating circumstances may result in an extension, which shall be considered in the sole discretion of the Appeals Panel chair. If there is an extension, both parties will be informed of the delay, in writing, and will be given an estimate of when the appeal will be determined.

The Appeals Panel will make its decision using only the following:

- Consideration of the merits of the appeal, based on the written appeal request and/or any responses or replies submitted subsequent to the appeal request;
- The Final Investigatory Report and any addenda or supplements to that Report;
- Other information provided to the Adjudicator at the hearing, such as documents or statements; and, if applicable,
- The recording of the hearing.

Based on these materials, the Appeals Panel may:

- Affirm the Adjudicator's determination and/or sanctions;
- Alter the sanctions rendered, if sanctions have been imposed and the appropriateness of the sanction is raised as a reason for appeal; however, the Appeals Panel's sanction must stay within the sanctioning guidelines as outlined above;
- Alter the determination or remand the matter for further investigation or deliberation, if the Appeals Panel concludes that a significant material procedural error was made; or
- Send the case back to the original Adjudicator for a new hearing, if new information, as defined above, has arisen that, in the Appeals Panel's judgment, may have altered the outcome. If potential bias or conflict of interest is identified, or if, in the Hearing Coordinator's discretion, the appointment of an alternate Adjudicator would be appropriate, the Hearing Coordinator will select a new member from the Adjudicator pool.

D. Revisiting Cases Based on New Information

If the case is returned by the Appeals Panel on the basis of new information, this new information may require that an additional investigation occur prior to any new hearing proceedings. The Appeals Panel, in collaboration with the Title IX Office, will determine whether the new information requires another investigation.

- If the new information requires supplemental investigation, the case will follow the timeline of investigation and hearing procedure in which the original investigator of the case shall be responsible for conducting this investigation within thirty-five (35) days, and the hearing shall take place within twenty-five (25) days after the investigation, absent good cause shown for an extension.
- If the new information does not require any supplemental investigation, the case shall be heard within twenty (20) days, or as soon as practicable in the event the academic calendar does not allow the hearing to be scheduled, or in the absence of good cause shown for an extension.
- In the event that both Parties do not wish to proceed with a second hearing, they may consider other options for resolution suggested and facilitated by the Hearing Coordinator; however, any alternate process must be agreed upon by both Parties and by the Hearing Coordinator.

Although new information may be presented or identified during any supplemental investigation, there shall be no changes made to the original Final Investigatory Report. New information, including any information gathered in a supplemental investigation, will be added as an addendum to the original FIR. Both parties will have the opportunity to view the new information before it is sent back to the Adjudicator.

The decision of the Appeals Panel will be final. No further appeals are permitted by either Party, except in the case where the Committee sends the case back to the Adjudicator to conduct a new hearing.

Record of Process

- Outside recording devices may not be used by any Party or by any other individual at any stage of the Formal Complaint Process (including meetings, interviews, or hearings).
- An audio recording of all conducted interviews will be made by the Investigator. The Party or witness with whom the Investigator conducts the interview has a right to access their own audio recording or transcript of the interview. The Parties will be granted access to interview notes and/or interview transcripts of all persons interviewed (including the other Party and witnesses) during the evidence review process, but this material will not be made available to witnesses.
- An audio recording will be made of the hearing for the use of the Adjudicator and, in the event of an appeal, by the Appeals Committee.
- The Parties have a right to access the record of the hearing, including the audio recording, prior to preparation of any appeal, assuming a prompt request is made by said Party.
- Copies of all statements, evidence, audio recordings, and letters associated with the Formal Complaint Process will be maintained by the Title IX Office in a case file for at least seven (7) years, in accordance with the College's record-retention policy.
- The Adjudicator's decision letter and the Appeal Committee's decision letter, if any, will be kept in the Respondent's discipline file in accordance with the College's record-retention policy.

Transcript Notations

For incidents of violence, including, but not limited to, sexual violence, defined as crimes that meet the reporting requirements pursuant to the federal Clery Act (which include murder; manslaughter; rape, fondling, incest, and statutory rape; robbery; aggravated assault; burglary; motor vehicle theft; and arson), the College shall make a notation on the transcript of students found responsible, after a conduct process and after being issued a sanction of either a suspension or an expulsion.

1. Current Students

For Respondents enrolled as current students who are found responsible for violating the Policy on Sexual Violence, the College shall make a notation on the transcript reflective of the student's sanction, such that the student was either:

- "Suspended after a finding of responsibility for a Code of Conduct violation," or
- "Expelled after a finding of responsibility for a Code of Conduct violation."

2. Withdrawn Students

If a subject of a Formal Complaint or a Respondent withdraws from the College while conduct charges are being investigated or are pending and declines to participate in or complete the conduct process, the College shall make the transcript notation: "Withdrew with conduct charges pending." The College may continue with the investigation even if a Respondent withdraws and declines to participate. A withdrawn Respondent who agrees to participate in and complete the conduct process shall not be subject to the aforementioned notation; however, if that individual who agrees to complete the conduct process is then found responsible for violating the Policy on Sexual Violence, the College will make the transcript notation: "Found responsible for a Code of Conduct violation."

3. Graduated Students

If a Respondent graduates from the College while conduct charges are pending and declines to complete the conduct process, the College shall make the transcript notation: "Graduated with conduct charges pending." The College may continue the investigation even if a Respondent graduates and declines to participate. For a graduate who agrees to participate in and complete the conduct process, no such notation will be made until its conclusion; however, if a graduate is then found responsible for violating the Policy on Sexual Violence, the College will make the transcript notation: "Found responsible for a Code of Conduct violation."

4. Appeal of Transcript Notation

A student may seek removal of a transcript notation for a suspension imposed upon a finding of a violation of this Policy, provided that such notation shall not be removed prior to one year after conclusion of the suspension, and may only be removed for good cause shown. The determination of good cause shall be in the sole discretion of the College. Transcript notations for expulsion shall not be removed. A graduated or withdrawn student may seek removal of a transcript notation, provided that such notation shall not be removed prior to one year after being issued, and may only be granted for good cause shown. To file an appeal to have the transcript notation removed from an academic transcript, a student must submit the basis for removal, in writing, to the vice president and dean of students, or their designee.

If a finding of responsibility is vacated for any reason, any such transcript notation shall be removed as soon as practicable.

STUDENT CONDUCT PROCESS

Statement Of General Community Standards (p. 191)

The rules that govern life at Sarah Lawrence are designed to protect each individual's physical, intellectual, psychological, social, and emotional well-being and to enable people to live and work together with minimal conflict and maximum personal freedom.

Overview Of The Conduct Process (p. 193)

The Student Conduct Process will be used for all violations of nonacademic College policies, with the exception of the Policy on Sexual Violence.

Sanctions (p. 195)

Sanctions are assessed in response to the specific violation(s) and prior conduct history of the student and in keeping with the policies and procedures noted in this handbook.

Appeals (p. 197)

A student wishing to appeal the outcome of a conduct hearing should submit the conduct appeal form on Maxient within two business days of the issuance of the outcome letter.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL COMMUNITY STANDARDS

Failure to comply with any policy will result in disciplinary action. A hearing officer or panel will decide the severity of the offense and may give sanctions greater than the sanctions listed below when warranted by the facts and circumstances of the specific violation. Higher tiered offenses may also include sanctions prescribed in lower tiers. For example, in response to a third-tier offense, sanctions for second- and/or first-tier offenses may also be issued. In the case of multiple offenses, sanctions for each offense may be issued in conjunction with each other.

The rules that govern life at Sarah Lawrence are designed to protect each individual's physical, intellectual, psychological, social, and emotional well-being and to enable people to live and work together with minimal conflict and maximum personal freedom. Every member of the Sarah Lawrence community is required to abide by the standards outlined in this handbook. Additional information is listed in the appendices.

Jurisdiction

Students are expected to observe all College policies and local, state, and federal laws, including those involving breach-of-peace offenses. Students who violate local, state, or federal laws are subject to College conduct action and may be asked to leave the College by the vice president and dean of students or the dean of graduate and professional studies. The dean of graduate and professional studies may refer the complaint to the vice president and dean of students or may work in consultation with the vice president and dean of students to resolve the conduct issue. Students are expected to cooperate with any conduct investigation and to comply with requests of College officials, including campus safety officers and resident advisers. The College reserves the right to search a student residence if there is reason to believe a violation of College policy has occurred. Failure to cooperate with an investigation or comply with requests will result in further conduct action.

The Student Conduct Process applies to all Sarah Lawrence College students and student organizations. A student is defined as a person enrolled or registered for study at Sarah Lawrence College for any academic period, irrespective of the student's presence on campus. Persons who are not officially enrolled but have been enrolled and plan to continue as students at the College may also be considered students. This includes, but is not limited to, students on a personal, medical, or academic leave of absence, and students suspended from the College. The Student Conduct Process applies to Sarah Lawrence College students while they are on campus, off campus, online, or abroad. Students residing in Sarah Lawrence College residence halls are also bound by the policies and procedures of the Housing License Agreement. The Housing License Agreement and other residential policies may be viewed on the Office of Residential Life's MySLC page.

Standard of Proof

The purpose of the Student Conduct Process is to investigate the facts of the matter and to determine responsibility for alleged violations, regardless of intention. The focus of inquiry is whether the student is “responsible” or “not responsible” for violating College policy/ies. The standard of proof for a finding of responsibility is a “preponderance of evidence,” meaning that the evidence indicates that it was more likely than not that the conduct violation occurred. Formal rules of evidence are not applicable, and deviations from prescribed procedures will not necessarily invalidate a decision or proceeding unless significant prejudice to a student or to the College results. There may be instances where a student is found responsible for a related violation rather than the one listed in their notice letter. This may occur if the allegations giving rise to the related violation stem from the same facts and circumstances as described in the notice letter.

OVERVIEW OF THE CONDUCT PROCESS

The Student Conduct Process will be used for all violations of nonacademic College policies, with the exception of the Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct Policy. The conduct process for alleged violations of the sexual violence policy may be found in the Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct Policy \(p. 84\).

In cases where a violation of community responsibilities or College policies and/or regulations has occurred, discipline may occur in the manner that the College determines appropriate. For graduate students, the dean of graduate and professional studies or the vice president and dean of students will handle the matter. For undergraduates, the vice president and dean of students, assistant vice president and dean of student life, the assistant directors of residential life, and resident fellows may serve as hearing officers and will consider the matter and apply sanctions as appropriate. If one of these individuals had direct involvement in the matter, the case may be referred to another hearing officer. Cases involving alleged violations of the Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct Policy are addressed by the conduct process found in the Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct Policy \(p. 84\).

Students who violate community expectations or College policy will need to meet with one or more hearing officer(s). The hearing officer will contact the student at their Sarah Lawrence email address via Maxient to schedule a conduct hearing. Students are expected to respond within two business days. If students do not respond and/or do not meet with the hearing officer, the incident will be reviewed without the benefit of the student's involvement and sanctions will be enacted as appropriate to the behavior. It is to the student's advantage to schedule and participate in a conduct hearing. Outside parties (e.g., friends, dons, parents) are not permitted to be present in Student Conduct Process meetings. A lack of response will also be considered in applying a sanction. Failure to check campus email will not be considered as a mitigating factor.

Records of a student's conduct history are retained in the student's conduct file for seven years. Written records of cases including suspension or expulsion will be maintained in the student's permanent record. Parents will be notified if there is, or may be, a change in the student's enrollment or housing status due to a conduct matter or, in some cases, due to violations of the Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy. For details, see General College Policies \(p. 98\).

Questions regarding a student's conduct case should be directed to the hearing officer for the incident.

Administrative Actions

Interim Administrative Actions

The assistant vice president and dean of student life, the assistant dean of graduate students, or their designee may take interim administrative action when a student is deemed to threaten the health, safety, or well-being of the College community. Interim actions may include suspension from the College, removal from College housing, loss of privileges, or other similar measures.

Interim administrative action is not a disciplinary sanction; rather, it is intended to help protect members of the College community until a matter can be investigated and adjudicated. The interim action remains in effect until the matter has been investigated, adjudicated, or otherwise resolved at the discretion of the assistant vice president and dean of student life, the assistant dean of graduate students, or their designee.

Examples of behavior that may lead to interim suspension from the College include, but are not limited to, physical violence, sexual misconduct, and possession and distribution of controlled substances.

No Contact Orders (NCOs)

A No Contact Order (NCO) may be issued at any time by the Office of Community Standards, the Office of Residential Life, or the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies. Under an NCO, two (or more) student parties are ordered to avoid intentional contact with one another. This order does not guarantee that involved parties will never see each other or be in the same space, but it stipulates that intentional and direct contact must be avoided.

NCOs are not a disciplinary sanction but, rather, an administrative action to mandate civil conduct between the involved parties. Moreover, both parties are able to request to modify or remove an NCO under a review process detailed in the NCO issuance letter.

SANCTIONS

Conversational Resolution

A conversational resolution is a sanction generally utilized for first-time, low-level violations. Conversational resolutions are meant to provide students with an opportunity to discuss behavioral expectations of Sarah Lawrence College, as well as to strategize ways to prevent further misconduct through student decision-making. Students are generally afforded the conversational resolution only once during their tenure.

Disciplinary Probation

Disciplinary probation serves as a final warning that a student's behavior is not in line with College policies. Should a student be found responsible for violating any other policies while on disciplinary probation, sanctioning would likely result in suspension. Disciplinary probation may be issued for any duration of time, including the remainder of the student's time at Sarah Lawrence.

Documented Warning

A documented warning is written notice that the student's conduct is in violation of College policy and that future violations may result in more severe sanctions.

Educational Program/Project

Programs and activities designed to help the student become more aware of College policies and understand the inappropriateness of the behavior include, but are not limited to, participation in a campus educational program or completion of an online program.

Referral to Health & Wellness

A referral to Health & Wellness is a referral for an assessment and follow-up recommendations. This is a two-part process:

1. The student must make an appointment with Health & Wellness within 24 hours of the conduct hearing with the hearing officer.
2. The student must show up on time for the appointment. Tardiness may count as a missed appointment. Should an emergency arise that prevents a student from keeping an appointment with Health & Wellness, it is the student's responsibility to notify Health & Wellness to reschedule the appointment in a timely manner.

Fines

As appropriate to the violation, a fine may be imposed. Students may also receive a $50 community impact fine when appropriate.

Loss of Privileges

A specific privilege may be denied for a defined period of time.

Restricted Access

When conditions specifically dictate and limit future presence on campus and/or participation in College-sponsored activities, the restrictions will be clearly defined and may include, but are not limited to, presence in certain buildings or locations on campus, housing relocation, or a No Contact Order forbidding the student from contact with another identified member of the community.

Suspension

Suspension means that the student must leave the College for a defined period of time. During the suspension period, the student is not permitted on campus and is not permitted to participate in any off-campus, College-sponsored/affiliated activity.

Expulsion

Expulsion means that the student's relationship with the College is permanently terminated. A student who is expelled from the College is not permitted on campus and is not permitted to participate in any off-campus, College-sponsored/affiliated activity.

APPEALS

A student wishing to appeal the outcome of a conduct hearing should submit the conduct appeal form on Maxient within two business days of the issuance of the outcome letter. The student will receive confirmation of receipt of the form from an appeals officer at the student's Sarah Lawrence e-mail address, typically within two business days of submission. The appeals officer is a hearing officer who is not the issuing officer and who serves in a professional capacity at the College above the level of the issuing officer.

The appeals officer will consider whether the conduct-process procedures were followed properly. The appeals officer may also consider new information that was not available at the time the decision was made, if the appeals officer determines that such information is relevant to the case and was truly not available at the time the decision was made. Information that the student chose not to present to the hearing officer at the time of the hearing does not constitute new information. Sanctions resulting from failure to comply with a sanction may not be appealed.

An appeal is not a new hearing, and the student is not present for the appeal. The appeals officer will consider only the written appeal statement and the case record in determining the outcome of an appeal. The appeals officer will communicate the decision to the student, in writing, once a decision has been reached and generally within five business days; however, unavoidable delays in the processing of an appeal, including the complexity of the case, may require additional time for review.

During the consideration of an appeal, sanctions assessed by the hearing officer will remain in effect. The appeal period/process begins when the appeals officer confirms receipt of the conduct appeals form. If a student has an additional violation of community standards or College policy while an appeal is being reviewed, the student's prior conduct sanctions and record, including those being appealed, will be considered in responding to the new violation(s).

Only one appeal per incident is permitted, and the decision of the appeals officer is final. No further appeals are permitted. Questions about an appeal should be directed to the appropriate appeals officer.

Record Retention

In accordance with the College's record-retention policy, written records of conduct cases will be maintained for seven years. Written records of cases that include suspension or expulsion will be maintained in the student's permanent record.

APPENDICES TO THE STUDENT HANDBOOK

APPENDIX 1: NEW YORK STATE PENAL CODE

- NYS Penal Law Definition of Stalking (sections 120.45, 120.50, 120.55, 120.60)
- NYS Penal Law Article 130: Sex Offenses

APPENDIX 2: ORDERS OF PROTECTION

Frequently Asked Questions - Obtaining An Order of Protection \(nycourts.gov\)

APPENDIX 3: DEFINITIONS UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)

Awareness programs means community-wide or audience-specific programming, initiatives, and strategies that increase audience knowledge and share information and resources to prevent violence, promote safety, and reduce perpetration.

Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns means programming, initiatives, and strategies that are sustained over time and focus on increasing understanding of topics relevant to and skills for addressing dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, using a range of strategies with audiences throughout the institution.

Primary prevention programs means programming, initiatives, and strategies informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome that are intended to stop dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking before they occur through the promotion of positive and healthy behaviors that foster healthy, mutually respectful relationships and sexuality, encourage safe bystander intervention, and seek to change behavior and social norms in healthy and safe directions.

Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene.

Proceeding means all activities related to a noncriminal resolution of an institutional disciplinary complaint, including, but not limited to, fact finding investigations, formal or informal meetings, and hearings. Proceeding does not include communications and meetings between officials and victims concerning accommodations or protective measures to be provided to a victim.

Result means any initial, interim, and final decision by any official or entity authorized to resolve disciplinary matters within the institution. The result must include any sanctions imposed by the institution. Notwithstanding section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C.1232g), commonly referred to as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). The result must also include the rationale for the result and the sanctions.

The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program and VAWA Definition of Sexual Assault

1. Rape is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
2. Fondling is defined as the touching of the private parts of another person for the purposes of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
3. Incest is defined as sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
4. Statutory rape is defined as sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

APPENDIX 4: ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS PENAL LAW

Summary of State and Federal Laws Regarding Possession and Distribution of Illegal Drugs

1. New York Law Narcotic and Marijuana Offenses
 - a. Simple Possession: Depending upon the drug and the quantity possessed, this offense may be a misdemeanor (Class A or B) or a felony (Class A-I, A-II, B, C, D, or E). Private possession of less than 25g of a substance, compound, or mixture containing marijuana is a violation.
 - b. Possession Plus Intent to Sell: A Class B, C, or D felony depending upon the drug, the quantity of the drug involved, and whether the accused has any prior convictions for drug-related offenses. Does not apply to marijuana.
 - c. Sale of Narcotics or Marijuana: Generally, a felony of varying degree depending upon the drug and the quantity sold. It is a Class B misdemeanor to transfer (for no money) one marijuana cigarette or less than 2g of marijuana to an adult (18 years of age or older), and a Class A misdemeanor to sell up to 25g of marijuana to an adult; all other offenses involving the sale of marijuana are felonies.
 - d. Potential Penalties for Conviction
 - Marijuana Violation: First offense, fine up to $100; second offense, fine up to $200; third offense, fine up to $250 and/or imprisonment for up to 15 days. Conditional discharge (similar to probation) plus fine also possible. Surcharges and victim assistance fees of $45.

- Class B Misdemeanor: Imprisonment for up to 3 months, conditional discharge, fine to $500, restitution/reparation, or a combination of the above. Surcharges and victim assistance fees of $90.
- Class A Misdemeanor: Imprisonment for up to one year, conditional discharge, fine to $1,000, restitution/reparation, or a combination of the above. Surcharges and victim assistance fees of $90.
- Felonies: Depending upon the offense and whether the accused has prior felony convictions, penalties may include imprisonment (mandatory for Class A, B, and C felonies) for terms ranging from less than one year up to life, fines ranging from $5,000 or less up to $100,000, property forfeiture, probation, or conditional discharge and restitution/reparation. Also possible: lifetime probation in return for material assistance to law enforcement (not available for Class A-I felonies). Surcharges and victim assistance fees of $155.

2. Federal Law Controlled Substances (Including Marijuana)

- a. Simple Possession: Punishable by imprisonment of up to one year, a fine of at least $1,000, or both. If accused has one or more prior convictions for drug-related offenses, imprisonment becomes mandatory for 15 to 90 days and fines increase to a minimum of $2,500 to $5,000. Penalties for possession of at least 5g of crack cocaine include a mandatory jail term of 5 to 20 years and a minimum fine of $1,000; the quantity of the drug required for penalty decreases if the accused has prior drug-related convictions. A person convicted of possession is also subject to a fine for the costs of investigation and prosecution of the offense. Possession of a personal use amount of certain controlled substances (including but not limited to LSD, heroin, cocaine, and marijuana) is punishable by a civil penalty of up to $10,000 for each offense.
- b. Manufacture, Distribution, Dispensation, and Possession with the Intent to Manufacture, Distribute, or Dispense: Depending upon the substance involved and the quantity, penalties may include imprisonment for prescribed terms from less than one year to life, supervised release (probation), criminal fines ranging from $1,000 to more than $1,000,000, and forfeiture of property that constitutes or is derived of proceeds obtained as a result of the offense or that was used or intended to be used in committing or facilitating commission of the offense. Penalties are subject to doubling or tripling for distribution to persons under the age of 21, distribution or manufacture in or near a school or college, and if the accused has prior drug-related convictions.
- c. Attempt and Conspiracy: Attempts to commit drug offenses and conspiracy to commit such offenses are subject to the same penalties as those prescribed for the offense itself.

Summary of State and City Alcohol Laws

1. Age of Majority—Unlawful Consumption Under 21: It is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 to consume alcoholic beverages, or to possess alcohol with the intention of consuming it. Any person who unlawfully possesses an alcoholic beverage with intent to consume may be summoned before and examined by a court having jurisdiction. Such persons are not subject to arrest. However, persons found in violation of this law may have a fine imposed by the court not exceeding $50 and/ or completion of an alcohol awareness program and/or an appropriate amount of community service not to exceed 30 hours.

2. Age of Majority—Prohibited Deliveries and Sales: No person shall sell, deliver, give away, cause, permit or procure to be sold, delivered, or given away any alcoholic beverages to any person, actually or apparently, under the legal age of 21. Violations of this section are deemed misdemeanors.
3. Age of Majority—Prohibited Deliveries and Sales: No person shall sell, deliver, give away, cause, permit or procure to be sold, delivered, or given away any alcoholic beverages to any visibly intoxicated person. Violations of this section are deemed misdemeanors.
4. Age of Majority—Fraudulent Means: No person under the age of 21 may present or offer false or fraudulent written identification of age, or the identification of another, for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase any alcoholic beverages. If one is found to have done so, he or she is guilty of a violation punishable by a fine of not more than $100 and/or an appropriate amount of community service not to exceed 30 hours and/or completion of an alcohol awareness program. Further, upon determination of a violation of this section, a court may suspend the violator's New York driver's license for 90 days.
5. Liability for Promoting or Causing Minor's Intoxication
 - a. Furnishing or Assisting: Any person injured in person, property, means of support, or otherwise by reason of the intoxication or impairment of ability of any person under 21 shall have the right of action to recover actual damages against any person who knowingly causes such intoxication or impairment of ability by unlawfully furnishing to or unlawfully assisting in procuring alcoholic beverages for such person with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that such person was under 21 years old.
 - b. Selling or Assisting: Any person injured in person, property, means of support, or otherwise by reason of the intoxication of any person shall have a right of action against any person who shall, by unlawfully selling to or unlawfully assisting in procuring liquor for such intoxicated person, have caused or contributed to such intoxication; and in any such action such person has a right to recover actual and exemplary damages.
6. City of Yonkers ordinances prohibit the possession of open containers containing alcoholic beverages in any area to which the public is invited and which is not fully enclosed, including private streets open to public vehicular traffic. Violations are deemed Class III offenses, punishable by criminal fines of not more than $250 and civil penalties of not more than $500. Repeat offenders may face fines and penalties of up to $2,500 and $10,000, respectively, and/or imprisonment of up to one year.
