Avoiding Prejudgment and Bias

"The Department's interest in ensuring impartial Title IX proceedings that avoid prejudgment of the facts at issue necessitates a broad prohibition on sex stereotypes so that decisions are made on the basis of individualized facts and not on stereotypical notions of what "men" or "women" do or do not do." 85 Fed. Reg. 30254 (May 19, 2020).

Avoiding Prejudgment and Bias

Avoiding Bias

"Department encourages [schools] to apply an objective (whether a reasonable person would believe bias exists), common sense approach to evaluating whether a particular person serving in a Title IX role is biased" WHILE

"exercising caution not to apply generalizations that might unreasonably conclude that bias exists (for example, assuming that all self-professed feminists, or self-described survivors, are biased against men, or that a male is incapable of being sensitive to women, or that prior work as a victim advocate, or as a defense attorney, renders the person biased for or against complainants or respondents"

Avoiding Prejudgment, Bias, and Conflicts of Interest

Bottom line

- > Follow facts of every individual case
- Investigate in manner that will not allow even a perception of prejudgment or bias for or against any party
